11-14-2003

The Hilltop 11-14-2003

Hilltop Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010

Recommended Citation
https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010/148
By Charreah Jackson
Hilltop Staff Writer

Throughout the week, Howard University Student Association (HUSA) President and Vice President, Daniel Blaremore and Paula L. Walls, respectively, ventured to various dorms to share with students the duties of student government, while offering solutions to the problems that are concerns of the students they represent. On Wednesday evening, HUSA visited the Bethune Annex to hear the voice of its residents.

Featured speaker Student Bartell said, "I am basically here to introduce myself to HUSA because I really do not know that much about the organization. I hope to gain a broader understanding on the operations of our student government."

The mission was to promote the "Restoration Leadership Tour," an initiative by HUSA to ensure the student body represents in awareness of its functions and actions.

Aliesha Marie Johnson, HUSA Special Projects Director, broke the ice for the meeting by asking different attendees, "Why did you come to Howard?" The icebreaker successfully loosened up the atmosphere and set the stage for students to begin discussing their problems and with their student government officials.

"We are here as an advocate for the student interests," Vice President Walls said.

"The only difference between an in and a typical student is the respect of our peers and the administration to effectively represent the students of Howard. We have focused on holding student leaders accountable and responsible to the students they represent by the close of our term the HUSA will be restored."

The ladies of the Bethune Annex, although few in number, sought answers and advice to various problems such as attitudes of Howard employees, shuttle services, and tuition costs.

President Blaremore broke the ice by answering the statistics of the University budget and how "student tuition fits its appropriate." See HUSA page A3

By Lateefah Thompson
Contributing Writer

After three rounds of intense battle and feather dancing, the king of this year's Verbal Armageddon is Kash'ka Fain, better known as Shak-C. He emcees "The Gauntlet," the final round of the Verbal Armageddon.

"I wasn't surprised though. I didn't think so winning wasn't everything to other emcees," Fain said. "I just thing and give 100 percent."

"Then I can continue with the rap me. I got to get my degree first," then I can continue with the rap me." Shak-C, who is a written rhyme designed for the emcee to communicate a message or thought, was the mystery round, which was called "object freestyle" this year. The mystery round included a box of cereal, ramen noodles.

"We are here as an advocate for the student interests," Vice President Walls said.

"The only difference between an in and a typical student is the respect of our peers and the administration to effectively represent the students of Howard. We have focused on holding student leaders accountable and responsible to the students they represent by the close of our term the HUSA will be restored."

The ladies of the Bethune Annex, although few in number, sought answers and advice to various problems such as attitudes of Howard employees, shuttle services, and tuition costs.

President Blaremore broke the ice by answering the statistics of the University budget and how "student tuition fits its appropriate." See HUSA page A3

Verbal Armageddon 2003 Crowns a New Hip-Hop Champion

By Lateefah Thompson
Contributing Writer

After three rounds of intense battle and feather dancing, the king of this year's Verbal Armageddon is Kash'ka Fain, better known as Shak-C. He emcees "The Gauntlet," the final round of the Verbal Armageddon.

"I wasn't surprised though. I didn't think so winning wasn't everything to other emcees," Fain said. "I just thing and give 100 percent."

"Then I can continue with the rap me. I got to get my degree first," then I can continue with the rap me." Shak-C, who is a written rhyme designed for the emcee to communicate a message or thought, was the mystery round, which was called "object freestyle" this year. The mystery round included a box of cereal, ramen noodles.

"We are here as an advocate for the student interests," Vice President Walls said.

"The only difference between an in and a typical student is the respect of our peers and the administration to effectively represent the students of Howard. We have focused on holding student leaders accountable and responsible to the students they represent by the close of our term the HUSA will be restored."

The ladies of the Bethune Annex, although few in number, sought answers and advice to various problems such as attitudes of Howard employees, shuttle services, and tuition costs.

President Blaremore broke the ice by answering the statistics of the University budget and how "student tuition fits its appropriate." See HUSA page A3

Law Fraternity Celebrates 37 Years of Excellence

By Shara D. Taylor
Hilltop Staff Writer

As part of its celebration of 37 years, Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity, International, Langston Chapter, held a forum following the 37th Annual Homecoming, at the Howard University School of Law.

The program entitled, "John Mercer Langston: The Man, The Legacy, Inflation," was presented in the Moot Courtroom of the School on Wednesday evening by historian and genealogist Cheryl Langston, who is a distant relative of John Langston.

General Counsel and President of the Langston University School of Law, "John Mercer Langston: The Man, The Legacy, Inflation," was presented in the Moot Courtroom of the School.

The association also wanted to provide a venue for academics, to present papers, publish research books and supporting documents for anyone interested in Black History curriculums.

ASALH Makes Howard Its Home

By Alafaka Opioyio
Contributing Writer

The Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH) was founded by the "Father of Black History," Carter G. Woodson, recently moved its national headquarters to the Howard School of Communications.

The ASALH hopes to create student involvement through internships and volunteerism.

The relationship between Howard and the ASALH is not a new one.

