Dedicated

to

Colonel Charles Denton Young

Death is not the end, it is but the tipping of the urn of life, that the unseen beauties may be poured forth with greater magnificence on the far away shore. With the highest appreciation of the success and achievement of this great warrior, Colonel Charles Denton Young, whose perseverance taught the race and the world, the true meaning of courage, we dedicate

THE MINERVA
FOREWORD

HOWARD UNIVERSITY—Alma Mater

Words by J. H. Brooks, '16
Music by F. D. Malone, '16

1. Reared against the eastern sky, Proudly there on hill-top high, Far above the lake so us from day to day; Make us true and loyal and true.

2. Be thou still our guide and stay, Leading blue, Stands old Howard firm and true strong, Ever bold to battle wrong.

There she stands for truth and right, Sending forth her When from thee we've gone a way, May we strive for rays of light, Clad in robes of majesty thee each day. As we sail life's rugged sea.

O Howard we sing of thee
O Howard we'll sing of thee

Juniors

1923
Junior Class History

We of the Class of '23, returned to Howard this fall fully aware of our new responsibilities as upper classmen and quite prepared to assume them. No longer were we to defend our class on platform and field. Now rather, we were to be examples of dignity and good deportment to the lower classmen, and to lend something of a guiding hand to the Freshman Class.

In every extra-curricular activity in which we have engaged—and we have taken part in all—members of the Class of '23 have played the leading roles. In athletics, we point with pride to Captain-elect George A. Williams and Manager-elect J. E. Smith of the football team; Captain Clifford Clarkson of the basketball team; Captain Raymond Conlee of the track team. In debating we have Yancy Sims, and E. A. Simmons, winner of the individual prize. The only Negro to attend the National Student Y. M. C. A., W. W. Goens, is a member of our class. The staff of the University Journal is largely composed of our classmates the editor-in-chief, being H. L. Moon and the business manager, D. W. Nichols. Clifford Clarke is the business manager of the University Record. The success of the Howard Players has been to a great extent dependent upon the work of members of the Class of '23. Della Prioleau, Purvis Chesson, and J. W. Nicholson have starred in dramatics.

While the men of the class have represented the class in their own particular fields, the young women of '23 have been active in Y. W. C. A. and other constructive organizations. Ruth Butler and Eleanor Harper acted as president and vice-president of the Y. W. C. A. for the year 1921-1922. The president and vice-president elected for the year 1922-23 are Della Prioleau and Georgette White. Maggie Samuels is treasurer.

Sophomore Class History

After a successful and enterprising Freshman year, The Class of '24 launched forth upon its Sophomore career. The field was open for it, either to gain or to lose. In this vast field of the unknown lay its destiny, its fate—a success or a failure. But the class was too proud to lose the wonderful reputation it had hitherto gained. It was too proud to produce a failure and thus lose its place among the highest. It craved success, and it ruled. Through hearty co-operation the class linked itself into a single unit and met its encounters with only the loyalty and genuineness of true class spirit. Then, from this great field came forth victory, success, and honor. In football, in the debates, and in the basketball games, the Class of '24 stood as a great body defending and protecting its Old Gold and Black.

On the ninth of December the class met its first victory over the Freshmen in the debate between the boys. Lewis King, Oscar Beaubian, and Elbert Beard were the successful representatives of the Sophomore Class. Very exquisite and unusual speeches were made by these talented young men in their argument on the affirmative side of the question; “Resolved: That the Garvey movement is the best solution for the Negro Problem.” They were applauded and cheered both by their class-mates, and a large attending audience. Oscar Beaubian received the silver cup for being the best speaker. In appreciation for the splendid success which these young men had won, the class presented each with a bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums—the class flower. By its intellect, and determination, the Class of '24 won its first victory in its Sophomore career.

The Sophomore foot-ball team marched defiantly on the field in December to meet their opponents—the Freshmen. The game resulted in a 14-2 victory for the Freshmen, but the battle which our team fought brought forth both admiration and favorable comment from Coach Morrison, the whole university and even the Freshmen themselves. Much credit is due Coach Doneghy and the players for the well fought battle.

In February, the Forum presented the girls of the Freshman and Sophomore Classes in an inter-class debate. The debaters were: Joanna Houston, Mamie Burrell, and Lydia Crawford. The young ladies were wonderfully composed and handled the affirmative side of the question, “Resolved, That the Irish Free State is adequate to solve the Irish Problem,” very efficiently. Each young lady received a bouquet of the class flower as a gift of the class. Miss Houston received also the silver cup as a reward for her excellent speaking, and Miss Burrell received a handsome pillow top. Again victory was added to the Class of '24, and again its standard was raised.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshmen Class History

At the beginning of the school year, two hundred or more ambitious, endeavoring and aspiring youth from the country o’er entered Old Howard’s portals as Freshmen. They were a potent, promising, and seemingly capable body. What was the measure of their success?

The class organization and election of officers for the first quarter was superintended by the president of the Student Council. Those entrusted with the affairs of their class-mates were: Lee Terry, president; Pearl Johnson, vice-president; Hilda Davis, secretary; L. Lloyd Burrell, assistant secretary; Elizabeth Brown, treasurer. Well and honorably did they acquit themselves during their days of administration.

Then came opportunities which served to show the capability of the class. The Sophomore-Freshman boys debate, the Sophomore-Freshman football game, and the Freshman-Dunbar High School game proved the powers stored in the class. Let us note here an epoch in Howard History. On every occasion, spirit ran warm and high. Each brought commendation and victory. There were also many get-togethers and frolicsome times which were enjoyed by all.

The Christmas holidays now intervened. After a pleasant period of rest, the second quarter began. At the head of the class were: Joseph Alexander, president; Arthur Brady, vice-president; Hilda Davis, secretary; Ophelia Settles, assistant secretary; C. Glen Carrington, treasurer. Even more commendable than that of the first administration was the work of this energetic group. Everything done was laudable. The work of the girls in the Freshman-Sophomore girls debate against an experienced and ready-made team, made the class feel proud. Socially, too, the Freshmen climbed. The annual Valentine Party was the most enjoyable function of its kind. The crowning event of the quarter was the Freshmen Dansante, held in the gymnasium of Miner Normal School. This was an evening of pleasure and delight never to be forgotten.

March the eighteenth and twentieth were registration days for the spring quarter. The number of Freshmen had diminished but little. The work of the administration just ending its term of office was kept in full stride by Wendell P. Gladden, Jr., president; Elvin Davenport, vice-president; Hilda Davis, secretary; Ophelia Settles, assistant secretary; Raymond Dokes, treasurer.

Athletics were of uppermost importance to the class during this last round of the school year. A baseball team that would do honor to any group made a splendid record for the class. For the varsity next year, no additions will be needed. In the various track and field events, medal and ribbon holders of high school and “Prep” fame did their bit.
ACTIVITIES
The Football Season

Among the innovations inaugurated by the present Department of Physical Education in its constructive program was the early calling of the football squad for training on September 15, 1921. Thirty aspirants with prospects, answered the call.

The first game of the season was played with Virginia Theological Seminary and College, at Lynchburg, Virginia. It was not expected that the team would have reached a smooth working condition, yet the score was Howard, 19; V. T. S. & C., 0. This gave the team that confidence in themselves for which all had striven.

The second game, with Agricultural and Technical College of Greensboro, North Carolina, was the first “home” game to be played, and it enabled the Howardites to get a direct gauge on its season’s contenders. Here again the results of experienced and expert training was admirably shown by the score of Howard, 33; A. & T., 0.

The third game, with Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute, October 22, at Howard, resulted in the score of Howard, 26; V. N. & I. I., 0.

