Black People have gone through

The most severe change of all

From the bane of society to the position of self

Self Determination

Self Help

Self Pride and Dignity

Black People have suffered greatly

At the hands of the oppressors

Stripping us of our "Homeland"

Our families

And our lives

But we have always had

our pride and dignity

As we went through the change

It was all we had from which to build

We have been like a cocoon

A long time considered "ugly" and "useless" to society

SUMMER PHASE 72'

H.U.S.A. D.C. PROJECT

In a serious attempt to unite the D.C. community with the Howard community, the Howard University Student Association launched its third successive year of the D.C. Project, with the Summer Phase 1972. The Organization endeavored to build and maintain the Black Community and to develop the D.C. community in order to restore Black People to their traditional greatness.

Embracing culture, education and community interest, Leroy Anderson, executive director, developed the three components, Supplementary education, Adult education, and Community interest, as prominent phases of the Project. The cultural aspect of the D.C. project emphasizes Pan African ethical values juxtaposed with Black cultural identity.

The D.C. project, originally conceived during the H.U.S.A. administration of 1970-71, not only provides jobs for many Howard students, but also gives them valuable experience working in the community with people, Black People, who need and welcome help from people dedicated to Black Unity. In doing this, the gap which once existed between Howard and the D.C. community continues to narrow.

With all directions channeled toward assisting and enhancing Black People's abilities and opportunities, the D.C. Project expects a successful and prosperous summer in 1974.

CLASS HISTORY

You've been teaching us these hundred years,
White man,
Separate and unequal,
(But that's your idea we know,
If equality: two of us
Make one of you!)

You've taught us
To add hate and lies,
(You see the answer black,
We see it white).

You taught us we are oversexed.
(But who has raped our girls?
And who runs after us, white man?
Is that why you're afraid?)

You've taught us, oh, a lot of things:
To add trouble—
Subtract truth—
Multiply lies—
Divide by hate.

When will you teach us
Justice,
Brotherhood,
And Right?

In four years time we have learned a lot—

that we have a culture of which we can be proud and many gifted black men who excel in this culture—

that there are those among us

Yette reveals his 'Choice'

"I wish I had written Love Story or at least The Godfather—something with a lot more sex and pizzazz," Samuel Yette, author of The Choice: The Issue of Black Survival in America, jested last Friday in the Browsing Room of Founders Library.

Yette was the guest of the Afro-American Studies Department, which invited him to discuss his book in four short conversations throughout the afternoon. Yette preferred not to give away the substance of the book; instead, he threw out just enough tidbits to make it sound interesting.

Fearing Photo

"There's not a line of fiction in this book, and not one line of prophecy," he stated, explaining that the book was simply an attempt to bring certain facts about this country's plans to deal with Black people to the surface. It includes documentation of the actual sites of concentration camps.

Joyce Ladner discusses her new book with listeners in the Browsing Room.

REGISTRATION

Problems, problems, registration is always a problem. Freshmen and transfer students along with a few "late" registrants, are all victims of the semester hassles of long lines, closed sections, red tape, running around, in short, chaos. The large majority of students were "lucky" enough to have preregistered which the Dean of Admissions, William Sherrill, feels is the easiest way to facilitate semester registration. Whether this is true or not, change of program is a hassle, and once students preregister, they only have two days to make any necessary changes during the change of program period. Registration, the yearly problem.

Poet's Night, one of the features of the 72-73 EXPO, was a soulful mixture of mellow jazz and beautiful recitations. The show was well attended, with no one complaining of not receiving their money's worth. One of the groups featured was Seiko.

EXPO '72 FASHION SHOW

THE superb, supercool, and superfly danced, strutted and profiled in this year's latest fashions. The fashion show extravaganza and Miss Expo Presentation was to say the least, smashing. With Howard University students providing the show, and different community boutiques providing the clothes, makeup, and jewelry, the capacity-filled auditorium was well entertained with both contemporary mod and traditional African styles.

The music, compliments of The Transit Band and Show, a local group composed of mostly Howard University's students, rounded out the Extravaganza and Miss Expo Presentation to the pleasure of all.

Motivating, methodical, mellow, Osibisa played to everyone's delight at Expo's main concert. Osibisa's driving music was just the thing to get the "head" straight.