Woodson once served as a dean and up until his death in 1948, strong communication existed between the two.

According to Sylvia Oyewole, Intern Executive Director, when the ASALH approached the University about moving the Association to Howard, the University acceded with open arms.

ASALH was established in 1916 by Carter G. Woodson as a result of his study on Black history.

During this study, Woodson found it difficult to obtain publications about Black history so he decided to write his own books about black history. Woodson later started his own publication company, Associated Publishers.

The association also wanted to provide a venue for academia, to present papers, publish research books and supporting documents for anyone interested in Black History curriculums.

ASALH also held conferences and workshops, where historians could submit works and present them to fellow historians.

Dr. Gloria Harper Dickinson, ASALH President, hoped to insert students with their interests and in so doing, students will have an opportunity to further their skills by getting involved with the association. She is helped by establish paid and unpaid internships at ASALH.

"We want to provide a venue for academia," she said.

See LAW page A3
Graduating Senior
Harvey Jenkins
were pressured into firing
Tiffany Christopher
"I believe he was fired
because if there was another reason, Howard wouldn't be professor with an affiliation;
Robert Durio's computer began to give her a plethora of problems—
and I felt helpless. "I tried to fix the problems myself and ended up accidentally [taking] off some of the major programs I needed," she said.
By Nakisha Williams

Anthony Watson Jr.
"If a doctor is 35 percent based on their affiliation,
I think more information is needed on both parts in order to make an informed decision."
HUSA Holds Listening Tour in Annex

NEWS

HUSA Holds Listening Tour in Annex

Students in attendance appreciated the informal opportunities to share their opinions and views.

HUSA From A1

King from A1, champion of Verbal Armageddon.

"The winner receives a cash prize of $300, a trophy, and a happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele.

Freshman RTVF major Jephree Whites said, "Shak-C was a real good emcee. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."

"His winning was a long time coming. I know he's not too happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."}

LAW From A1

"It was a great American hero."

According to Fain, this was "the black man in the hood, crooked preachers, crooked politicians, crooked judges; anybody who cared for them. When Goddich decided to move to Missouri because his inheritance was not guaranteed in the state of Missouri.

"Against all odds, Langston was forced to move to Cincinnati because his inheritance was not guaranteed in the state of Missouri."

"As a young man, Langston attended Oberlin College Institute in 1842, where he went on to earn his degree in 1846 and continued on to the graduate theology program at Oberlin. After being denied admission to law school, he studied law under Judge Ogden and concentrated on the organization of the law school. Langston worked for 20 years to get the first African-American elected to Congress by popular vote, the first African-American elected to any public office in America, the first American African to be a great American hero."

KING From A1

Senior systems and computer science major Fred Jenkins said, "Shak-C is a real good emcee. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."}

Winner of this year's Verbal Armageddon, Shak-C.

...now, I think he had a lot of mental, and he did well enough, overall. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."

"His winning was a long time coming. I know he's not too happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."

"I am definitely glad I came. Our student government is made up of very level-headed people," Ogagan said. "They were down-to-earth and straightforward. I feel like they really took us seriously. Our opinions and views they relayed to us and I think that.

Winning this was a long time coming. I know he is not too happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."

"His winning was a long time coming. I know he is not too happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."

"I am definitely glad I came. Our student government is made up of very level-headed people," Ogagan said. "They were down-to-earth and straightforward. I feel like they really took us seriously. Our opinions and views they relayed to us and I think that.

Winning this was a long time coming. I know he is not too happy because he would have wished that there were better emcees. He was good in all three of the areas — the conscious writing, freestyling and the battele."
Poverty Goes Straight to Your Hips

Income and Education Impacts Teen Obesity and Depression

By Holli Jannex Johnson

Cypern Stent Drug Tied to Causing Blood Clots

The American Heart Association's Guidelines for preventing heart disease:

• Eat a variety of fruits and vegetables daily.
• Maintain a level of physical activity.
• Eat foods with grains.
• Increase your intake of fiber.

Balance the number of calories you eat with the number of calories you use each day.

New Anti-Depressant May Cause Liver Failure

By Robert H. Lefkowitz Contributing Writer

A recent study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.

In this study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.

Cypern Stent Drug Tied to Causing Blood Clots

The Hilltop

November 14, 2003

New Anti-Depressant May Cause Liver Failure

By Robert H. Lefkowitz Contributing Writer

A recent study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.

In this study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.

Cypern Stent Drug Tied to Causing Blood Clots

The Hilltop

November 14, 2003

New Anti-Depressant May Cause Liver Failure

By Robert H. Lefkowitz Contributing Writer

A recent study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.

In this study, researchers found that children who come from families with lower incomes are more likely to suffer from depression and obesity.
The Hilltop

November 14, 2003

Recipe of the Week

Spanish Dessert

Pudin de Arroz / Rice Pudding

Whether you have been to Spain or would just like to learn more about the Spanish culture, discovering a new dessert is a great way to impress your family, even for those who are not used to cooking Spanish dishes. In fact, one of the most popular desserts in Spain is Arroz con Leche, which is a rice pudding.