Going to Institute, West Virginia, on October 28, after three victories—yet knowing the mettle composing that West Virginia team—the “boys” arrived full of “pep” and confidence almost too great and had to play.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

1932

a game of “brains” as well as “brawn.” The officiating was very inefficient; yet the hospitality of the Institute students and all others was of the finest. The largest crowd of “fans” that had ever witnessed such a contest turned out; all with the hope that their “home” would gain the honors. This game was “fought” from whistle to whistle. In the game Howard lost little “plucky” Molson with an injured head; while “Bulldog” Williams was carried to the hospital with a broken leg. A drop kick saved the game for Howard. Score; Howard 3, Institute 0.

More and strenuous work was ahead for the squad. Coach Morrison and Assistant Coach Trigg racked their brains to devise means of overcoming at such a period the crippled condition of the team. Not a man returned from the Institute game without some kind of an injury. The holes of weakness were plugged. Howard was not looking for or desirous of an “alibi” to offer for defeat from any quarter.

The next game, that with Shaw University, at Howard, resulted in Hucles’ taking his team home a loser by the score of Howard 24, Shaw 0.

Our next game was with our ancient gridiron enemy, Hampton. Dear Old Hampton the finest and gamest of them all. This, the last game before the Thanksgiving Day finale, must be won in quick time, and in fine style. The score was Howard 33, Hampton 0.

Six games played, all won. One more to play. What was the result to be? Journeying to Philadelphia for the final game, found the team in splendid condition, with the desired confidence and admirably trained to the even point of striving for success. Each day of the stay in this city of Brotherly Love (or otherwise) was full of gloom by the overhanging clouds and rain, cold and penetrating.

Before more than ten thousand enthusiastic followers of both schools and in the midst of constant rain, the teams came together in their final game of the season. There is but one statement that will squarely meet the result of that game. Lincoln had a good team, well balanced, trained and guided. Howard likewise possessed a team worthy of her foe. Backward and forward went the ball. The rain and mud was so opposed to the holding of the ball by either team that many fumbles resulted; ground was lost and possible chances for scoring sacrificed. Lincoln triumphed by the score of Lincoln 13, Howard 7. It may be interesting in passing to note that for the first time in three years Howard lost a game of football. For the second time in three years, Howard was scored on.

Howard and her friends are more than proud of the record of her football squad and submit this record to the future standard bearers of Dear Old Howard.
This track and field season has witnessed the participation of the Varsity team in Track Meets as follows:

1. Boston Athletic Association Indoor Track Meet, Boston, Mass., February 4, 1922. Contee, Wyndon and Robinson of the Varsity team ran in the Hunter Mile, the 1000 yard run and the 660 yard run, respectively. Though neither runner was placed, it is gratifying to know that every ounce of energy was exerted toward winning and that superior training and facilities alone prevented our boys coming home with prizes.

2. The University of Pennsylvania Relay Race Carnival at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, Penn., on April 28 and 29th, 1922. Our Relay Team, composed of Craft, Wyndon, Contee and Robinson (the same team which won the college championship in 1921), was placed in Class “B” among such schools as Boston College, Redlands, Occidental, U. S. Naval Academy, Pittsburg and Columbia. A most creditable showing was made. Howard feels proud of her team and boosts the team to bring home the championship next year.
This year found Howard sending to the Relays a fast and competent Freshman Relay Team composed of Cook, Bright, Pendleton and Stout, which also made a splendid showing in their race. Much is looked for from these young men in the future.

T. J. Anderson, another entry of Howard, took part in the javelin, the discus and hammer throws. New company seems to have lessened this young man's ability in these events. Another year with consistent training and seasoning, Howard expects a record in each event to be made.

Hampton Institute of Hampton, Virginia, inaugurates its new athletic field day by a Track and Field Meet on Saturday, May 20, at which time Howard will send down its Varsity Squad of track men and feels that the most points will be gained by this team.

Howardites and our friends are eagerly looking forward to the Annual Track Meet on May 13th. This Meet is rapidly taking on the appearance and conditions of the other big track meets of the country. This year there will be 19 schools represented at the meet. Lincoln, Union, Wilberforce, Hampton, V. N. & I. I., Morgan College, V. T. S. & C., the High Schools of Washington, and Baltimore, Storer College and Morgan Academy, Manassas Industrial School, Temple University of Philadelphia, and many others.

Each year of this meet the Howard Varsity Team has won the coveted Point Trophy and the team looks forward to again retaining the honors at Howard.

Messrs. Edward O. Gourdin of Harvard, the World's Champion Broad Jumper, and Earl R. Johnson of the Carnegie Steel Athletic Association, the World Champion 3, 5 and 10 mile runner have consented to give an exhibition of their respective events during the Track Meet May 13th.

Here again the students desire to call attention to the lack of facilities in the way of training. We need a full course track of 440 yards, a straightaway of 220 yards, more suitable jumping pits and hurdles.

There has been a very large increase in the number of aspirants for places on the varsity track team this season. This sport is rapidly taking on the atmosphere of the larger and better equipped universities throughout the country. Another year or more should see our new stadium and athletic field to the north of Clark Hall. That day is most eagerly looked for.
Girls' Basketball

What is more health-giving, what more health-guarding than athletics: and athletics as athletic for women as for men.

In a well conducted gymnasium, personal instruction, either in class or in private drill anticipates individual need so that the pupil learns not only the variety of exercises calculated to improve and develop womankind in general but also the special order that will improve her in particular. But since we have, as yet, no gymnasium in which to exercise systematically, we have substituted the following program and have made it regular. We have engaged in basketball, baseball, track, golf, fencing, target practice, and tennis: and there are prospects of our engaging in football next year.

Does it take away from the culture and refinement of university life for its young women to take part in athletics? No. On the other hand it adds to the culture and refinement not only of the university but also of the individual. There is nothing so abominable as “foolish pride” and he or she who indulges therein loses the real, genuine, living value of life.

With the close of this year we pass a milestone on the road to an ultimate realization of the value of athletics. We are striving for the ideal of health which is that happy condition of unconsciousness of the body which is only possible when every part of it is perfectly developed and equal to the performance of its function. The embodiment of this ideal is unfortunately not a common one and we shall have to turn to that picture of noble young womanhood with which we please our imagination to find the combination of flesh and spirit which satisfies our sense of physical perfection.
No apology is offered for the statement that owing to the financial situation existing in nearly every school with whom Howard entertains athletic relations, the baseball season suffered. This is a sport in our opinion which should be as loyally supported and advanced as is the true college sport of football. The reservoir for the national pastime’s recruits should be the college rather than the “sandlot.”

Howard devoted as much energy and money as was permitted to the prosecution of baseball. Games were scheduled with as many schools as were authorized by their respective finance committees to engage in this sport.

The “material” for the Varsity team was not as productive of “stars” or near stars as past squads have been. It may be noted in passing that our Freshman team of this season impresses one as being much stronger in every department than the Varsity. Our prospects though for a good team are exceedingly bright as it is felt that as soon as the weather warms up our men will round into shape.

The Varsity team to date has played Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute, losing by a score of 13 to 6. Next Virginia Theological Seminary and college won from Howard by the score of 11 to 5. Then came Lincoln, at Lincoln, who won 12 to 6.

The team took a trip South, making a stop at Lynchburg where the team again lost to Virginia Theological Seminary and College. Jumping over to Petersburg, the team played Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute. From Petersburg the team traveled to Richmond where the Union University "crack" Southern team was engaged for the first time this season.

There remains but two more games for our team this season. A return game each for Lincoln, May 20th and Union on May 12th at Howard.

Here again Howard informs her critics that lack of material and "spirit" brings about the defeat of her teams. There is no more fitting occasion than the present for the attention of our friends to be called to the chasm existing between the student body and the alumni. There is no connecting link. This absence of liaison primarily creates the present situation. We of the student body can the more appreciate this "distance" than even the alumni themselves. We therefore ask a more co-operative interest, a get-together, active working interest and a productive interest between these two units of our university.