ANGELA DAVIS AT CRAMTON

The National Coalition of Black Lawyers held its annual meeting on Howard's campus this year. The primary areas covered by this three year old organization were: political uses of law, abusiveness of state laws, and flaws in state officials. Some of the people who participated in this convention were Haywood Burns, John Mercer, Harold Washington, Herbert Reid, and Howard Moore (defense attorney for Angela Davis). The guest speaker at this convention was Angela Davis.

Angela's message dealt with the symptoms of approaching fascism in police court prisons, decisions made by the Supreme Court that reflect racist ideas, and the plight of black political prisoners. In relating her personal knowledge of political prisoners, she stated that those prisoners are "suffering and need our support and solidarity."

In concluding her speech, she reiterated her thanks and gratitude to those who played a part in securing her freedom and pledged to dedicate her life "to helping others like me."

THE REVOLUTION IN

This year's HILLTOP made a switch; in trying to please everyone, or as many as possible, the HILLTOP chose a policy of "No Ideology." It appears as though it worked, as the paper has proven to be both "Freak" and "Interesting." And although this year's HILLTOP is in no way as dynamic a communication organ as its predecessor, the HILLTOP under the "Leadership" of Larry Coleman, has increased in size, and added new columns to its weekly issue. "In essence," "The Johnson Report," "Business Tips," "Quid Pro Quo," "Mind Trucking," and "Probe," were to say the least, interesting. And although there was internal strife and financial difficulty, THE HILLTOP, nevertheless, came out week after week, which is a good indication of how little can be done to get by.

WHIO'S WHIO'S

Each year a group of students are selected, by a committee of faculty members and students, to represent Howard University in the yearly publication of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. The students are chosen on excellent academic standing, participation and leadership in extra-curricular activities, and contribution and service to the university and community. This year Howard has selected thirty-eight students of various schools and colleges with outstanding leadership and academic abilities and future potentials.

WHO'S WHO

RON HAYES, a Liberal Arts student majoring in Political Science from KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, has led a highly political life here at Howard. He is a member of the Political Science Society, served as treasurer of HUSA, and was a coordinator of the Alabama 86 Southern journey during the fall of 1970. Also on the Dean's List, Brother Hayes has demonstrated a truly impressive leadership ability.

A senior from the far west, OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA, LORETTA HOBBS, has accomplished much during her tenure at Howard. While finishing in three years, Loretta has been chairwoman of Project Hip, Director of the Community Intern Component of the DC Project, Quad RA, and participated in the Children's March for Survival.

With Communications as her major, BETTE BARANCO related successfully with the public by participating in the Pan-African and NBCS conferences, tutoring at Lewis Elementary School and McFarland Junior High, and functioning as a Campus Pal. She is from BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA, a member of the Soul Squad, and is affiliated with Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

WHO'S WHO

Majoring in education, Sister TERESA DEGRAFFENRIEDT has worked with the children in Project Hip and the DC Community Project. She is a member of Gamma Sigma Sigma Sorority and the University Chapel Choir.

ABOVE: Always trying to help others, LARRY BROWN, from HATTIESBURG, MISSISSIPPI, is considered very dependable. Coming from "down the way," it's possible to see Larry just about anywhere—at anytime. He went "down with the people" in the Alabama 86 and journeyed again the next year as part of the Mississippi 90. A Campus Pal and a member of the Political Science Society, Larry, a LIBERAL ARTS senior majoring in Afro-American Studies, plans to attend Columbia School of Law upon graduation.

ABOVE RIGHT: The Midwest has always produced the finest and Sister SYLVIA KEYS, from CHICAGO, ILLINOIS is representative of their best. As this year's LASC secretary, Sylvia also finds time to be a Campus Pal, Crampton usher, and a member of the Howard Soul Squad. A member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Sylvia was last year's Liberal Arts Queen and has been on the Lampados' and Trefoil pledge Courts.

RIGHT: With Communications being her main area of concentration, LINDA NEWTON has achieved greatly in this particular field. She has served on the Hilltop staff for three years and is this year's managing editor. Linda is a member of NBCS, Project Hip, Junior class secretary and a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

RIGHT: MARIA WILSON, a native of WASHINGTON, D.C. is characteristic of involvement in student activism. A Fine Arts student with her area of concentration being art, Maria has served as a senator to HUSA and president of the Fine Arts Student Council. Talented Maria was one of the coordinators of this year's Expo Fashion Show and has been one of the designers of the student directory for the past two years. Possessing the talent of singing, too, she is a member of the Chapel Choir.

