THE CONFERRING OF THE DEGREES, HONORIS CAUSA

For the Degree of Doctor of Humane Letters

THE HONORABLE WALTER H. ANNENBERG

The Candidate Will Be Presented by Dr. Thaddeus Garrett, Jr.

Member, Board of Trustees

Walter H. Annenberg has enjoyed an amazingly successful career as an editor and publisher, broadcaster, diplomat and philanthropist.

A native of Milwaukee, he graduated from the Peddie School in Hightstown, New Jersey, and he attended the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He entered the family business, becoming president of Triangle Publications, Inc., in 1940. While serving as editor and publisher of The Philadelphia Inquirer, in 1944 Annenberg established Seventeen magazine and in 1953 he started TV Guide magazine.

In the early 1940s, Triangle Publications bought a radio station in Philadelphia and built a VHF television station as well. In the years following, the radio-television division of Triangle grew to include six AM and six FM radio stations, as well as six television stations.

Annenberg was a pioneer in presenting educational programming on television. The Philadelphia station pioneered a number of broadcasting concepts, among which was Annenberg's decision to present educational programs via television. In 1951, he became an early awardee of the prestigious Alfred I. DuPont Award. In 1958, he was given the Marshall Field Award, and in 1983, he received the Ralph Lowell Medal for "outstanding contribution to public television."

He founded The Annenberg Schools of Communication at The University of Pennsylvania in 1958 and the University of Southern California in 1971. In 1983, The Annenberg Schools established The Washington Program in Communication Policy Studies.

In 1970, Triangle sold The Philadelphia Inquirer and the Philadelphia Daily News, and in 1971 the radio and television stations as well. All remaining publications were sold in 1988.

Annenberg was named Ambassador to the Court of St. James in 1968 and served in Great Britain until 1974.

As a philanthropist, he has given millions of dollars to educational institutions and educational programs, including Howard University, the United Negro College Fund and The Peddie School. In 1986, he gave $2 million to Howard University to establish the Walter H. Annenberg Distinguished Chair in Communications and to create an endowed scholarship fund in the School of Communications.

Among his many honors and awards, are included the Gold Medal of the Pennsylvania Society in 1983, Magazine Publisher of the Year by the Magazine Publishers Association in 1984, the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1986, and the Swan Award from the Art Museum of Nashville, Tennessee. Queen Elizabeth II named him Honorary Knight Commander, Order of the British Empire—honorary because he is a citizen of the United States.

He has received honorary degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, University of Notre Dame, The Hebrew University, Northwestern University and several others.

He and his wife, Leonore, live in suburban Philadelphia.

For the Degree of Doctor of Humanities

DR. JAMES E. CHEEK

The Candidate Will Be Presented by Dr. Earl G. Graves

Member, Board of Trustees

Dr. James E. Cheek served as president of Howard University from 1969 to 1989, overseeing a period of dramatic growth and development for the University.

During his tenure, the University grew from 11 to 18 schools and colleges, and the number of major institutes and research centers increased from one to nine.

The University's operating budget increased from $30 million to more than $300 million, and more than 33,000 degrees and diplomas were awarded.

In 1969, the university operated only on the main campus.

During Cheek's presidency, four other sites were added, including campuses for the law school and the divinity school and property in Beltsville, Maryland. New construction and other acquisition of facilities included: the Howard University Hospital, the Armour J. Blackburn University Center, the Undergraduate Library facility, the Howard Plaza housing complex, the School of Business, the Cancer Center, the Center for Sickle Cell Disease, WHMM-TV, WHUR-FM and the Howard University Hotel.

Prior to becoming president of Howard University, Cheek served as president of his alma mater, Shaw University, from 1963 to 1969. A native of Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, he earned the bachelor of arts degree from Shaw in 1955, the master of divinity degree from Colgate Rochester Divinity School in 1958 and the Ph.D. degree from Drew University in 1962.

In 1983, Cheek was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civilian award. He is also the recipient of 18 honorary degrees, including those from Shaw University, Tuskegee University, Fisk University, the University of North Carolina, Duke University, Adelphi University, Providence College and l'Universite d'Etat d'Haiti.

He is a trustee or director for several organizations, including GEICO Corp., Fisk University, Florida Memorial College, New York Institute of Technology and The Policy Council. He is also on the advisory boards of Close Up and Colgate Rochester Divinity School. He is a trustee of the American Academy of Religion, the American Association of University Professors, the National Association of Biblical Instructors, the National Society of Literature and the Arts, and the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Dr. Cheek and his wife, Celestine, have two children.

For the Degree of Doctor of Laws

GENERAL COLIN L. POWELL

The Candidate Will Be Presented by Dr. Wayman F. Smith III

Chair, Board of Trustees

General Colin L. Powell was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1958, and 35 years later he retired from his military career a four-star general, after having served as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and Commander in Chief of Forces Command in Atlanta, Georgia.

The much-decorated officer served two tours of duty in the Vietnam War, as well as in Korea and Germany. His military awards and decorations include the Defense Distinguished Service Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Distinguished Service Medal (Army), the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Soldier's Medal, the Bronze Star Medal, the Purple Heart, the Air Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal and the Army Commendation Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters.

He has also received the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the President's Citizens Medal, the Secretary of State Distinguished Service Medal, and the Secretary of Energy Distinguished Service Medal.