The material available for the development of a Varsity Team seemed most worth while in the early days of the training season. Such men as Kean, Payne, McVay, Taylor, Tollett, Johnson, Long, Sewell and Bingham of last year's varsity team returned and it was felt that around this group of men there could be built the fastest, cleanest and best baseball team in the history of the university. The great difficulty seemed to be to find the "combination" which could get the results desired. The pitchers could not go the limit; the infield developed lack of team work, the outfield slowed up. Whenever one or the other groups improved, marked weaknesses showed up in the other group. At no time has the coach gotten the entire team to work with that smoothness so much desired in a baseball team.

Examinations have played their part in causing absences in the regular lineup which has affected the morale. Hours for classes, too, have played their part in bringing about the present situation. These statements are made, yet they are not submitted with a view of offering an alibi for the loss of games. We must be willing to count these as "breaks" in the game and strive to improve our weaknesses in future games.

Bottom Row: Waring, Carr, Dokes, Bright, Freeman, Burrell, Cooke, Jackson, Peacon, Long, Brown, mascot.

Like mailed knights of old
For prizes, not of gold,
They battled,
At each appointed contest
With all their hidden zest
They battled,
And won 'gainst mighty foes
As every Howardite knows
They triumphed.
Bringing wreathed springtime flowers,
To cheer their livelong hours
They triumphed.

ELVIN DAVENPORT, CLASS '25
Reserve Officers Training Corps
The Reserve Officers Training Corps

Immediately after the close of the Students Army Training Corps, the War Department established at Howard University, Unit No. 3110 of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The first year, 1918, there was only one company and at the close of that year Howard sent seven young men to Camp Devens, Massachusetts, for summer training. These were: Messrs. J. Wycliffe Keller, Peach K. Jordan, Alston W. Burleigh, Alfred J. Lee, Robert Ephraim, Gilbert T. Jiters, and Phillip T. Johnson. These men returned to school the following year under command of Major M. T. Dean and formed the nucleus of a battalion of four companies, with Phillip T. Johnson as Major, Robert Ephraim, Adjutant, and Captains Keller, Jordan, Burleigh, and Lee. From these companies twenty men were sent to Camp Custer, Michigan, in the summer of 1920.

The following year the R. O. T. C. was carried on under the direction of Warrant Officer Edward York. The close of the year found forty-seven men in Plattsburg Barracks, N. Y.

The unit was withdrawn during the summer of 1921 and was not re-established until October of the same year. Captain Julian B. Decourt, formerly captain in the Philippine Scouts, was appointed Professor of Military Science and Tactics; Captain J. W. Blanchor, first assistant; Warrant Officer York, second assistant.

The cadets were aided in their instruction by a fifty-two piece band, under the direction of the noted Sergeant Rhodes. While Sergeant Smith gave indispensable aid in the technique of military instruction.

The advanced course of the university graduates fifteen men this year as second lieutenants in the Officers Reserve Corps.

Advice to Lovelorn

My dear Editor:
I am a young girl of thirty-two, with red hair, and am desperately in love with a man six years my junior. How can I make him happy?

Yours,
SARA LIZZIE JAKES.

My dear Miss Jakes:
Leave on the first train!

EDITOR.

Dear Editor:
Howard is so lovely in the spring! I am so filled with romance I feel sometimes that I will jump across the reservoir from sheer joy. Do you think I should take a spring tonic?

CASUALE

Dear Casuale:
Try jumping into the reservoir instead of across it.

EDITOR

Dear Editor:
They tell me I am beautiful. The next time someone pays me that compliment, please tell me how I should answer, as it is quite embarrassing sometimes.

BUTIE

Dear Butie:
Tell them that the Lord heareth a liar.

Class Will

We the Class of '22 of Howard University of Washington, D. C., being aware of the shortness of our life, and in failing health but of sound mind and memory, do make and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament in manner following to wit:

First, we give, devise, and bequeath to our Alma Mater the honor and glory of the many brilliant successes of the members of '22 in after life.

Secondly, we give, devise, and bequeath to the class of '23 the free, unrestricted use, and possession of the rights of seniority, together with all the privileges accruing thereunto.

Thirdly, we further bequeath to the said class of '23, the memory of our many victories and triumphs over them, with the sincere hope that life will hold a few such triumphs for them in the future.

Fourthly, we give, devise and bequeath to our children, the class of '24, continued success with their rich inheritance, in winning all the debates, and athletic contests while at Howard.

Fifthly, to the class of '25, those dear, green, and ignorant Freshmen, we leave three more glorious years at Howard; with the hope that they will pass successfully over Sophomore dumbness, Junior omniscience, and safely to Senior dignity.

Sixthly, to the President, Trustees, and Administrative officers we leave the task of continuing to make a greater Howard.

Seventhly, to our matrons we leave memories of our many pranks and jokes played at their expense.

Eighthly, Harold Bledsoe bequeaths his dearest earthly treasure, one Mamie Neale, to any young man who can be as easily converted into a saint as he was.

Ninthly, Othello Harris leaves to any poor girl of Miner Hall all of her silk dresses, fur coats, and flashy jewels, in order that she may lay them in her trunk and wear a middy blouse on Easter Sunday.

Tenthly, Dorotha Jones leaves a little brains to Alberta Epps.

Ottie Graham bequeaths her gracefulness to Theodora Fonteneau.

Sue Goins leaves to Grace Nash and Edith Taylor a book called, "How to get white."

Marcelle Brown and Emmason Fuller leave to Charity and Evelyn Mance, respectively, one pound of their surplus flesh.

Cute Carter leaves his conceit to Johnnie Smith and D. Ward Nichols.

All the girls of the class of '22 bequeath to M. B. Wright all green articles of wearing apparel.
Lastly, we nominate and appoint as executor of this our last will and testament, the faculty of Howard. We further direct that all debts left behind be paid by public collection from moneys now on deposit in the pockets of Students and Teachers.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the class of '22, at this our last will and testament have hereunto set our hand and seal this First day of June, 1922.

Signed, Sealed, and declared by the class of '22 as, and for their last will and testament in the presence of us, who, at their request, and in their presence and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names hereunto as witnesses.

CODICIL

WHEREAS, we the class of '22, did, on the first day of June, 1922, make our last will and testament, we do now by this writing, add this codicil to our said will, to be taken as a part thereof:

WHEREAS, by the dispensation of Providence and the faculty of Howard University some of the loyal members of '22 will be here next year, we bequeath said members to the class of '23.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we hereunto place our hand and seal, this sixth day of June, 1922.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared to us by the testator, the class of '22, as and for a codicil to be annexed to their last will and testament. We, at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto, at the date hereof.

Once 'un a time, pretty lil' senorita she come from nice island far, far 'way to go school in those grand, big Howards. Well, she come, Gee whiz, everybody he stare hard. Humph, senorita she no lika dat. Any­how, she say her wait till she get in classes and then get grand line-up on Main Building stuff. She go one room, hear professor what instruct call someone heap late fool. Go next room, professor what instruct say he give 'em studes fifty-sixty year understand somethin'. Studes dumb, no understand. Go 'nuther kinda different room, instructor what profess say, "What 'at mean, Brothaire? You go out dis class!" Senorita, she heap scared; she go too also. Navigate to one room more where professor ver' nice—ver' gentile—just say, "Oh, dear, dear! Well, yes and no!" Senorita make up mind to stay a while in this class so refined, when door burst open like young earthquake. Everybody jump high; girl she don't know whether must run or sit still; tremble like jello. Know what was all great noise like Buffalo Bill? Oh, dat was 'nuther professor what instruct. He talk like trumpet and say when he was at Harv—at some place; then he make big sarcastic say and retreat in same volcanic manner. Go 'nuther class, man what teach say, "Jus' read! Jus' read! Jus' read! Get full! Get full! Jus' read!" Poor senorita, she no can jus' read so soon yet once, so she run out. Go to room where professor what teach wear much, heap, plenty, beaucoup dress. Room got lot pictures like pretty, big museum got down street. Girl look please at beauties of pictures like home—look long time. Look back—where teacher? Oh! It's got to be test day. In­structor what profess sit on desk and say she slap big man pupil on jaw for not much. Senorita she say goo'bye quick—go home maybe yes. Tell 'em that in office. Umph, no, no! say man in that place. You no can leave till heap much pay money. What for? No for—just pay! else you go to grand, big council and maybe get dead. Don't know more. Senorita escape with help of angels. School ver' nice, but little islan' better. Girl gone!
Well

Right here in Chemistry—“Silver is useful as an allie for other metals.” (Late effects of the war, no doubt.)