LEFT: As an active participant and leader in campus activities, RAYMOND ARCHER was no stranger to the happenings at Howard. He served as freshman advisor, member of the Drew Hall Council and participated in Operation Clean Sweep. Raymond, a graduate student from CHARLOTTSVILLE, VIRGINIA, majored in Education.

LEFT: Another product of CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, this brother from the SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE has done a little bit of everything. STEVEN JONES is a member of the ASA, the Gospel Choir, and participated in the Kumasi Summer Project, a pilot program in African Architectural Studies.

BELOW: ROANOKE, VIRGINIA is where this active brother is from, and athletics is his game. Four years on the football team, two years on the weight-lifting team, BRESSON LONG is an all-around athlete as well as student. As a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, he has been a RA for the past two years.

BOTTOM LEFT: CARMENCITA PORCHER from CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, is a well rounded student who will go far. She has achieved scholastically as a member of Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society, and a member of the Political Science Society. Carmencita is also a RA and a part of the L.A. tutoring program.

FAR RIGHT: Studying for a career in Nursing, PAMELA ARMSTEAD carried a variety of interests in her curriculum. She was a junior varsity cheerleader, soccer queen, a member of the Lampados Club Court, and participated in Operation Clean Sweep. From TULSA, OKLAHOMA, this member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has achieved membership on the Dean's list since her enrollment as a Freshman.

BELOW: LYNELLE GOINS, a LIBERAL ARTS senior from CHESTER, PENNSYLVANIA, is another member of Project Hip. She also journeyed, along with 89 others, to Mississippi last year. Vice-president of the Chapel Ushers, Lynelle also served on the Bethune Hall Judiciary.

BOTTOM RIGHT: The "interest articulator" from COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, ARTHUR JONES made a name for himself as the co-chairman of UJAMAA. Arthur was successful in his bid for the undergraduate board of trustees, and is a member of the Political Science Society and the Judo Club.

TOP RIGHT: GLORIA BOSEMAN, a Health Profession scholar from ORANGE, NEW JERSEY, prepared herself for a Nursing career while at Howard. In addition, she was a member of Project Hip, Alabama 86, Soul Squad, and a member of HUSA. An active member of the Nursing Student Council, Gloria was elected president of the Council.

ABOVE: CASSANDRA WIMBS, a COMMUNICATIONS major from JAMAICA, NEW YORK, has been a tutor at the Katie Lewis Elementary school, a Representative to LASC for two years, is currently the treasurer of the Communications Council, 1972 Bison secretary, Meridian RA and participated in Operation Clean Sweep. Cassandra is also a member of Nu Lambda Bama Sorority, a member of NBCS, on the Dean's list, and has been in the honors program since she entered Howard in '69.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Serious-minded EVELYN ONWUACHI has done much in the community. This native Washingtonian has worked for Project Hip and the D.C. Project. Evelyn has functioned in recreational activities for retarded children and the Black Actors Workshop for community children. She is definitely an attribute to Howard University.

BELOW: Always a warm smile on her face, DEBBIE WHITE is another fine attribute of the Midwest. A LIBERAL ARTS senior majoring in Psychology, she is from CINCINNATI, OHIO. Debbie is a Campus Pal, a Bison staff editor, and a member of Psi Chi Honor Society.

ABOVE: LEOPOLD CLARK, from BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, is an architecture and planning major holding membership in the Architecture Student Assembly, HUSA senate and the Caribbean Student Association. He also led the ASA as president of that body.

This brother has done photography for both the Bison and the Hilltop. He is ROY MCKAY, a communications major from LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA. Roy was a part of the Alabama 86, and was a marshall for the Children's March for Survival. He is also a member of Campus Pals.

Brother JESSE BUGGS, JR., a senior in Engineering comes from MELBOURNE, FLORIDA. A member of Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity, he is currently the president of the Engineering School Student Council and the Cooperative Education Engineering Student Organization.

Southern sisters have a reputation for being devious but friendly; however, EVITA PASCHALL is an exception. A warm person who genuinely tries to please everyone, Evita is presently HUSA secretary and managing editor of this year's Bison yearbook. She was last year's Hilltop associate editor and is a member of the Political Science Society, the Amani Rifle Club, and a Political Science major from THOMPSON, GEORGIA. She is matriculating in the COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS.