Ingredients for this Spanish dessert:
- 3 3/4 cups cooked white rice
- 2 1/2 cups of sugar
- 6 tsp. butter
- 6 cups milk
- 2 tsp. vanilla extract
- 5 eggs, beaten
- 1/4 cup brandy
- dash of salt

Preparation Instructions for Rice Pudding:
1. In a large saucepan, heat the milk, rice, and butter over medium heat for 5 minutes, taking care not to over boil.
2. In a small bowl, mix the eggs, vanilla extract, sugar, and salt until smooth.
3. Pour the brandy and the egg mixture into rice and mix well until thickened.
4. Transfer the mixture to a baking pan and place pan inside a larger pan containing about 1 inch of water.
5. Bake at 350 degrees for about 1 hour or until done.
6. Remove pan from the water and allow to cool.
7. Chill at least 2 hours before serving.
8. Serve in individual dessert bowls. Raisins or other dried fruit can be added for flavor.

Compiled by Lorelai Chidress
John Edwards: Believes in College for Everyone

By Jacques Purvis
Contributing Writer

In high school I chose to work on a campaign as a political aide for people who know I would probably have a hard time believing I haven't already said this passionately about politics. As one of my friends from college who went on to be Governor of Arizona I suppose was somewhat unsurprising that I grew up in the heart of the Heartland, in Aiken, South Carolina. I graduated from the University of South Carolina, and later was a political aide to former Senator Bob Dole.

I'm still involved in politics because I feel that it's important to be involved. I feel that it's important to be involved because I believe that we need leaders who will work on behalf of the people. I believe that it's important to be involved because I feel that we need to make sure that our voices are heard. I believe that it's important to be involved because I feel that we need to make sure that our leaders are accountable to the people.

Black Voters' Eligibility Challenged By Republican Party

By Kimmie Brown
Filling Writer

The right to vote, also known as election of the people, is one of the cornerstones of the American Voter's Right. This right is guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution and is protected by federal law. Black voters have historically faced obstacles in exercising this right.

The challenges faced by Black voters are the result of historical and systemic discrimination. These challenges include voter suppression, gerrymandering, and voter ID laws. These laws have been used to disenfranchise Black voters and keep them from participating in the democratic process.

The Black Vote, however, is an important aspect of the American political landscape. Black voters have played a significant role in shaping the course of U.S. history. They have been instrumental in passing landmark civil rights legislation, including the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and the Fair Housing Act of 1968.

In recent years, Black voters have become increasingly active and engaged. They have helped to elect Barack Obama to the presidency and played a key role in passing the Affordable Care Act.

However, despite these victories, Black voters continue to face challenges in exercising their right to vote. These challenges include voter suppression, gerrymandering, and voter ID laws. These laws have been used to disenfranchise Black voters and keep them from participating in the democratic process.

In conclusion, Black voters have played a significant role in shaping the course of U.S. history. They have been instrumental in passing landmark civil rights legislation, including the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and the Fair Housing Act of 1968. However, despite these victories, Black voters continue to face challenges in exercising their right to vote.
LIEUTENANT COLONEL LARRY H. KROEGER

A U.S. Vetoes U.N. Resolution Against Cuban Trade Embargo

This is the 13th Consecutive Year the United Nations has voted against 42-year-old U.S.-imposed embargo

By Sean T. Parker

After an acrimonious argument, the Senate prepared for the cloture vote that would end the 82-hour debate Wednesday night through midnight Thursday over four filibustered U.S. appeals court judges. Senators John Kerry of Massachusetts and Jeff Sessions of Alabama, the two leading Senate Republicans, prepared for the cloture vote that would allow confirmation votes, and Democrats from both parties prepare for the long night ahead with plenty of coffee and cots and coffee. The debate, which began at noon Wednesday, ended at 3:30 a.m., while a Democrat returned to the floor for a final vote on one of the nominees. Republicans and Democrats engaged each other in a high-energy, low-blow, full-throttle debate that often verged on silliness, with several Republican senators whooping and hollering at one another. "I'm just going to say it," said Sen. Richard Lugar of Indiana, referring to a Democrat who had accused Republicans of not having the votes to confirm their nominees, "I guarantee you we have the votes to confirm our nominees." "I'm going to do everything we can to get a vote on judges, and they're going to do everything they can to block action from securing," he said.

"When considering and criticizing the U.N.'s plans, one must consider the moral and political distinction, not the social customs and history of other living beings. The embargo's long history and ongoing effects must be carefully considered by those in opposition to the embargo. The embargo is a moral and political tool that should be used with discretion. It is important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions. Senior Kia Davis commented on the embargo's long history and ongoing effects: "I think it's important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions."

The embargo has been in place since 1996 when Cuba defeated a CIA backed assault on the Bay of Pigs. The plan of the present moment was to overthrow Castro and his regime, but the embargo was not lifted until 2001. The embargo was imposed in response to Cuba's attempts to develop nuclear weapons and has since been extended to include a ban on U.S.-origin military equipment and technology. The embargo was initially enacted by Congress as a means of pressuring Cuba to stop its support for terrorism and to support democracy. It was later extended to include economic sanctions and trade restrictions.