In a certain English class—“From what was the word coward derived?”
Miss McN. (much interested in dairying)—“The word cow.”

A professor who talks a little rapidly (in oral expression)—“The king’s pasties—I mean his callaces—no, I mean”—but the class laughed too loud.

Why pay to see Pola “vamp”? Just watch Sarah Green.

Why does Helen Talbot run to meet the mail man since she went to Pittsburg?

Why does Thelma Stevenson kiss the face of her watch every time she gives it a little knock?

Sue (speaking to Noo Yawker)—“Grant’s tomb! Why Grant isn’t oh, er, ahem—yes, I imagine it is pretty.”

Distracted Miner Haller (in Corcoran Art Gallery)—“Oh, girls, has no one seen Elaine? I thought she would be somewhere near Arthur, but she is not!”

A Howard voice (in National Museum)—“Hurrah! I’ve found the Holy Grail!”

“Grandotter” would like to know how good homemade cake disappears when everybody declares she had only a little bit.

Margaret Smith wants to know how to kill a centipede without any personal danger.

A certain class in Psychology wants to know how to make their professor believe they’re not asleep when they are.

A certain group in Miner Hall wants to know how to make the preceptress believe they’re asleep when they are not.

Mabel Hawkins would like to know how one can easily remember to comb one’s hair before going out to class in a hurry.

The Knightress of the Popping Garter—Miss Helen Talbot.
Margaret Smith will dance the Spring Dance in our next play.

Miss Finkley, A.B., wants to know how to get rid of the juice from a pickle bottle without being embarrassed by spilling it.

A certain Senior doing some shopping for commencement—"How much is those collars?"
"Two for a quarter."
"How much for one?"
"Fifteen cents."
"Give me the other one."

At one time little Mabel Addison was considering going to Africa. In one of her practice classes one day a little boy asked: "Miss Addison, do missionaries go to heaven?"
"Why of course, Johnny," Miss Addison answered.
"Do cannibals?"
"No, I am afraid they do not."
"But, Miss Addison, if a cannibal eats a missionary—what then?"
We don't know just what Miss Addison replied, but at any rate she has changed her mind concerning the future.

Grant—"When you proposed, I suppose she said, 'This is so sudden!'" Carter—"No, she was honest; she said, 'The suspense was awful!'"

After one of their many "spats"—
Carter—"You needn't take the trouble to show me to the door, dear."
Jacqueline—"Oh! it's no trouble; it's a pleasure."

Ask a certain Miss Brown of the class of '22 when she is going to have a beautiful black garment, made of a particular web cloth. Whenever it is it will be a beautiful night—that's all.

Miss Harris (indignant, and calling after someone)—"When I call you I think you might retaliate!"

Marcel—"What part of the Bible is that which says, 'and the bridegroom went forth and he didn't have any light'?"

Prof.—"What is religious toleration?"
Miss Smith—"The attitude of a Senior toward an underclassman."

Officer York—"Be more careful with your rifle, Miss. You just missed me that shot!"
Miss Hughes—"Did I, sir? I'm awfully sorry. I'll try to do better next time."
A Pome

They went to Buckroe Beach;
They sat upon the sands;
The moon was shining brightly,
And Bill held her little—shawl.

As he held her little shawl,
How fast the time did fly!
And his face was full of longing
As he gazed into her—lunch-basket

As he gazed into her lunch-basket
And wished he had a taste,
He seemed serenely happy
With his arm about her—umbrella.

With his arm about her umbrella,
Upon the beach they sat;
Bill whispered softly—"Sadye!"
She was sitting on his—handkerchief.

She was sitting on his handkerchief,
This charming "Bed-Bug" miss,
Her eyes so full of mischief;
He slyly stole a—sandwich.

An "Owed"

Break, break, break,
On thy cold grey stones, O sea;
But though you broke for a thousand years.
You'd ne'er be as broke as me.
Mary Rhetta Willia Finkley

Surely you have heard our name,
In games, debates we've won our fame;
We're a class that loves the fight,
Looking always toward the right.
Was there e'r a class so true,
It's the class of twenty-two.
Was there e'r a class so true,
It's the class of twenty-two.

With our songs we try to tell,
With a host of roaring yells,
That our class is ever true,
To blue and gray, white and blue,
Staunch in purpose, loyal, too,
That's the class of twenty-two.
Staunch in purpose, loyal, too.
That's the class of twenty-two.

When from Alma Mater dear,
Sons and daughters famous here,
Forth into another day,
Even then you'll hear us say:
Dear old Howard, we'll be true,
We, the class of twenty-two.
Dear old Howard, we'll be true,
We, the class of twenty-two.
Impressions

Mabel Addison—
   Little Miss Muffet—modest little field violet.
Earl Alexander—
   Once you speak to Earl Alexander,
   And do ditto every day,
   'Twill not be so long thereafter
   Before you'll hear him gently say:
   "It's a funny life!"

Mildred Bell—
   Small but much in evidence—a sincere worker.
Norman P. Andrews—
   Better known as "Percy the ladies' man," has fully decided to enter the matrimonial race as well as the journalistic race. We wish him much success.
Cassie Bellinger—
   Teacher's pet—the "big fellow's girl"—just little girl.

Whittier Atkinson—
   Who hails from Georgia is as big a bookworm as Solomon was a la-
  Eadies' man.
Clarice Brooks—
   Hale-fellow-well-met—good sport—business girl on vacation.
Edward Ballard—
   The only and original lover from Kentucky, who at all times believes in digging his own potatoes.
Marcel Brown—
   Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow—Oh well!—the modern
   Miss—the woman who thinks.
William K. Bell—
   Better known as "University Bell," has at last anchored his boat in the harbor of Velda B's love.

Ruth Buckingham—
   Miss Timidity (maybe)—the Injun girl at the masquerade dance—
   Blue Monday—brother's girl.
Harold Bledsoe—
   "I would be deep, but the race Jerry is running me is too enduring.
   She wins, I say she wins. I am the defeated bullet dodger."
Jessie Bullock—
   Maiden demure—simplicity.
Edward Browne—
   Is certainly some lover during his last days around here. He has finally fallen into the Pitts of Emilie.
Harriet DesJournette—
The lone traveler—the girl with sense—aristocracy.

Andrews Burton—
"The Shark" has been piking around for some time. We wonder who will be the victim.

Willia Finkley—
Open heart—Cap and Bells—style—"Somebody's Stenog."

Leo S. Butler—
"The Midget" is still holding his own in the Medical School as a student. But is he a student of love? We wonder.

Sue Goin—
Miss Petite—daisy flowers and bluebells. Dorothy Dodd—the dainty southern Miss.

Harlan Carter—
"Scoop." Little but loud is right on the job. Without him the Seniors would be out of luck.

Ottie Graham—
The little Bohemian maid—"Wild and woolly."—Enchanting eyes, Oh! Boy!—suppressed flame.

