JOEL E. SPINGARN PAPERS
Collection 95-1 to 95-17

Prepared & Revised by:
Wilda D. Logan
June 1980

Scope Note

The Joel E. Spingarn papers were given as a gift to the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center by Mrs. Joel E. Spingarn in 1950. Spanning four linear feet, the papers focus on the Amenia Conference; the military training camp for Black officers in Des Moines, Iowa; the development of the Niagara Movement; and the growth of the NAACP.

Joel E. Spingarn was born in 1875, in New York City. He was educated as a literary critic, became an expert in horticulture and dedicated his life to the plight of the Black race. He served at various times as Chairman of the Board, President and Treasurer of the NAACP.

Family correspondence reveal a personal friendship between Mrs. Spingarn and Pulitzer Prize author Julia Peterkin and parental concern of Mr. Spingarn for his daughter. General correspondence reveal Joel Spingarn's influence as leader of the NAACP. Most of the general correspondence deals with the NAACP, and the military training camp for Blacks officers which Spingarn personally initiated and fervently pursued the development of. Also included is correspondence on the Amenia Conferences, which Spingarn held at his home, as an opportunity for prominent leaders to come together without organizational affiliations, to discuss the concerns and problems of the Black race. The correspondence is either an acceptance to or a rejection for being able to participate in the Amenia Conferences. The correspondence reveals that Spingarn sent invitations to prominent leaders, both Black and white, across the nation. Other material in the collection on the Amenia Conferences includes purpose of the conference, invitations, list of people invited and other printed material.

Of special significance to the collection is a leather bound autograph album signed by the conferees, and addressed to Spingarn in appreciation. Since Spingarn was a national leader the correspondence in the collection includes well known leaders such as W.E.B. Du Bois, Emmett Scott, Mary Church Terrell, E. Franklin Frazier, Archibald Grimke, Langston Hughes, Samuel Gompers, James Weldon Johnson, Claude McKay, Benjamin Mayes, Kelly Miller, Robert Moton and many others.
