I regret very much that I will not be able to attend the annual Commerce Day this year. At the present time I am somewhere in New Guinea, getting along nicely, but miss being in the States very much.

I am glad to hear of the progress of the club, hoping that it will continue to grow. I will look forward to being with you next year if the war is over.

I have been in the Arms forces twelve(12) months, I spent eight of them in the States before leaving the Country. I am Personnel Sergeant Major in this outfit.

Personal regards to Professor Jessie Lewis and Professor Fitchugh.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Wesley