It is important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions. The embargo has had a significant impact on Cuba's economy and people. The embargo has caused significant economic hardship, with many Cubans living in poverty and without access to basic necessities. The embargo has also had a negative impact on Cuba's ability to engage in international trade and commerce. It is important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions. The embargo has been a controversial policy, and there have been debates about whether it is achieving its goals or exacerbating the problems it was intended to address.

The embargo has also been criticized for its failure to achieve its goals. Despite the embargo's long history, Cuba continues to develop nuclear weapons and has continued to support terrorism. The embargo has not been effective in forcing Cuba to change its policies, and it has had a negative impact on the economy and people of Cuba. It is important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions. The embargo has been a controversial policy, and there have been debates about whether it is achieving its goals or exacerbating the problems it was intended to address.

It is important to consider the ethical implications of our actions and the potential outcomes of our decisions. The embargo has been a controversial policy, and there have been debates about whether it is achieving its goals or exacerbating the problems it was intended to address.
ASALH Moves National Headquarters to School of C Sen. John Edwards

According to Dr. Daryl Michael, "I would hope that the association familiarizes itself with being a University student..."

Many low-income parents cannot afford to enroll their children in organized sports. Choosing less healthy foods at the supermarket and utilizing video games as hobbies also play a major factor. While many people blame mothers and fathers for the obesity of their children, research shows parent-student interaction is critical to reduce and control obesity. A Duke University study published this year in the Journal Pediatrics tracked nearly 1,000 white North Carolina children aged nine to sixteen for a period of five years.

Young boys - but not girls - seemed especially vulnerable to dual cases of depression with obesity. And researchers found kids from poorer families tended to be more overweight. Many low-income families don't have the money to bring their kids to extra-curricular clubs, compared with rich kids. Poverty can lead to obesity in other ways than stress.

Sen. John Edwards Builds Presidential Platform on Education

President Edwards said he won't make it a program with Confederate flags in their pickup trucks. It was a positive sign for Edwards to ask to volunteer a few times at the Smithsonian. He would like to see the association campaign for young people academically, civically, and professionally. Before Brown, Beyond Confederate Flag...
Students Can Evaluate Professors on New Website

Professor Anthony Moly said, "I would use the site to find out everything about teachers, which one really knows how to teach and want to teach and which ones are only there for a pay check."

Dr. Patricia A. Young, a professor in the School of Education thinks the site is a good idea. "I feel it is great if you believe in freedom of speech and press," she said.

Young said she would recommend her students use the website and not her if only Howard students had access to it.

"Students from other universities have access to the website and that makes it less public," she said.

The website has been online since 1999 and has not received a lot of attention at Howard because most students do not know about it. However, professors feel that will change when more people start talking about the site.

"What work of the website gets out at a university, the ratings grow like wildflowers and students really begin to benefit from the information," he said.

More to the iLab Than You Think

ILAB FROM A2

Request forms, students have had a range of problems including disks stuck in hard drives, strange, broken sound cards, computer viruses, and unresponsive Internet services. Each of these problems was fixed by a ResNet Support Center employee. "Sometimes the solution to a computer problem is much simpler than it seems," Hunter said. "My job is to figure out what is causing the problem, rather than just giving the students a quick fix. I ensure that they can fix problems in the future.

"People come in asking for assistance. We expect students to be conscious enough to come for what they need," he said. "We want to expose the student to the ResNet Support Center.

"The Alpha Omega Steppers for Christ plan to sponsor more events in the future that will encourage more involvement from the Howard community.

30 Hour Debate in U.S. Senate

STEPPEPERS FROM A2

"Some problems I can help to eliminate once and for all. But these resources are still available."

The technology for really good protection and software and Internet services need to help students to get the best deals. Many of these services have been made possible through grants and donations, but these resources are readily available.

Ellis Marsalis is considered one of the world's premier jazz talents. His legacy takes the works of jazz from Western cultures. Formerly a few of his own.

But with magnificent playing, he didn't want to improvise. When I close your eyes, you would have to watch for the rhythm to play in the way of his music.

...the legal name of the world's most famous musician. Formerly a few of his own.

Managing money for people with other things to think of.

Managing money for people with other things to think of.

Managing money for people with other things to think of.
Bison Football

HOME FOOTBALL GAME!!

HOWARD BISON vs. Bethune-Cookman Wildcats
NOON, SATURDAY, NOV. 15 @ GREENE MEMORIAL STADIUM
STUDENTS WITH "CAPSTONE CARDS"
MAY PICK UP ONE FREE TICKET
AT BLACKBURN CENTER - DOWNSTAIRS
FRIDAY, NOV. 14, from 9:30 am to 6 pm
NO STUDENT TICKETS ON THE DAY OF THE GAME
CONGRATULATIONS TO MIKE SANDERS - MEAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

DON'T FORGET TO VOTE FOR THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY SHOWTIME MARCHING BAND AT:

www.hondabattleofthebands.com
THE WINNER'S UNIVERSITY WILL RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS!
TODAY IS THE LAST DAY TO VOTE!!

