ARTHUR B. SPINGARN PAPERS
Collection 94-1 to 94-34

Prepared & Revised by:
Greta S. Wilson
June 1980

Scope Note

The papers of Arthur Barnett Spingarn, lawyer, scholar, and former president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), span the period 1914 to his death in 1971 and contain 3,900 items, measuring 1½ linear feet. They consist of personal papers which include: biographical data, memorabilia from his trip to Haiti in 1923, condolences to his family at the time of his death, and certain legal files, including the last will and testaments of both Langston Hughes and W.E.B. Du Bois along with files of other notables such as Walter White and Emmett Scott.

Correspondence includes letters, cards, telegrams and invitations concerning Spingarn's involvements with the NAACP, his legal profession and other social activities. There are also separate correspondence between Spingarn and Langston Hughes and W.E.B. Du Bois under their respective series. The Langston Hughes series includes biographical data about this writer; letters from him and publicity about his works. Of particular importance are the materials, legal and otherwise, relating to the controversy between Hughes and writer Zora Hurston over the play Mule Bone. There are hand-written notes, first drafts and revisions of this controversial play. The series on W.E.B. Du Bois includes correspondence, and material arising from his connection with the W.E.B. Du Bois testimonial.

Other materials include: organizational materials primarily of the NAACP for the period 1957-1960, although some extend back to 1929; programs, photographs, numerous book reviews, publishers' releases, booklists, broadsides, sheet music, two scrapbooks of letters of congratulations on Spingarn's 70th birthday in 1948, and awards and certificates.