D.C. is doing it again! RON HARRIS, a native WASHINGTONIAN, is the current chairman of the curriculum committee for the Political Science Department. Ron, a Liberal Arts senior, worked with EXPO and the D.C. Board of Elections.

TOP RIGHT: From KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI, SHARON ADAMS centers her interests around communications. This member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is comfortably active in volunteer work. She has worked with the Children's March, assisted the speech clinic in speech therapy, and frequently tutored teenagers. Sharon also devoted some time in working on Shirley Chisholm's campaign.

ABOVE: Any person who holds the office of HUSA president for one year goes through hell. CHARLES HALL, a LIBERAL ARTS senior from BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, has been through twice as a two-time president of HUSA. He has been president of the Political Science Society and chairman of the National Conference of Black Political Science Students. Many students know him as one who tries to help everyone.

BOTTOM RIGHT: As the editor-in-chief of the Hilltop, this brother has become well known. LARRY COLEMAN, from ROCK HILL, MISSOURI, is a communications major. He ventured with the Alabama 86, and was one of the founding members of Project Hip. If he isn't known for his "freaky" editorials, he is known for his "serious" approach to life and "Niggas".

ABOVE.

Coming all the way from Los Angeles, California, Raymond Johnson adapted quickly to the Howard environment. Although losing his first two student gov. elections, Raymond went on to become HUSA senator, then LASC treasurer. A member of the political science society, this senior is a history major in Liberal Arts.

BELOW:

This senior from the "Big Apple", has been very active during his four years at Howard. Michael Cutts, an Architecture and Planning major, finished this five year program in four years. While accomplishing that, he was a HUSA senator, a class representative, and a member of the American Institute of Architects.

HERMAN GOODALL, another "native WASHINGTONIAN", is a music major in the FINE ARTS SCHOOL. He is active in a number of choirs, and has worked with both Fine Arts and Liberal Arts Student Councils. This brother has also worked on the Bison year-book staff.

This sister has really been doing her thing. She has done every type of volunteer work imaginable from choir workshops to elementary school tutoring. She has entertained with various local singing groups, and also done her share of church work. LINDA EDGE, a Fine Arts major from WASHINGTON, D.C., is a member of Phi Kappa Lambda, a member of the Howard University Jazz Band, Chapel, Chamber and University Choirs.

LARRY MORSE, a senior LIBERAL ARTS student from JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA, is definitely an asset to both Howard University and the community. Larry is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society, and presently is Vice President of the Kappa Sigma Debate Society. Among many other activities, he holds memberships on the Liberal Arts Judiciary Board, Omicron Delta Epsilon Society, and the National Honor Society in Economics.

TOP RIGHT: Regis is one of the few brothers who has ventured to Russia, and returned to tell of it. A LIBERAL ARTS senior from BROOKLYN, NEW YORK, REGIS LAKE is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society, a member of N.B.C.S. and was managing editor of the Hilltop from 71-72.

ABOVE: When campus political activists are mentioned, ELIJAH CUMMINGS must be included. This brother has held a campus office of some nature every year since his freshman year. He has been on both the Carver Hall and Meridian Hill Judiciary Boards, served his sophomore class as President, and was Treasurer of L.A.S.C. He is presently the President of L.A.S.C., a fitting end to four years at Howard.

BOTTOM RIGHT: YVONNE BOSTON, a fifth year pharmacy student from PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, has served as vice-president of her class for two years. She is affiliated with the American Association of Pharmacists and participated with the Third World Health Profession Caucus.

TOP RIGHT:

Florida has produced it's share of fine students, among them Joseph A. Sanders, from the city of Tampa. Serving as this year's Editor-in-Chief of the BISON, Joe has none-the-less found time for other activities. He is a member of the Psi Chi Honorary society, the Political Science Society, and the Psychology Club. Joe has served as an LASC representative, a D.C. Project tutor, and on the Drew Hall Council. Joe, a senior in the School of Liberal Arts, and a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc., plans on pursuing a legal career.