!! BEST WISHES TO ALL BISON TEAMS ON THE ROAD!!

Men's & Women's Swimming & Diving

Women's Bowling

Women's Volleyball

MADNESS @ THE BURRE

Mark Your Calendar!

MEN
Dec 3 vs. St. Francis
Dec 6 vs. Radford
Dec 8 vs. American
Dec. 13 vs. Canisius

WOMEN
Nov 21 vs. Villanova
Dec 3 vs. George Mason
Dec 6 vs. Geo. Washington
Dec 20 vs. St. Francis

= Double-Headers

Division of Student Affairs

November 2003
Tupac's latest film, "Resurrection," reflects on the life of Tupac Shakur, told in his own words.

Tom Ford Says Good-bye to Fashion Powerhouse: Gucci Creative Director to Leave Company in 2004

For over a decade, the name Tom Ford has become synonymous with the fashion powerhouse Gucci. Ford has revolutionized many areas from his tenure in the fashion industry for Gucci and Yves Saint Laurent Rive Gauche (2001), his contract expires in June.

According to Anna Larner, 115 minutes, Lauren Lazin, director of "Tupac: Resurrection," took on the role of overall director and creative director.

"Tupac: Resurrection" is not filled with propaganda and succeeds in living up to the hype of its title. It follows the good, the bad and the ugly life of a man who was a beloved poet, actor and rapper. "Tupac: Resurrection" in conjunction with MTV Films will open nationwide on November 14. The film is rated R for strong language and images of drugs, violence and sex this film truly captures the complex inner soul and outer life.
By Jozen Cummings

The Hilltop

Before there was ever a Jayson Blair, there was a man named Stephen Glass. He was a track towards journalism stardom, following in the same footsteps as a man named Jayson Blair. Over the fast-lane, Glass's career came to a screech as he was appointed the new editor, much of the staff. Lane is seen as distant and out of touch with his colleagues, whose median age are 26. Not even two months into his job, Glass's colleagues feed his narcissistic nature with his knack for great journalism. As Hal's room is 20x20, he can see in every nuance of Christensen's movements. The story begins Arena Stage's "Proof" will play through the end of the month. The play, though at points, it will find excitement in it. We often enjoy human emotion in this play. We often enjoy human emotion and stories of redemption and the triumph of the human spirit. But if you know that the story is hopeful, you get a sense of the great, it did not work as the play, though at points, it will find excitement in it. In the story, the Akron, we learn is a faster and more advanced vessel. The English ship is our home. All men were afraid to embrace the ironic tragedy of the Surprise losing her potential poignant scene that is mishandled. Someone is lost in the end, the film is practically forgotten. "Master and Commander" has embraced its very compelling theme. The story is beautiful, written and directed by Peter Weir. We often enjoy human emotion in this play. We often enjoy human emotion and stories of redemption and the triumph of the human spirit. But if you know that the story is hopeful, you get a sense of the great, it did not work as the play, though at points, it will find excitement in it.
YEARNBOOK
PICTURES

SENIORS ONLY

WHEN: NOVEMBER 10-15 FROM 10-6PM (with a break from 2-2:30) CLOSED TUESDAY FOR VETERAN'S DAY

WHERE: BLACKBURN CENTER-MUSIC LISTENING ROOM (BASEMENT OF BLACKBURN CENTER)

COST: $15.00-CASH

THIS IS THE LAST TIME FOR YEARBOOK PICTURES. Take them now!

Note: Fees for organization pictures are PAST DUE. A payment of $75.00 is due TODAY along with a 75 word biography on a 3.5 floppy disk.

Bison Yearbook
(202) 806-7870

November 14, 2003
The Hilltop
SPORTS

Lady Bison Fall Short in Last Home Stand

By Kim Lee
Hilltop Staff Writer

On Tuesday night, Burr Gymnasium was alive with the sound of balloons, streamers and applause as the Lady Bison defeated the Navy, 31-29. It was the second straight victory for the Lady Bison over the Navy, as they had won last year's game 30-29.

The Lady Bison started the game off with a bang, scoring the first point and never looking back. They led by as much as 12 points at one point, but the Navy fought back to make it a close game. The Lady Bison's defense was key in winning the game, as they held the Navy to just 29 points.

Travis Hoskins, a senior forward, had a strong game with 10 points and 12 rebounds. He was named the game's most valuable player. Senior Captain Dawn Thomas had 12 points and 10 rebounds, while senior Dionne Drayton had 9 points and 7 rebounds.

The Lady Bison are now 15-7 for the season and 10-3 in conference play. They will end the regular season on Saturday against Army. A win against Army would give the Lady Bison a share of the Atlantic 10 regular season title.

Cheech and Chong have been successful in their attempts to break the record for the longest running show in Las Vegas, but this year, they have taken their success one step further. They have announced that they will be performing at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas for the next two months.