Herbert Dudley—
Better known as "Scholarship Fund," is playing his last trump for the hand of Norean Slaughter. Will he win or lose? Fate and Evans will decide.

Claudia Grant—
The island girl in modern dress—"Burning Heart"—true blue—the slim princess.

Julian Erskine—
"The Modern Soloman," has decided to retire for better or worse.

Cynthia Hamilton—
Modesty—the old time girl—the worker.

Julian Evans—
Alias "Truck Horse," is still running, and if he continues until the end, he might beat old Dudley's time with his former girl.

Othello Harris—
Lively creature—the woman of her own mind—the last word—Big Sis, little brother's "cup".

Emmason Fuller—
The boy from New Haven who believes in eating. His favorite pastime is eating hot dogs.

Mabel Hawkins—
Prudence—Miss Matter-of-Fact—work, work and play sometimes—an old friend you knew.
Leonard Foote—
  Who is always seen with "Sembly," is a typical chemistry bug. Don't blame him, but Dr. St. E. B.

William Gough—
  "The Silent Wonder," believes in being seen and not heard.

Alma Holland—
  Minnehaha—pansies—smiles.

Beatrice Howell—
  Modern Priscilla—sweet serenity—the Sunday visitor.

Clarence Holmes—
  Seems to be a mystery to the class. Thus we can not expound upon his dignity.

Elsie Hughes—
  The sports girl—girl scout—nobility—pride but not prejudice—"Old top."

Linwood Henry—
  Has contributed greatly to the success of the engagement campaign which is being carried on. He is himself now wondering who will be the next one.

Dorotha Jones—
  The student—the good friend—plain girl.

King S. Jones—
  Is certainly a tool. He is handled by anyone that wears a dress. Do you call that Wisdom King Solomon?

Jewel Leath—
  Duty—unaffectedness.

Fred. D. Johnson—
  Wins the vote for the shortest person in the class. But still he is a chemist more so than any of us.

Evelyn Lightner—
  The "big sister"—gentle calm—the new young teacher—quiet ambition.

William L. Kean—
  "Peewee" is by far the greatest all-round athlete of the University and to prove that he is an all-round man he has displayed his latest achievement in winning little Velma's love.

Sydney Mayo—
  Spirit of fun—school days—spring maid—the debutante—lilacs in fragile vase.

Calvin LeCompte—
  "Cal" is some guy. His favorite pastime is following Poodle Dogs around the reservoir.
Clyde Mobley—
The kind neighbor—maid with the knowing smile—Guess!

Louis McMillian—
“Count” is certainly a regular fellow. All he believes in is shaking hands and in saying, “Well, Count.”

Gladys Moran—
Just plain girl—the co-ed girl of the magazine—black-eyed susans in a basket.

Luther McMay—
“Mr. Important” has decided to leave old H. U. behind this year. He hails from Fisk but will make his home on the West Coast of Florida.

Pearl Neal—
The pleasing hostess—encouragement—good will.

Wilbur Pannell—
“The Orator” was certainly cut out by patent to be a lawyer, but he seems to think otherwise, thus he is studying medicine.”

Sadye Spence—
La vogue—twentieth century—wild flowers—sunshine.

Aaron Payne—
“Hoggie.” A dramatic star, a full-back, a baseball player (Casey) is certainly going strong. In fact he has a secret Patton on Thelma. But we wonder if it will be accepted by the matrimonial authorities.

Norean Slaughter—
The daughter on the modern farm—refreshing frankness—herself.

Claude Riley—
“Boob” is just crazy about growing things. So-much-so he has invested his love in Elenora McGrew.

Margaret Smith—
The young lady at the desk—Young Miss Suffrage—determination—la cynique—Peck’s Bad Boy.

James Redd—
“Jimmie” has been captured by Dame “Nez” and has decided to eat “Gordon Cakes” the rest of his days.

Helen Talbot—
The big surprise—contentment—happiness—the friendly neighbor.

Julius Smith—
Certainly was there when names were being given out. He tried to get them all and to show his kindness he said he is perfectly willing to share his with a certain Miss O. Harris of our class, but none other.

Herbert Sembly—
“Frontal Protuberance,” the other half of Foote is certainly some dancer. He holds the championship for stepping the light fantastic toe with the fair damsels.

The Minerva

Here is The Minerva which the Editors on the opposite page built. It might have been more elegantly wrought, or totally without errata, though the editors on the opposite page deny it. For is there not a Higher Destiny which shapes our ends? Even The Minerva end? As it were: “Failures are but stepping stones to Success,” then you may count us one step nearer our goal.

The Howard University Journal

After a lapse of more than three years, the University Journal has been re-established as a result of the agitation for such an organ carried on through the Student Council. The students of the University have felt the need of a medium for the expression of their thoughts and the recording of their activities for some time.

It has been the aim of the Journal to supply this want. In the capacity of official organ of the student body the Journal has sought at all times to be the untrammeled spokesman of the students. Through the Journal, student opinion and ideas have been expressed. In the Journal their activities have been recorded. More than this the Journal has given ample opportunity and encouragement to all students with any literary talent to have their works published. Further, the University Journal has kept the students of Howard in close touch with the student movements in other universities. In short, the Journal has been, as it proposes, "A paper for the expression of thought by, and the dissemination of news among Students of Howard University."

Der Deutsche Verein

The paramount object of the "Deutsche Verein" is to aid the student in his efforts to master the difficulty of speaking German fluently. To the student who cherishes this aspiration, the "Verein" is an asset of almost inestimable value. The active member of the club, participating in informal discussion during the meetings, soon overcomes that timidity of speech so characteristic of the beginner in the language, and at the same time, augments his vocabulary through the frequent use of expressions which are commonly employed in daily conversation. The opportunity, likewise, is granted him to observe closely the discourse of his fellows, to imitate their accuracy, and to fortify himself against their errors. Fluency, in any language, can be obtained only through the persistent speaking of it, and by presenting to the student this opportunity the "Deutsche Verein" becomes a powerful factor in helping the student acquire a firm linguistic grip upon the language.

In October, the German Club underwent a thorough re-organization.

The regular meetings of the club were scheduled for the second and fourth Fridays of each month. The meetings have been especially interesting, enlivened by spirited discussions, selections from noted German authors, and by the occasional reading of the journal.

The social feature of the club was its annual "Prom" which was held in February; and which was styled by all who attended as one of the prettiest affairs ever held in Spaulding Hall.

The president and officers of the club are to be commended for their faithful services, as is also the Professor of German, Edward P. Davis, whose willingness to advise and to co-operate with the members, and whose constant attendance have been a source of inspiration to all. It is our fondest hope that the "Deutsche Verein" will continue its excellent work, and that it will become larger and better with each succeeding year.
South American Club

It was on October 15, 1921, when “night had sent her thickest gloom and made one blot of all the air,” that a small coterie of foreign students with earnest patriotism was gathered together in Room 53 of Clark Hall. They hailed from the same fatherland; and were probably drawn together by the same aesthetic affinity. On this night they discussed, with all the enthusiasm of College students, the possibility of embodying their principles and ideals in a corporate society which they hoped would last for all time. These premonitory symptoms of a zealous patriotism took definite shape when, on the evening of October 22, in Room 104 Main Building, the South American Club was created.

This institution at once took its place among similar societies at Howard University, and soon it gained recognition as a functioning entity from the proper authorities that be. Subsequent meetings placed it on firmer ground with an inspiring program.

The personnel of the official staff stands thus:

S. Coston Bruyning ................. President
Anthony L. Jordan ..................... Vice-president
Clinton V. Rodney ................. Secretary
S. O'Brein Payne ..................... Treasurer
Albert E. Eastman ................. Publicity Secretary

While the South American Club is in some particulars in agreement with other societies of its kind, it is not a facsimile of any. It has certain ideals embodied in its constitution which renders its unique. In keeping with its declared objects, the club decided to meet, and did on March 8, not in intermittent paroxysms, but at definitely stated intervals, to discuss extra-curriculum topics, and to disseminate to the students of Howard University, from time to time, first hand knowledge of the great land of the “Eldorado,” of “The Incas” and of “The men whose heads do not grow beneath their shoulders.”