One of the best photographers on Howard's campus, Richard Douglas has shot pictures for almost anybody, anywhere. He has worked with the BISON, and is this year's photo editor for the HILLTOP. ## FIFTH IN THE NATION

The Howard Bisons or more notably named "The Big Blue Machine," was ranked 5th in the nation in defense. The Bisons shutout four straight opponents before giving up 7 points to North Carolina A&T on homecoming day. The Bison defense which was led by the "Icesome Foursome," which consists of Greg Butler, Bruce Williams, Haywood Corley, and All-American Ron Mabra, gave up an average of 48.8 yards passing and intercepted 16 enemy passes. The front was spearheaded by All-MEAC Anthony Becks, Norvell 'Big Shorty' Fuller, and Festus Cameron. The Offense was led by All-MEAC fullback Frank Ridley, who rushed for 506 yards and 6 touchdowns, Ron Bell, who finished third in area scoring with 48 points; also James 'Jimbo' Stevens, who is the Center and Captain of the Offense.

BISON BOOTERS STREAK TO 29

SOUTH CHAMPIONS

Extending over a two year period the Booters have won 29 straight games before being tied by South Dakota. The Booters went on to win the West Virginia National Tournament by beating Ohio University at the hosted West Virginia U.; they were also named national champions for the second straight year. The Booters scored 57 goals while giving up only 10. They recorded 10 shutdowns on their way to the showdown meeting with St. Louis U. The Bison Booters were denied playing St. Louis on even terms because of an NCAA investigation that wiped out half the team. Gone were All-American Keith Aquiri and Captain Tony Martin. The courageous Booters fought St. Louis to a standstill, only to lose in overtime—2-1. WE SALUTE LINCOLN PHILIPS AND THE SOCCER TEAM

BISON GRAPPLERS WIN SECOND MEAC TITLE

The Bison wrestling team coached by John Organ has shown its dominance in black college wrestling by winning its eighth consecutive championship, six in the CIAA and two in the newly formed MEAC conference. Coach Organ's grapplers got off to a rough start but came on strong down the stretch with three straight victories. Highlighting the regular season was the match against North Carolina A&T, where the Aggies were ahead 20-19 with only the unlimited class to go, in the Bison corner stood ALL-MEAC football player Festus Cameron. Festus went on to win the match thereby giving the team a 21-20 victory over the Aggies.

The Bisons traveled to Orangeburg, South Carolina where the MEAC wrestling championships were being held. The team placed four men in the finals and came away with the team title. The Bisons also had four individual champions; Steve Davis in the 126-lb. class, Arthur Cox, 142-lb., Frank Ginton, 177-lb., and Festus Cameron, unlimited.

Congratulations to Coach John Organ and the wrestling team for their superb showing throughout the season.

Sharks Finish 9-3 in MEAC

COACH HARRY WILLIS

The Sharks led by freshman Captain Wendell Calhoun, John Glenn, Garry Ward, Charles Cochrane, Ricco Curtis, and Jeff Goldson, finished the season 9-3. The team also finished 3rd in the MEAC Championships, where Wendell Calhoun broke the pool and conference record in the 100 yard backstroke. Also, Gary Ward broke the pool and conference record in the three meter diving, which also qualifies him for the national championships. The 800 yard freestyle relay team of Glenn, Leonard, Davis, Robert Johnson, and Greg Mosso finished third.

The Sharks were defeated in their first three Meets, however, through those defeats came a motivating force of Coach Harry Willis. He effected a complete turn-about with hard work and team unity which brought the sharks four consecutive victories, including an avenging rout of Morgan State.

BISONS WIN FIRST MEAC CROWN

The Bisons during a twenty-three day period twice defeated the favored N.C. A&T Aggies, then pinned respectively 10-9 and 2-1 reverses on South Carolina and Delaware State to win the MEAC baseball championship.

Coached by ex-major leaguer Chuck Hinton, who taught the hard hitting Bisons how to upset the front running teams by use of a devastating attack, the Bisons defeated eight straight MEAC rivals.

Highlighting the season were the valuable contributions of Bruce Hinton, Robert Woodland, Glen Harris, Steve Powell, Gus Duennas, Eugene Newman, and Butch White. Also Skip Wright who not only won 3 of 4 pitching assignments, but also batted 444.