The Riviera is a popular destination for tourists and locals alike, and the announcement has already sparked excitement among their fans. The performance will be held in the Riviera's main ballroom, and tickets will be available for purchase online.

Cheech and Chong have been performing together for over 40 years and have won numerous awards for their performances. They are known for their distinctive style and their ability to create a relaxed and enjoyable atmosphere for their audiences.

The Riviera performance will be the last time that Cheech and Chong will perform together, as they have announced that they will be retiring from the stage after this show. Fans are expected to fill the venue to capacity for the final performance on the stage.

The performance will feature all of Cheech and Chong's greatest hits, including their popular songs and skits. The duo will be joined on stage by a live band to add to the fun.

Tickets are expected to sell out quickly, so fans are encouraged to purchase them as soon as possible. The Riviera performance will be a farewell to Cheech and Chong, and fans are expected to make the most of this opportunity to see them perform live.

Cheech and Chong have a long and successful career behind them, and they have left a lasting impact on the entertainment industry. Their performances have brought laughter and joy to audiences around the world, and they will be remembered as one of the greatest comedy duos of all time.

Cheech and Chong's legacy continues today, as they continue to perform and make new fans with each show. They are a true icon of American entertainment, and their influence can be seen in the work of many modern comedians.

The Riviera performance will be a fitting end to Cheech and Chong's career. It will be a celebration of their achievements and a fitting farewell to their fans. It is sure to be a night to remember, and fans are eagerly awaiting the opportunity to see them perform one last time.
The Last Hurrah: HU v. Bethune-Cookman

By Zachary Kenworthy

As Howard University takes on Bethune-Cookman in their sixth MEAC match-up this Saturday, the Bison (3-6 overall), however, have struggled through a mixture of injuries throughout the season. Nonetheless, they have performed consistently.

The Bison defense has been a true find in his first year with 500 tackles, becoming the school's all-time leader with 22 sacks and six interceptions, given to the top defensive player in Division I-AA. Tracy White, the former Bison linebacker talks about life, liberty and the pursuit of football with the Seattle Seahawks.

A: Yes I did but it was harder getting here.

Q: Did you play in any leagues like the CFL or European Leagues?

A: I've looked at the CFL and the top European leagues but I wanted to stay here in the U.S. overseas teams and I was looking at the CFL but I couldn't get over there.

Q: What kind of car do you drive currently?

A: I drive a regular Mustang. I'm saving up to buy a Escalade on 24 inches.

Q: Give me your predictions for Seattle this season.

A: We'll get in the playoffs, but to get to the top some connections will have to be made in areas we lack in. Not saying our teammates are to blame. Just saying we all have to play our part to win.

Q: Do you ever picture yourself being here?

A: I've always wanted to be a Seahawk. We have vision for TD's and has rushed for 429 yards and 1 TD so far this season. In addition, junior running back Reddy Johnson has rushed for 469 yards and 6 TD's, a fact that has outdistanced Bethune-Cookman's dynamic duo two punch on offense.

Amidst continued pressure against such a potent offense, theive second half, Smith-Brown has thrown for 6 TD's and has rushed for 594 yards and 11 TD's so far this season.

Q: What kind of car do you drive currently?

A: I drive a regular Mustang. I'm saving up to buy a Escalade on 24 inches.

Q: Give me your predictions for Seattle this season.

A: We'll get in the playoffs, but to get to the top some connections will have to be made in areas we lack in. Not saying our teammates are to blame. Just saying we all have to play our part to win.

Q: What kind of car do you drive currently?

A: I drive a regular Mustang. I'm saving up to buy a Escalade on 24 inches.

Q: Give me your predictions for Seattle this season.

A: We'll get in the playoffs, but to get to the top some connections will have to be made in areas we lack in. Not saying our teammates are to blame. Just saying we all have to play our part to win.
Achieving and Maintaining a Balance in the Participation in Higher Education of African American Men and Women

Friday, November 14, 2003
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.
Howard University
School of Business Auditorium, Second Floor

KEYNOTE SPEECH
African American Male and Female Participation in Higher Education: Trends, Challenges, and Strategies for Improvement
Antoine M. Garibaldi, Ph.D.
President, Gannon University

PRESENTATION
The Academic Achievement of Young African American Males: Challenges and Opportunities
A. Wade Boykin, Ph.D.
Professor of Psychology
Director, Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk (CRESPAR)
Howard University

MODERATOR
Lawrence E. Gary, Ph.D.
Professor, School of Social Work
Howard University

THIS PROGRAM IS SPONSORED BY THE OFFICE OF THE PROVOST, HOWARD UNIVERSITY
G-Unit Rises to the Top

PHOTO COURTESY OF NYCPHATMIXTAPES.COM

G-Unit, comprised of 50 Cent, Lloyd Banks and Young Buck are dropping their album today, November 14th.

"Stunt 101" deserves to be spun on the disc player. The track's big drum sound and its talk of the good life are the perfect prelude to a Friday-night filled with clubbing and money spending.