However much there may be in this society, diversity of thought or opinion, or what not, the bond of unity among its members shall be indissoluble; and the slogan of the club shall always be “South America, with all thy faults, we love thee still—our country.”

The Louisiana State Club was organized October 28th, 1920. The Founder and first president was Mr. Leo S. Butler. Since that time the club has made rapid progress; both individually and collectively. The members are found in every activity of the university. Miss Burleigh is in the Conservatory of Music; Mr. Melton is a letter man of the football squad and a guard on the Sophomore Dents basketball team; Drs. Segue and Verdun are prominent in dentistry; Dr. Segue is well known in the society circles of Washington. "Creole Kid," Mr. Adams, is a varsity debater; Messrs. Cherrie and Terrance are in the Glee Club, University Chorus and in the Dramatic Club; Mr. Richardson now holds the office of University News Correspondent; Mr. Johnson is assistant laboratory instructor in the department of chemistry; Mr. L. C. Mitchell is secretary of the Chi Delta Mu medical fraternity. In addition to these, a few members are making good in the social and business circles of Washington; the president, Mr. Richardson is staff correspondent of the "Washington Tribune," the largest circulated Colored weekly in the District; Dr. A. J. Holliday has established a chemical laboratory in the city and his productions are being well distributed by the People's Drug Co. Among his more recent productions are "Ketonol" and "Skin Food." Dr. Holliday is recognized by the National Chemical Society of America. Mr. Nash is Superintendent at Asbury Church M. E. of the District.
The Northeastern Club comprising the states of New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania organized in 1920 and was set on a firm and perpetual basis. It is one of the most unique groups on the "Hill," in that it is composed of a heterogenous confluence with the various yearnings and aspirations of the several states. The organization has wielded a colossal influence in uniting these nascent qualities by inculcating a common unity and mutual well-being among its membership by promoting the intellectual, moral, and social welfare. In addition, state prejudices have been washed away, never to return. With this contribution alone and the perpetuation of the same "Old Howard" must inevitably be raised to higher planes and the mighty unification of the Ethiopian Race will no longer be a dream, but a reality if all flimsy barriers are blotted away.

Now, to deal specifically with the work of this club for the year 1921-1922. Considering the many obstacles, it has been very successful. The officers, as a whole, have worked unceasingly for the maintenance of their high ideals. The uniqueness of the club was well portrayed by their most enjoyable and successful festivity of December and unique programs through the year.

We might mention the able president of the club, Frederick Robb, who was assistant coach of the victorious Sophomore boys' and girls' debates; also a prominent varsity debater, cabinet member of the Y. M. C. A., active class worker and in his second year term as a member of the Student Council. We might also mention John Miles, the President of Kappa Sigma Debating Society and a member of the Student Council. Such persons as Messrs. A. Greene, Maize, and Miss Neale have won prominence in the literary field. Miss Lewis, Mr. Kennedy and others have upheld us in the musical realm. On the athletic field we will mix the cinder path, football, basketball, and baseball men together in the following list: Gaylord Howell, Fuller, Warrington, Burrel, Brice, Bright, Reed, Baylor, Clarkson, Bush and Webster.

Likewise not one of its incoming Freshman members was put on the deficiency list. Instead we have Miss Mary Kirk who received the scholarship from the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity in the Class of '25. Yes it is a unique group mentioning only a few members; but others unnamed rank high in every field of endeavor. All are working unceasingly to perpetuate Old Howard and the Northeastern Club.

It might be well to mention the officers who have guided so well; F. H. Robb, president; Miss Murray, vice-president; Miss Clarke, secretary; Miss Lewis, treasurer; Mr. Dickerson, chairman of social committee; Mr. Maize, journalist; Mr. Jones, chaplain; Mr. A. Greene, cheer leader.
The Young Women's Christian Association of Howard University is playing an important part in the student life, especially among the women. The delegates to the summer conference filled with intense desire to serve those around them more and better, came back to the university with the view of making the "Y" among the best Student Associations. The usual custom was carried out by welcoming the new girls with a lawn social. During the month of November, Miss Ethel Caution came from the National Headquarters to survey the branch and give information.

Under the direction of Miss Marie I. Hardwick and Miss E. I. Harper, on December 4, Recognition Services were held, officially receiving the new members. The following Sunday the Religious Education Committee, under the direction of Miss Georgette White, rendered a play which vividly portrayed the birth of Jesus Christ. At Thanksgiving, fifteen families were supplied with baskets.

Those of the cabinet include: Ruth E. Butler, president; Eleanor Harper, vice-president; Lilla Martin, recording secretary; Ethel Jones, corresponding secretary; Evelyn Lightner, treasurer.

The National Y. W. C. A. and National Student Assembly met in Hot Springs, Arkansas, April 20-27, at which Ruth Butler represented Howard. This conference differed from the summer conference in that instead of learning method, the machinery was worked out.

Officers were elected in March and the "Y" is moving on with the hope of doing more for the young women of the university at large.

“La Societe Francaise” was organized in 1918 by Professor Metz Lochard, Director of the Department of Romance Languages. The club gives an annual Soiree which is the classic event of the school season.

The Forum Debating Society was founded in 1920 for the purpose of developing the young women of the university in public speaking and oratory. Since its organization it has successfully conducted three inter-class debates between the Freshmen and the Sophomores. The Forum awards each year a silver loving cup for excellence in debating and oratory. This year the cup was won by Joanna Houston, and a second prize was awarded to Mary V. Burrell.

This year the Forum has begun negotiations with other universities for varsity debates and it is expected that next year the young women will begin to bring honor to Howard in outside debating.
The Women's Christian Temperance Union

Motto: "No good thing is failure; no evil thing, success."

Why belong to the Young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U.? This is the first question which logically arises since the passing of the Eighteenth Amendment in February 1918. The answer may be given conclusively by asking two other equally important and vital questions. Have we prohibition in reality? Are we temperate in other equally important and vital modes of living?

The purpose and aim of this organization may be clearly stated by citing the ten points which lead up to the national pledge. Why belong to the Y. P. B. of the W. C. T. U.?

1. "In order to identify myself with an organization of young people whose object is to perpetuate the work of the W. C. T. U."
2. "To pledge myself to a life of total abstinence from alcohol and tobacco."
3. "To create public sentiment in favor of prohibition and the enforcement of the prohibiting law."
4. "To unite the young people of the home, the school, and the church for community betterment."
5. "To assist in an aggressive campaign of definite instruction for the purpose of awakening a sense of personal responsibility for the welfare of the nation."
6. "To labor for the best interest and protection of every boy and girl."
7. "To aid in bringing prohibition to the world in 1925."
8. "To help maintain supremacy of law and make total abstinence the universal habit of the land."
9. "To grow in Christian experience and service and thus become a better citizen of the world."
10. "To lend assistance to every worthy agency seeking to defend the young against the evils of tobacco, profanity, and impurity."

Pledge: "I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from the use of alcoholic liquors, including wine, beer, and cider, and from tobacco or narcotics in any form."

The Kentucky Club, organized in 1916, began its career under the leadership of Wm. Stuart Nelson. Gradually it has forged its way until it has become the foremost organization of its kind in the university. It has made an enviable record for itself in athletics and other university activities. The undisputed superiority among state clubs that it enjoys is vested in the records of its members in debating, drama, football, basketball, tennis, the track, and music.

The passing of Edgar Houser is greatly mourned by us. His untimely death has robbed Kentucky of a beloved son whose future was extremely bright. He is gone but not forgotten.