TRACKMEN SET SCHOOL RECORD

The Bison Cindermen started the season off with a successful trip to Chicago to participate in the University of Chicago Holiday Meet. Ervin Gibson placed second in the 60 yard dash with a time of 6.2, with Al Chavis taking fourth. Roy Thomas placed third in the high jump, and the mile relay team ran a respectable 3:24. The Bisons went on to the C.Y.O. Meet where they ran against the five other area schools and won with a timing of 3:22.

Coach William Johnson started shaping his Cindermen up for the Conference Rivals by beating South Carolina State 85-77. Ervin Gibson took first in the 100 yard dash, and the 200 yard dash. Mike Nixon ran first in the 880 and the mile. The Cindermen went on to win six dual Meets while losing two; they finished the season third. Along the way they set a new school record of 3:21 at the Penn Relays.

Coach Wilmer Johnson

BISONS ACCEPT BID TO NAIA

The mighty Bisons suffered a loss the first game of the season to Winston-Salem University 84-81, but the Bisons showed the fans that with newcomers Billy Mock and Vadney Cotton they would be the team to beat. The Bisons went on to win 13 straight games including their own Christmas Tournament, where Billy Mock and Bob Lewis were named to the All-Tournament Team; Lewis was also selected as most valuable player.

In the game that was supposed to be the game of the year, the Bisons visited Maryland-Eastern Shore where the Bisons suffered their 2nd loss. The Bisons then rallied to run over North Carolina Central and North Carolina A&T twice. The Bisons frustrated many opponents with the leech-type defense guards Warren Hollins and Arnie Young, and shot blocking Vadney Cotton. On offense the Bisons found what they needed in Billy Mock, who gave them the rebounds that started their ever present fastbreak.

The Bisons in their quest for the first basketball championship had to beat Morgan State and Maryland Eastern Shore, the Bisons lost to Morgan State 66-67. A sellout crowd of 3,500 came to watch the rematch between the Bisons and Hawks, that would decide the MEAC Championship, the Bisons came up short 95-80. But through their magnificent play the Bisons will go to the NAIA tournament, the first ever for a basketball team.

PROJECT "HIP"

Project "Hip", though it may not be well known on campus, is a part of the vocabulary of many Black children who attend either Mott or Lewis elementary schools. Headed by sister Loretta Hobbs, president, this volunteer tutorial service, which is in its fourth year, has sought to support the public schools in such major areas as math and reading. In doing this, the members of Project Hip work hard not only to provide a direction for young Black children, but also a discipline and the motor skills necessary in pursuit of that direction.

Project Hip also seeks to stimulate the mind to self-thought, through Arts, Crafts and Black studies.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

You will recall that in my address inaugurating Howard's 106th academic year that I discussed in some detail the need for the University to undertake a major effort to secure the necessary funds to allow the institution to develop into a "University of the first rank" as had been envisioned and promised more than 40 years ago.

In this connection, the Board of Trustees has authorized a 10-year capital development program. Oram Associates, perhaps the Nation's most successful organization in raising funds for Black institutions of higher education, has been retained as the University's fund raising counsel.

The launching of the capital fund campaign signals the beginning of a systematically organized development program that will cultivate the Nation's foundations, corporations and philanthropists, and our alumni and friends.

The Trustees and the Administration regard this period as one of the most critical in the University's history. We are expanding our curriculum offerings as we attempt to meet the increasing needs of our student constituency. As we experience the additional problems of moving into new areas, we try as best we know how to make certain that we preserve a viable academic program. There should be no question about our commitment to academic excellence.

The constantly rising costs of operating a university plague all of us daily. We are determined, however, that money will not impede the advance of our academic program. During the next several months, the final planning of our 10-year development effort will be formulated. We will be seeking the advice and support of the entire University community—faculty, students, alumni, friends and administrators—so that we can strengthen the presentation of our needs to the national community.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ADMINISTRATION

Owen Nichols, Vice President for administration and Secretary of the University, has cited areas for a progressive change at Howard. He would like to see some modern buildings replace some of Howard's older structures and an adequate Physical Plant for the University. He has also initiated plans for a Program Planning Budget System to better utilize worktime and talent, and provide for the maximum utilization of resources.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Through this office, the academic pace of the University is maintained by Dr. Billingsley and his staff, with emphasis on the best possible faculty and programs for the students. Dr. Billingsley, in his capacity, aims for academic excellence for the entire university community.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

Student Activities are an ever changing thing, and Dr. Carl E. Anderson keeps pace with the change. As Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Anderson's involvement in Howard goes over thirteen years of constantly striving for an effective Black University. The Office of Student Affairs is perhaps the most important of all, because its purpose is geared directly and indirectly toward the most important element on this campus—the students. Through Housing, activities, organizations, clubs, etc., the Office of Student Affairs exerts every effort to facilitate the matriculation of students through H.U.

