Dear Dean,

I know that you are surprised to hear from me but I am really and truly ashamed of myself for not writing to you sooner. I am well and feeling as unusual and I hope that this letter find you the same.

I am now somewhere in England and have been here for sometime. It really is a beautiful country but I <sup>will</sup> trade if anytime for Howard I will be back for another trip. I know that I shall make it this time when this conflict end.

Tell the boys that I said hi to and I miss them alot. Also tell them that the time they are spending in Howard will never be forgotten by them. I spend night after night dreaming about Howard and the time I had there. It must close now with three cheer for Howard.

Sincerely yours,
Garrett