The club motto, “United we stand; Divided we fall” surely savors of the spirit of a greater Howard.
The Chamber of Commerce

In response to a widespread demand for scientific preparation and training for business careers, the School of Commerce and Finance of Howard University was established. While this course is necessarily liberal, the aim is to specialize in the principles of commerce and finance. The courses of instruction are designed both to give information and to cultivate mental qualities that are essential to leadership in business. A general course in business is made possible for the Negro youth. As result, many are taking advantage of this opportunity, more and more each quarter, making it possible for the graduation in this department to be larger each year.

In the Autumn Quarter of the present scholastic year, as a result of the suggestions of several students in the School of Commerce and Finance, that department was called together for the purpose of organizing that body of students into what thereafter was called a Chamber of Commerce. The purpose of this chamber is to promote co-operation among the students of commerce and finance, to spread knowledge of the importance and necessity of the department among the student body at large and the public, for the future welfare of the Negro, and to promote sound economic thought and intelligence along commercial and financial lines, keeping the student informed, as well, as to present conditions.
The president of the university announced at the beginning of the year that he had received a letter from a prominent firm stating that this firm could use every graduate turned out by the Department of Commerce and Finance for the next ten years. Thus, we can readily see what opportunity the graduate has for his future work. Not only will he be prepared to do business for others but to do business for himself. Howard University is the only Negro institution offering a degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce.

The Chamber of Commerce is proving to be a great asset to the university and each quarter its popularity increases, and its significance becomes known. At the beginning of the spring quarter new officers were elected for the succeeding year as follows: Mr. Chesson, president; Miss Fonteneau, vice-president; Mr. H. C. Phillips, secretary; Mr. Joseph Nicholson, treasurer. The officers were installed by Professor Thornton. The future of the Chamber of Commerce looks bright and the chamber is expected to invite various speakers to lecture from time to time.

It is hoped that this department will continue to grow and expand to be the largest department on the Hill. Its importance is, evidently understood to be, the greatest at present. We cordially invite new students who have not chosen their professions to enter the school of Commerce and Finance. Herein lies your opportunity.

The Stylus

The Stylus was organized a few years ago by a small group of students in Howard University who were interested in the encouragement and development of original literary expression among the youth of the race. The first fruit of their effort was the publication in 1916 of “The Stylus Magazine” which contained the best work of the members, as well as special contributions from honorary members, such as William Stanley Braithwaite, James Weldon Johnson, and Benjamin G. Brawley.

To Professor Montgomery Gregory and Professor Alain LeRoy Locke, The Stylus is indebted for its inception and much of its subsequent success. The organization has been held together through the war years by the undying interest of these two faculty representatives. With their continued interest The Stylus hopes to bring about better results, and in the very near future it is expected the third edition of “The Stylus Magazine” will make its appearance.
The Caribbean Club

The Caribbean Club was organized in the fall of 1913 by a small group of enthusiastic foreign students who, realizing the mutual benefit to be derived from such an organization, decided to look after the interest of foreign students at Howard University.

The first meetings were held at the home of B. G. Pollard, who was then a student, and the first president of the club. In 1914, President Davis obtained permission to hold the club meetings in Carnegie Library Hall. The other presidents who continued this work were: Rev. J. Bailey; T. Tucker; Z. A. Looby '22; Clifford L. Clarke '23.

The club aims to help foreign students adjust themselves to the life of the university. It also aims, through its fortnightly meetings, to help these students socially, morally, and intellectually. At present, the proposition of giving the club greater publicity in the West Indies is being considered, and through this it is hoped prospective students to Howard University will be more thoroughly informed.

The club cannot overestimate the services and helpful suggestions of Rev. Dr. D. E. Wiseman, one of the first Island graduates of Howard University. It was through his influence that the club obtained publicity in the university catalogue.

During the past school year the work of the Howard Players has been one of the most vital parts of the university life. The entire program includes a reproduction of "Simon the Cyrenian," by Ridgley Torrence; "As Strong As The Hills," by Matalee Lake; the presentation of Michio Ito, premier dancer of Japan; two one-act plays; and the Danse Calinda, by Ridgley Torrence.

"Simon the Cyrenian," was repeated in the university chapel in honor of the delegates to the Conference on the Limitations of Armaments. At the performance many representatives of foreign countries were present to see the work that the Howard Players were doing. The principal members of the cast of this play were: Helen Webb, Horace Scott, Ottie Graham, Henry P. Owens, Purvis J. Chesson, George Davis, G. Fraizer Miller, William Monroe, and Ernest Hemby.

The next piece of work undertaken by the group of amateurs was, "As Strong As The Hills," written by Matalee Lake. This play was produced three times, once in the chapel, and twice at the Dunbar High School, for the benefit of the Public School Play Grounds. The students who took the leading parts in this play were: John Broadnax, Carolyn Welch, Jennings Newsome, Aaron Payne, Horace Scott, Harold Bledsoe, Joseph Nicholson, John Erskine, Martha Jones, Della Prioleau, Marcelle Brown, Theresa Cohran, and Gladys Turner.

Following this production the Department of Dramatic Arts presented Michio Ito, a Japanese dancer of great talent and grace. He was assisted by Arnita Enters and Yuio Ito.

La Danse Calinda, the final production of the year was given as a part of the Commencement Week program, in the natural theater of the campus. This was indeed a fitting end for a year of such successful work. People from all parts of the country, alumni, friends, and visitors for commencement witnessed this final triumph of the Howard Players for 1922.

When we consider that the Howard Players were just organized in 1920, we marvel at the great amount of work which they have accomplished in two years. It has been by the earnest efforts of some sincere workers that we have been able to establish the Department of Dramatic Arts at Howard. It is the intention of this department to create at Howard a dramatic center for Negro drama; to encourage the composition of original plays in our race and to foster their production. This is just a beginning, but a remarkable one, and it promises great things for the future of the Negro drama.
Kappa Sigma Debating Society

The reorganization of Kappa Sigma Debating Society during the present year has contributed largely to its success in raising the standard of argumentation in the university. A carefully written constitution has been adopted and it adequately covers every phase of the society's activities and membership. A person desiring to become a member of the society is required to submit a brief, the merit of which the membership committee passes upon and he is accepted or rejected accordingly.

The officers for the year are:
John M. Miles .................... President
James A. Curry ................... Vice-president
Ernest Miller ...................... Secretary
William R. Adams ............. Corresponding Secretary
Clifford L. Rucker ............... Treasurer
Frank F. Monroe ............... Sergeant-at-Arms

The intercollegiate committee is: James G. Wood, Chairman; A. Crofton Gilbert, Edward W. Anderson.

Arrangement of the intercollegiate debates was carried out by this committee. The thorough methods followed by it are praiseworthy.

Three debates were held. Our dual debate with Atlanta University was won by Howard. Our team was composed of: Yancy L. Sims, Milo C. Murray; alternates: Clifford L. Clark, William R. Adams.

The other teams were—opposing Lincoln: Louis King, Harold Bledsoe, Frederick H. Robb; opposing Union: Earl Alexander, Edward A. Simmons, Z. Alexander Looby; alternates: Frank Williams, Arnold W. Stowe.

Howard was victorious in the last two debates, making a 100 per cent victory year for Kappa Sigma. This is not only encouraging for the present but predicts much for the future.
The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity was organized in 1906 in Cornell University. It was the first intercollegiate fraternity to be organized by and for Negro college men. From one chapter with about ten members, the fraternity has grown into a nationally chartered organization with forty chapters and a membership of more than two thousand. The fifteenth Annual Convention will be held at the seat of Epsilon-Lambda Chapter, St. Louis, Missouri, during the Christmas holidays.

For three years, the fraternity has successfully conducted through its chapters a national educational movement—"Go-to-High School—Go-to-College" Movement.