DR. CASPER HARRIS

VICE PRESIDENT FOR FISCAL AFFAIRS

The Treasurer's functions are of singular importance to the University—handling "De Mony." Keeping financial affairs on an even keel is an endless task, and Dr. Casper Harris, Vice President for Fiscal and Business Affairs, is the man charged to deal with it. Student Accounts, the Cashier's Windows, remember those lines? They are part of Dr. Harris' responsibility, and it's up to his office to see to it that "De Mony" is handled in an efficient and effective manner.

ADMINISTRATORS

By school, there are three sets of changes. For example, in the College of Medicine, the curriculum has changed in content. In many courses, the material has been condensed or what seemed irrelevant or unnecessary has been eliminated. Enrollment in the College of Medicine has increased by 50%.

The School of Dentistry is on the threshold of a new curricula. The full-blown program is being shortened and is becoming more flexible. This curriculum offers the students the option to finish in three, four or five years.

The School of Pharmacy is in an intercrucial phase. There are two significant changes. One, the development of graduate pharmacy study and two, the compression of the five-year program into four years. The school is becoming interested in clinical pharmacy, which leads to health teams in hospitals.

A new School of Allied Health Science is being developed. Presently functioning as a department within the College of Medicine, the fledgling school offers a B.S. to medical technologists, physical therapists, occupational therapists and medical nutritionists. Currently, thirty students are registered.

Dr. Carlton P. Alexis

Dr. Estep points to his office as an important part of the change at Howard University. Having been in existence since 1970, his office is responsible for the soliciting of funds from alumni, foundations, government, friends in order to further develop the university along progressive lines. This development leads to physical change: in resources, labs, library facilities, classrooms, even the new hospital.

Dr. Estep feels there has been another change also. Along with the university facilities, there has been a radical change in the students. Today's student appears to be more concerned about quality and scholarship and a meaningful life. The emphasis of student leaders is on development and growth along scholarly lines and a better working relationship with the community.

Dr. Roger Estep
and University Relations

ADMINISTRATORS

WILLIAM SHERRILL—Director of Admissions and Registration

Fairly new to Howard University, Dean Sherrill has made a tremendous change in the registration process; thus, resulting in a more efficient operation. Striving towards a registration system completely handled by mail is the ultimate goal. The duties of this office encompass developing administrative policies and working closely with Administrative Deans in pursuance of these ends.

MRS. GOLDIE CLAIBORNE—Director, Office of Financial Aid and Student Employment

On an attempt to aid more students in alleviating their financial burden, the Financial Aid Office works hard to award the limited funds it has where they are most needed. This year, through a student referendum, 50,000 dollars was donated to the financial aid office in effort to help a few brothers and sisters at Howard.

OUTSTANDING FACULTY

The School of Nursing has been operating for only three years and since that time many adjustments have been made; such adjustments can be seen in the adjustment of the students to the new faculty. There is open communication and an effort to resolve problems if initiated.

At present, the student nurses work in the community and hospital patients.

In the near future, the School of Nursing would like to develop a program offering the students a minor as well as a major.

MISS BEATRICE ADDERLEY
Department of Medical-Surgical Nursing

DR. QUIDA WESTNEY
Department of Maternal and Child Nursing

Within a period of three years, the School of Nursing has developed from one class to the current four.

"Personally, I feel the student-instructor relationship is good. The instructors are of the needs of the students while staying under the standards of the school. The instructors have learned a lot from the students in terms of constructive criticism. And in terms of dialogues, suggestions are being used in curriculum adjustments which have been valuable," stated Dr. Westney.

She states that a significant growth has taken place in the senior class. She feels that the students are now more mature and knowledgeable, having grown more intellectually.

"The School of Nursing is going for accreditation from the National League for Nursing. The work so far involved is leading for this recognition," stated Dr. Westney.