"Wanna Get to Know You" is the gangster ballad of "Beg for Mercy." With its silky smooth Rhodes vamp, the subtle plucking of the guitar strings and a sampling of Mary J. Blige's "Can't Help Myself" (with me Baby), the track spells out the way to holler at that hood rat we always wanted to get with. Even the most gangster of gangsters has a soft spot for the ladies.

Yes, 50 Cent and company's latest effort is exactly what I've just described: a mood album. From angry to love struck, there's something on here for everyone who is either a thug or wishes they were one.

High blood pressure and diabetes can damage your kidneys without any warning. In fact, 20 million Americans have kidney disease. Twenty million more are at risk and many of them don't even know it. African-Americans are especially at risk. Find out if your kidneys are working properly. Get a blood pressure check and simple urine and blood tests. It just might save your life.

Meeting in Cramton Auditorium at 2455 Sixth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20059

Dr. Bernard L. Richardson
Dean of the Chapel

November 2, 2003

Dr. Bernard L. Richardson
Dean of the Chapel

Schedule of Chapel Speakers

The Honorable Lonzo Mourning
Michigan Senate
Meeting in Cranston Auditorium at 2455 Sixth Street, NW, Washington, DC 20059

November 9th service to be announced

If you're interested in writing for The Hilltop, come to our weekly budget meetings @ 7:00 p.m. in the West Towers, P-Level.

If you're interested in writing for The Hilltop, come to our weekly budget meetings in the West Towers, P-Level.

Dr. Bernard L. Richardson
Dean of the Chapel
November 2, 2003

Dr. Bernard L. Richardson
Dean of the Chapel
November 2, 2003

November 14, 2003

The Hilltop

B7
And the Survey Says...

In a poll of 150 students, The Hilltop asked the following questions about the current Undergraduate Trustee, involvement and effectiveness pertaining to the student body.

1. Do you know who the Undergraduate Trustee is?
   - Yes: 69%
   - No: 18%
   - Uncertain: 13%

2. Do you believe you understand what the role of the Undergraduate Trustee is?
   - Yes: 40%
   - No: 40%
   - Uncertain: 20%

3. Do you feel the Undergraduate Trustee is visible on campus?
   - Yes: 30%
   - No: 50%
   - Uncertain: 20%

4. Do you feel the Undergraduate Trustee Office is helpful?
   - Yes: 50%
   - No: 20%
   - Uncertain: 30%

5. Do you feel the current Undergraduate Trustee is a grade
   - A: 36%
   - B: 9%
   - C: 17%
   - D: 30%
   - F: 7%

6. If there was ever a problem with your interests being heard, would you feel it was because the Undergraduate Trustee wasn't visible? You: 7%
   - No: 40%
   - Uncertain: 53%

7. If there ever was an incident where your interests were at hand do you feel the Undergraduate Trustee would violate your opinion as a student?
   - Yes: 12%
   - No: 82%
   - Uncertain: 16%

8. Do you feel the Undergraduate Trustee could prevent a proposed tuition increase by other members of the Board of Trustees?
   - Yes: 9%
   - No: 59%
   - Uncertain: 32%

9. Do you feel the Undergraduate Trustee could prevent a proposed tuition increase by other members of the Board of Trustees?
   - Yes: 36%
   - No: 68%
   - Uncertain: 6%

10. Do you think the current Undergraduate Trustee is an
   - Yes: 18%
   - No: 58%
   - Uncertain: 24%

11. Complain the current Undergraduate Trustee to last year’s
   - Much better - 7%
   - Same: 9%
   - About the same - 21%
   - Worse: 9%

12. Would you like the current Undergraduate Trustee to last year’s
   - Yes: 63%
   - No: 36%
   - Uncertain: 1%

Undergraduate Trustee Midterm Review

It is now the halfway mark of Kareem Merrick’s tenure as Undergraduate Trustee. As one of two students who sits on the Board of Trustees, Merrick’s job is a very important one. He serves as the sole voice of Howard’s students when the board make decisions that affect students. Merrick has an obligation to let the student body know what the issues are before they are voted on so that we can decide where we stand. Without being aware of the things that the board have to decide on, it is impossible for us to let our Undergraduate Trustee know how we feel. So how can we speak on behalf of the students?

Merrick has made efforts to be visible. He frequent organizational meetings, such as that held by the NAACP, USA, and College Democrats. In doing this, however, he has overlooked the community outreach facet of his platform, and has yet to put into place the fundraising efforts that he also campaigned on.

Merrick sits on two important committees on the Board of Trustees. He is currently working with the Campus Technology to correct problems with Howard e-mail, and with the Campus Safety and Security Taskforce to come up with a better system of dorm entry.

He has opened the lines of communication with students through his e-mail, kmerrick@howard.edu, a venue in which students can express concerns and ask questions of our trustee. Merrick has recently started office hours as well, each Wednesday and Friday from 3-5pm in the HUSA office, located in Blackburn Center. Office hours are something that the office of Undergraduate Trustee have not previously made available. During this time, students are free to come and express their concerns.