Beta Chapter was established in December, 1907, as the first Greek letter fraternity to be set apart at Howard. The initiative and example of this chapter has largely paved the way for six other fraternities at the university. The chapter has a comfortable home adjoining the campus, with a well-equipped dining department. There are spacious grounds and a tennis court.
Omega Psi Phi

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, a national incorporated Greek letter organization among Negro College men, was founded at Howard University, Washington, D. C., November 17, 1911, by Messrs. Frank Coleman, Edgar A. Love and Oscar J. Cooper, in association with Professor Ernest E. Just, its first honorary member.

The ideals of the organization are best expressed in its four fundamental or cardinal virtues, which are: Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance and Uplift.

Some of its notable members are: Dr. Carter G. Woodson, the late Colonel Charles Young, Professor Wm. Pickens, Professor G. David Houston, Dr. C. V. Roman, Hon. J. C. Napier, Professor J. W. Work, Hon. Ashby Hawkins, Dr. W. F. Penn, Bishop Hurst, Attorney J. T. Hewin, Dr. J. W. E. Bowen, Dr. Ernest E. Just and Professor Garnet C. Wilkinson.

Alpha Chapter, the mother chapter of the organization is located at Howard University where she strives to maintain the prestige and precedents of the organization and to uphold its fundamental principles. The chapter house at 1737 Eleventh Street is all that could be desired as a fraternity house and offers an environment which promotes mental, moral and physical leadership among its members.

Phi Beta Sigma

In order to encourage culture for service and service for humanity, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity was founded at Howard University, January 9, 1914. Since its incipiency this young organization has steadily grown to the number of twenty chapters whose influence for fostering and moulding a wholesome relationship between the students and faculty and the several Fraternal groups has been keenly felt and appreciated.

Especially has this been true during the present school year for it was Phi Beta Sigma that inaugurated Faculty Night, a getting together of the faculty and students. It was this same fraternity that arranged and successfully conducted the first meeting of the Inter-Fraternity Conference.

The fraternity offers to its undergraduates members the Douglass Memorial Scholarships. Three of these scholarships are awarded each year to deserving Phi Beta Sigma men selected from the various chapters.

Annual conventions are held during the Christmas holidays. In 1921 the convention was convened at the seat of Zeta Chapter in Atlanta, Ga. The next convention will convene in Baltimore at the seat of Gamma Chapter. The last annual convention welcomed the opportunity while in session, to pledge with befitting resolutions, its support to the Dyer Anti-Lynching Bill.

The Alpha Chapter at Howard has woven itself into the various activities of university life and maintains a pro rata share of representations in the various organizations and societies which go to make up University life. The chapter has a very comfortable home at 325 Tea St., N.W.

XI CHAPTER 1923 KAPPA ALPHA PSI FRATERNITY

1923
Kappa Alpha Psi

National Fraternity

The Kappa Alpha Psi is the second oldest Negro Greek letter fraternity in existence today. It was organized at the University of Indiana in 1910 by Mr. Elder W. Diggs, and a group of colored students in residence there. The ideals of this group of young men were very high and they were ambitious for themselves and for the race. However, they were practical in their ideal, for much practical benefit accrued from this pioneer organization. The idea of entrusting their ideas and ideals to other students in other institutions occurred to them, and the fraternity began to grow, slowly at first, but later it spread across the continent. The second and third chapters (Beta and Gamma) were organized at the universities of Illinois and Iowa respectively.

Wilberforce University was the first Negro institution at which the fraternity organized. After its organization there, it organized itself into a strong national body, with a Grand Chapter as the directing body. Uniformity in policies and in practices began to be characteristic of Kappa Alpha Psi. Due to the fact that few colleges reached the standard which the organization set, its growth was slow; but in January, 1922, it had a total of eighteen active chapters, and ten alumni chapters. Kappa Alpha Psi since 1915, has been recognized by fraternal authorities as both a National College Fraternity and a General College Fraternity.

The various chapters of Kappa Alpha Psi issue from time to time, bulletins intended to keep the fraternity informed as to their progress. The national body publishes the only monthly Negro fraternity organ. The national officers are as follows: Grand Polemarch, Geo. F. David; Grand Vice-Polemarch, J. J. Peters; Grand Keeper of Records, Dr. C. Leon Wilson; Grand Keeper of Exchequer, Rev. H. W. Jamieson; Grand Strategus, I. J. K. Veil; Grand Lieutenant Strategus, J. B. Scott. Board of Directors: Mr. David, Dr. Wilson, Messrs. Wells, Peters, Jamieson, Dean Woodard, Dean Armstrong, C. W. Dorsey, E. A. Dickerson, H. L. Wallace. Journal Staff: Lionel F. Artis, editor-in-chief; A. H. Maloney, assoc. editor; Elder W. Diggs, business manager; Irven Armstrong, advertising.

In order to promote the welfare of Medical, Dental, and Pharmaceutical students of Howard Medical College by bringing into close contact men whose aims were common and whose interests were mutual, by keeping alive the highest ideals of professional ethics and unselfish devotion to these distinguished professions, Dr. E. Clayton Terry of Washington, D.C., and Dr. C. R. Humbert of Kansas City, Mo., established in 1913, the Alpha Chapter of the Chi Delta Mu Fraternity.

The close relationship between the allied professions of Medicine, Dentistry, and Pharmacy has been acknowledged since the days of the Hippocratic oath and throughout history these professions have shown points of ethics common to one another. The Chi Delta Mu Fraternity thus justifies its existence by strengthening these bonds of mutual interest when and wherever the opportunity is present whether it be in the student body or the active workers in these professions.

In response to the demands of this age of specialization, the Chi Delta Mu Fraternity enjoys the unique distinction of being the only Negro fraternity of its kind in the world, in that it accepts for its membership only those men who are in active pursuit of Medicine, Dentistry or Pharmacy or Doctors who have been graduated in these professions.

The fraternity home owned by the Alpha Chapter located at 301 T Street, N.W., is a building admirably suited for fraternity life; and the tradition of welcome and hospitality maintained at the home are the bywords of both members and visitors.

The present officers of the organization are as follows:

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

Alpha Kappa Alpha is an intercollegiate Greek letter sorority, the first chapter of which was organized at Howard University in 1908. This was the first sorority to be formed among Negro college women, and the step taken by a small group of earnest young women of Howard has paved the way to a large extent, for the formation of other similar organizations. The growth of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is comparable to the growth of its emblem, the "Ivy Leaf."

From one chapter in 1908, with a small membership, Alpha Kappa Alpha has become a nationally chartered organization of nineteen chapters embracing a very large membership that includes exalted honorary members and graduate members who are filling places of leadership. The Annual Boule of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority met at Indianapolis, Indiana. Myra Smith was sent as a delegate from Alpha Chapter.

"The Ivy" is the first Chapter publication of Fraternal organizations. It was published by Alpha Chapter, December 1921 at Howard University.

The officers of Alpha Chapter are as follows:

Evelyn A. Lichtner ......................................... Basileus
Beatrice V. Howell ...................................... First Anti-Basileus
Ruth E. Butler ........................................ Second Anti-Basileus
Jessie Bullock ........................................ Second Anti-Geummaten

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

As everything in the universe has a nucleus from which it originates, so it was with this organization, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

The Alpha Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was organized at Howard University in 1913. A group of noble and worthy young women realizing the necessity for such an organization to promote efficiency among its own sex, began work. By constant perseverance and persistent effort through the years, discovering their weakness as well as their strength of character, they have been able to develop those faculties necessary to lead them to success. Today there are nineteen chapters established as follows:

- Alpha ..................................................Howard University
- Beta ..........................................................Wilberforce, Ohio
- Gamma ....................................................University of Pennsylvania
- Delta ..........................................................University of Iowa
- Epsilon ......................................................Ohio State University