Fulfilling the needs of an ever-increasing population, the University Health Service Center works overtime to keep up with the demand for professional medical help within the Howard community. With infirmaries located in dormitories around the campus, and its new facility located at the corner of 6th and College Place, anything from dermatologists to podiatrists are readily available to everyone.

360 Degrees of TOTAL BLACK SOUND

Phil Watson and his staff members feel that the purpose of WHUR is to amplify the "sounds and voices of the total black experience." The year old broadcasting station is already expanding its operation. Continuing to expand after only a year's existence, WHUR is adding the "stereo" effect to its 360 degree sound. In presenting good music, good rhetoric, and good black perspectives, WHUR assumes the obligation of being responsible for and responsive to the tastes and desires of the Black World. Phil Watson, while emphasizing the fact that communications is a business of controlling minds, reminds students who deal with communications, that they are assuming the great responsibility of the liberation of the Black people.

ALUMMI

The Office of Alumni Affairs serves an important function to any University, that being to inform alumnus of the progress of their institution, and to solicit their aid in the continuation of their institution. Mrs. Brenda Lawson Brown is the person charged with that task, as Howard's Director of Alumni Affairs.

In lieu to the general unconcern and lack of financial commitment that Howard Alumnus are famous for, Mrs. Brown and her staff work to get Howard graduates to, "get involved."

1973 CHARTER DAY CONVOCATION

DR. JAMES CHEEK

In today's world everything is relative. In today's world no country, big or small, can stand completely alone: the complexities of life in a modern state dictate a policy of interdependence and the self-interest of states can be served by international cooperation."

CHARTER DAY ACTIVITIES

Prime Minister Pindling

Dr. James E. Cheek

The morning convocation was followed by an evening banquet at the Mayflower Hotel. Dr. James Cheek presided and in doing so made an official statement of the financial crisis of the University. He also revealed some parts of a nation-wide fund-raising effort and asked for increased support from alumni. Representative Andrew Young of Georgia was the guest speaker at the banquet which was enjoyed by all present.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI

Dr. Melvin James Banks received his B.A. degree from Howard University in 1924, and his M.A. in 1925. He studied at the University of Colorado, Southern Methodist University, the University of North Carolina and at Syracuse, where he received his Doctorate in Social Science.

Dr. Banks first served as a teacher in the Dallas Public Schools. It was during this time that he was cited by the National Board of the Young Men's Christian Association for his contributions to the development of the Boy's Work Program and the Physical Facilities and Building Program in the city of Dallas and the state.

From Dallas, Dr. Banks went to Bishop College, where he has served as Dean of the College. Currently, he is chairman of the Social Science Division. Among other things, he received the college's first "Outstanding Teacher's" Award in 1965. Because of his extensive background in Afro-American Studies, he is continually sought as a speaker and consultant on ethnic studies.

A devoted teacher and humanitarian, Patricia Thelma Burnett received her B.A. degree from Howard University in 1943, and her M.A. from the University of Columbia. She has since done post-graduate work at the University of Michigan, Queens College, Hofstra and Adelphi Universities.

Her deep concern for the education of Black youth and for the welfare of her community is evidenced through her frequent involvement in special civic projects.

In September of 1971, she took leave of absence from her teaching position and, at great personal sacrifice, volunteered her services to the people of Fayette, Mississippi and Jefferson County. Miss Burnett spent four months in Jefferson County, teaching youth and adults, assisting with the political campaign, and working extensively with community organizations.

In a letter to the Howard University Alumni Club of New York City, Mayor Charles Evers wrote of Miss Burnett, "... (she) has created a niche for herself that no one will ever be able to fill."

William S. Harper, a real estate businessman, received his B.S. degree from Howard University in 1943. Since 1939, Mr. Harper has held membership in numerous professional, community, and civic organizations. He is past president of both the Washington Real Estate Brokers Association and the National Society of Real Estate Appraisers. In addition, he has served on the Boards of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, the Washington Board of Realtors, the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, the Metropolitan Police Department Boys Club, been active in the Urban League, Washington Community Chest and United Community Organization, the Community Crime Council, and many more.

Mr. Harper is currently the Chairman of the Educational Committee of Federal City College, and is a newly appointed member to the D.C. Committee of Judicial Disability and Tenure.

Mr. Harper was the first Black member of the American Institute of Real Estate Brokers.