Born in New York City, Powell grew up in the South Bronx. He graduated from the City College of New York in 1958 and was commissioned an officer through the Reserve Officer Training Corps program.

Powell went to Vietnam in 1962 where he served as an adviser to a Vietnamese Infantry Battalion. In 1968, he returned to Vietnam, serving as an Infantry Battalion Executive Officer and Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, 23rd Infantry Division (Americal). In 1973, he assumed command of the 1st Battalion, 32nd Infantry in Korea. Upon completion of the National War College in 1976, he assumed command of the 2nd Brigade, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

In between his tours of service with progressively higher command assignments, he earned the master of business administration degree from George Washington University in 1971 and was selected to be a White House Fellow in 1972. He also served as Senior Military Assistant to the Deputy Secretary of Defense and as Executive Assistant to the Secretary of Energy.

In 1981, Powell became the Assistant Division Commander for Operations and Training, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized), at Fort Carson, Colorado. In 1983, he returned to Washington to serve as Senior Military Assistant to Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger, and in 1986, he assumed command of the V U.S. Corps in Frankfurt, Federal Republic of Germany.

In 1989 President George Bush appointed Powell the 12th chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and he was reappointed for a second term in 1991. As chairman, he served as the principal adviser to the President, the Secretary of Defense and the National Security Council.

General Powell and his wife, Alma, have three children.

THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES IN COURSE

The order of presentation of schools and colleges for the conferring of degrees is based on two factors—the year of establishment of the school or college and the distinction between graduate and undergraduate programs. The first ten schools and colleges, beginning with the College of Arts and Sciences and ending with the College of Allied Health Sciences, were established over the years from 1868 to 1974. These ten schools and colleges provide basically undergraduate programs. The next five schools and colleges, beginning with the School of Divinity and ending with the School of Social Work, were established between the years of 1868 and 1945. These schools and colleges offer professional graduate level programs. The last school listed, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, was established in 1934 and offers graduate level programs exclusively.

THE INDUCTION OF GRADUATES INTO THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC.

HELEN M. KINARD, PRESIDENT

Appearance of a name on this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not in any sense be regarded as conclusive. The diploma of the University, signed and sealed by its proper officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

THE ALMA MATER

Reared against the eastern sky
Proudly there on hilltop high,
Fair above the lake so blue
Stands old Howard firm and true.
There she stands for truth and right,
Sending forth her rays of light,
Clad in robes of majesty;
O Howard, we sing of thee.

Be thou still our guide and stay,
Leading us from day to day;
Make us true and leal and strong,
Ever bold to battle wrong.
When from thee we've gone away,
May we strive for thee each day
As we sail life's rugged sea,
O Howard, we'll sing of thee.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students used them to keep warm in medieval castles and halls of learning. From these practical origins, they have developed into the accepted garb which symbolizes scholarly achievement.

Baccalaureate gowns have a long pleated front with shirring across the shoulders and back. They are primarily distinguished by flowing sleeves, pointed at the fingertips. These gowns may be worn either open or closed.

The master's degree gown is worn open, and the sleeve is cut so that the forearm comes through a slit just above the elbow.

Gowns for the doctor's degree are also worn open. They carry broad, velvet panels down the front, and three velvet bars on the full, round sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the degree.

Mortar board or caps worn with baccalaureate and master's gowns generally have black tassels. The tassel of the doctoral cap is usually made of gold bullion.

The gold fourragé on the shoulders of some candidates—commonly referred to as an honor cord—denotes outstanding scholastic distinction.

Faculty members and guests in today's procession are robed in gowns and hoods which represent the institutions from which they have received degrees.

The hood gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. Its silk lining bears the colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is bordered with velvet of prescribed width and color to indicate the field of learning to which the degree pertains as follows: medicine, green; music, pink; nursing, apricot; pharmacy, olive green; public administration, peacock blue; science, golden yellow; social work, citron; theology, scarlet; architecture, blue violet; arts, letters, and humanities, white; business, drab; dentistry, lilac; education, light blue; engineering, orange; fine arts, brown; law, purple; philosophy, dark blue.

THE MACE

THE MACE, carried by the University Marshal, Dr. Gary L. Harris, Professor of Electrical Engineering, is the ceremonial symbol of the University. Its origin dates back to at least 1300 B.C. and was a symbol of kingly authority in ancient Egypt (KMT). One of the oldest visual images of the mace was carried by Tutankhamen (King Tut) during the 17th Dynasty. It is used on all occasions of academic ceremony at the University. At today's Commencement, the entry of the mace heralds the arrival of the academic procession.

THE BATON

THE BATONS carried by the Marshals and Assistant Marshals of each school and college are being used to lead the academic procession of the respective schools and colleges into and out of the place of the ceremony. The batons are made of wood, painted blue, and tied with white ribbons denoting the colors of Howard University.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

(The Medallion)

The Presidential Chain of Office, worn by President Jenifer, was presented to the University on the occasion of the Centennial Celebration in 1967 by Trustee Herman B. Wells and his mother, Mrs. Granville Wells. The chain symbolizes the current and past holders of the office of President. The basic material of the chain is sterling silver, plated with hard gold. Both the University Seal and the Centennial Seal are appended to the chain.