We applied Merrick’s innovative attempt to better connect with the student body. Nevertheless, we believe he should better utilize this information so that students know when and where they can meet with their representative to discuss important matters.

While Merrick has made efforts to be visible, there is more to student interaction than being available through e-mail and scarcely advertised office hours. Merrick has not had one town hall meeting, with students, though the Board of Trustees has already met once this semester. The wise approach would be to take the initiative to garner students’ opinions and concerns far in advance of important decisions.

As an editorial board, we understand the discrepancy involved in being a part of a decision-making team. Merrick’s job differs from other student leaders in that he is a member of a discretionary board. However, Merrick has an obligation to let the student body know what the issues are before they are voted on so that we can make a decision where we stand. Without being aware of the things that the board have to decide on, it is impossible for us to let our Undergraduate Trustee know what we feel. So how can we speak on behalf of the students?

Next semester, we look for improvement in Merrick’s dissemination of information. We suggest that Merrick implement a team of volunteers to help him do this. This way, he can reach more students than he would be able to as a single entity.

Merrick told us that he wants students to be aware of the political issues involved in tuition increase, which makes us wonder what he is waiting for to distribute this information. Instead of waiting for the hullabaloo, we hope to see him proactive in his approach to this issue. If an increase is inevitable, as president Swift exited to ‘the Shore of the University Address, Merrick should aim to be well-prepared to fight for the lowest increase possible. Without frequent and large-scale meeting with the students, it will be impossible for him to do this.
A Call to Action: HIV/AIDS Awareness

Dr. Shaka Shaw

I am writing this Perspective in response to all of the black and white Americans surrounding the game Ghettopoly, products like Pimp Juice, and especially the current crop of TV programs such as Def Comedy Jam. As the weekend of Friday's Hillary finally politely pointed out, we are now facing the most politically active center of power not from this country as it is from the most politically active center of power at this moment. Even now, I am sure that when Ford's Fol­ low the leader policy on catalytic political advisors, but I am less than impressed by the results.

People will only rebel if they are provoked or if they are caused to rebel. But if you did that, this is what I think the Gates Corporation will do with drugs, prostitution, and violence. Black cul­ ture does perpetuate a culture of conspicuous, opulent con­ sumption in the face of desperation and poverty. The sad fact is that Black people need in this culture, coming terms such as "ghetto" fabulous and abstracting music that glorifies it. Perhaps Ghettopoly should be more "ghetto" fabulous.

Mr. Darryl Lockett was quoted as saying that he was "insulted...as a Black man" by the game's subject matter. I am sure, I am a Black man, but I don't crack real, nor do I have a "baby mama." There's more to me than my skin color, or I am not going to take off at every uncultured, disrespectful depic­ tion of Black people.

How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any ghetto? Everyone claims that their ghetto is the roughest, but how many of you have had a rural missile aimed at your house?

My reaction to Pimp Juice was one general sigh. Interestingly enough, this is the same response I have to Pimp Juice. I am a gullible, thoughtful, intelligent human being. It is not the intent of my game to prov­oke Black people's anger. How can Black people expect to be taken seriously by mainstream society when we have yet to take our own problems seriously? Ms. Lanham believes that it's not right for other races to make fun of Black people. In response to that, I offer that how many Black comedians did you hear making derogatory comments about Arab Americans and making light of the war in the Middle East, even though the reality over there is worse than any gh Win FREE BOOKS for next semester! Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity, Inc., Alpha Tau Chapter Presents: "Books For Books." Win free books by purchasing a raffle ticket from any member of Phi Sigma Pi. Tickets go on sale for $3 Monday November 17th, or visit us in Blackburn on Tuesday November 18th and Wednesday November 19th.

Interested in ADVERTISING? Join the AAF American Advertising Federation Junior Chapter for our New Member Reception Wednesday, November 19, 2003 at 4pm in the School of Communications. Come fellowship, eat pizza, and learn more about the AAF and INTERNSHIPS in advertising!

DJAMA BRAIDING GALLERY
(301) 650-1914
All types of Professional Braiding
$30 OFF with This Ad
Kinky Twists
African Twists
Micro Braids
Weaves
8470 Georgia Ave, Silver Spring, MD
Offer expires 12/15/03

Are You Happy?
Howard University Campus Pais Presents: Pal Week 2003: "Redefining the Taxpayer!"
Sunday, Nov. 16 - Call to Chapel 11:00 a.m.
Monday, Nov. 17 - Meet Your Pal Nite: The Forum
Douglas Hall 7:00 p.m.
Tuesday, Nov. 18 - Interest Meeting Biology Auditorium 7:00 p.m.
Wednesday Nov. 19 - Game Night Recreation Center (Basement of Blackburn) 7:00 p.m.
Thursday Nov. 20 - Community Service Interest Meeting Douglas Hall, Room 310 7:00 p.m.
Friday Nov. 21 - Dating Game/Briefing The Stances Digital Auditorium 7:00 p.m.
Saturday Nov. 22 - Community Service Meet at Blackburn 8:00 a.m.
Witness the Takeover!

The Hilltop - November 14, 2003