EUBIE BLAKE

The Candidate Will be Presented by Dr. William K. Collins
Member, Board of Trustees

Eubie Blake was born James Hubert Blake in Baltimore, Maryland on February 7, 1883. He displayed exceptional musical talent at the age of six, and for the next six years took piano lessons and studied classical music. At twelve, he heard ragtime and quickly learned it by ear. In 1899, at sixteen, he composed his first piece of music, Sounds of Africa, which was published in 1919 and released as the Charleston Rag. In October 1914, Chevy Chase became his first published piano composition. It was stage music without lyrics and indicated the direction in which he was moving—musical comedy.

His show business debut was made on July 4, 1901 in Fairfield, Pennsylvania. In 1915, he met vocalist Noble Sissle and the two performers joined forces to write music and lyrics for their own vaudeville acts.

Shuffle Along, with lyrics by Sissle, and music by Blake, opened on May 23, 1921. It was the first black show produced in more than a decade and set the pattern for future Broadway musicals. One of the surprise song hits of Shuffle Along was I'm Just Wild About Harry, which President Harry S. Truman adopted as his campaign song in 1948.

Following a highly successful road tour with Shuffle Along, Blake and Sissle collaborated on a new show originally called In Bamville, later changed to The Chocolate Dandies. Following a run of six months, this revue closed on May 15, 1925 and the vaudevillians Sissle and Blake, having revived their act in theatres showing full-length silent movies, were offered a European tour. They spent eight months playing in England, Scotland, and France. On Mr. Blake's return to the United States, he resumed performing in vaudeville and hotels and made several Warner Brothers musical shorts, among them Pie, Pie Blackbirds. He also conducted the Broadway musical Singin' the Blues in 1931. In 1946, at the beginning of a long period of semiretirement, he enrolled at New York University to study the difficult Schillinger system of composition, a four-year course that he completed in two-and-a-half years, graduating at the age of sixty-six.

When interest in ragtime revived in the 1960's, Eubie Blake was again in demand. Columbia Records brought out in 1969 a two-record album, The Eighty-Six Years of Eubie Blake, with Blake himself playing thirty rags, marches and blues, most of which he had composed. He also began teaching music at Yale and other universities, and appearing as a frequent guest on television. In December 1972, two months before reaching the age of ninety, Mr. Blake gave a one hour and forty-five minute concert in New York. The musical play Eubie is a tribute to the man and to his compositions.

Among his honors are membership in the Songwriters Hall of Fame, several honorary degrees, the Ellington Medal awarded by Yale, and the keys to the City of Baltimore.

SARAH LOIS VAUGHAN

The Candidate Will be Presented by Dr. Charles D. Watts
Member, Board of Trustees

Sarah Lois Vaughan was born on March 27, 1924 in Newark, New Jersey. She began singing in the church choir with her mother and took piano and organ lessons from the age of seven. Miss Vaughan's first introduction to show business was an amateur contest she entered and won at the Apollo Theater in Harlem at the age of sixteen. First prize was ten dollars and a week's engagement at the theater. From there her career continued to rise.

Miss Vaughan opened at the Apollo Theater on April 23, 1943, with the band of Earl "Fatha" Hines, on Billy Eckstine's recommendation. She spent a year touring with the Hines band. During that year she met and worked with Dizzy Gillespie and Charley Parker, both of whom had a strong influence on the development of her singing style.

When Billy Eckstine formed his own band in June 1944, Miss Vaughan was promptly hired. Her first recording I'll Wait and Pray, was made with the Eckstine band. The first of her records to receive national attention was Dedicated to You. Among her records from this early period to become popular classics are Don't Blame Me and I Cover the Waterfront. Her first million-seller was Broken-Hearted Melody, which made Billboard's Hot 100 chart on July 26, 1959, and remained there for nineteen weeks.

Miss Vaughan made her first European tour in 1953. When she returned home, she made guest appearances on the popular television shows of the 1950's. She also appeared in five short musical films that were made for television.

During the 1960's Miss Vaughan sang with Duke Ellington and his orchestra, toured internationally with Count Basie and his orchestra, recorded the sound track for the motion picture Cactus Flower, and had three songs on Billboard's top 100 chart.

In the course of the 1970's, Miss Vaughan appeared at the Avery Fisher Hall in Lincoln Center, and made guest appearances with the National Symphony and Los Angeles Philharmonic. She also toured South America; Japan; Africa; Australia; and England.

Numerous awards have been won by Miss Vaughan, among them Downbeat's award for best female singer for 18 consecutive years; Downbeat's international critics poll in 1973 and from 1975 through 1979; the Metronome magazine award from 1948 through 1953; the Jazz Journal International poll for best female singer in 1978; and winner of the Emmy in 1981 for the PBS television special Sarah Vaughan Sings George Gershwin.

THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES IN COURSE

The order of presentation of schools and colleges for the conferring of degrees is based on two factors — the year of establishment of the school or college and the distinction between graduate and undergraduate programs. The first eleven schools and colleges, beginning with the College of Liberal Arts and ending with the College of Allied Health Sciences, were established over the years from 1868 to 1974. These eleven schools and colleges provide basically undergraduate programs. The next five schools and colleges, beginning with the School of Divinity and ending with the School of Social Work, were established between the years of 1868 and 1945. These schools and colleges offer professional graduate level programs. The last school listed, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, was established in 1934 and offers graduate level programs exclusively.

Appearance of a name on this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The diploma of the University, signed and sealed by its proper officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

THE ALMA MATER

Reared against the eastern sky
Proudly there on hilltop high,
Far above the lake so blue
Stands old Howard firm and true
There she stands for truth and right,
Sending forth her rays of light,
Clad in robes of majesty;
O Howard, we sing of thee.

Be thou still our guide and stay,
Leading us from day to day;
Make us true and leal and strong,
Ever bold to battle wrong.
When from thee we've gone away,
May we strive for thee each day
As we sail life's rugged sea,
O Howard, we'll sing of thee.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. From these practical origins, they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn either open or closed.

The master's degree gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Gowns for the doctor's degree are also worn open. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front, and three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree.

Mortar boards or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

Faculty members and guests in today's procession are robed in gowns and hoods which represent the institutions from which they have received degrees.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of a prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains as follows: medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; pharmacy, olive green; public administration, peacock blue; science, golden yellow; social work, citron; theology, scarlet; architecture, brown; arts, letters, and humanities, white; business, drab; dentistry, lilac; education, light blue; engineering, orange; fine arts, brown; law, purple; philosophy, dark blue.

THE MACE

THE MACE, carried by the University Marshal, Dr. Joseph B. Morris, Chairman, Department of Chemistry, is the ceremonial symbol of the University. Its origin dates back to the Middle Ages. It is used on all occasions of academic ceremony at the University. At today's Commencement, the entry of the Mace heralds the arrival of the academic procession.

THE BATON

THE BATONS carried by the Marshals and Assistant Marshals of each school and college are being used to lead the academic procession of the respective schools and colleges into and out of the place of the ceremony. The batons are made of wood, painted blue, and tied with white ribbons denoting the colors of Howard University.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE (The Medallion)

The Presidential Chain of Office, worn by President Cheek, was presented to the University on the occasion of the Centennial Celebration in 1967 by Trustee Herman B. Wells and his mother, Mrs. Granville Wells. The chain symbolizes the current and past holders of the Office of President. The basic material of the chain is sterling silver, plated with hard gold. Both the University Seal and the Centennial Seal are appended to the chain.
