Biographical/Historical note

Booker T. Washington
1856 April 5	Born a slave on a plantation Franklin County, Va., to an illiterate mother and white father.
1872-1875	Went to Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute; studied brick masonry along with collegiate courses.
1876	Graduated from Hampton; taught in a rural school for two years.
1878-79	Studied at Wayland Seminary in Washington, D.C. Became convinced that practical manual training in rural skills and crafts would save his race.
1879	Taught and supervised 100 American Indians admitted to Hampton Institute on an experimental basis.
1881-1915	Organizer and President of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. With the help of his students he built a kiln to make blocks to be used for campus buildings.
1832	Married Fannie McKinney who died 1384; had one child from this union.
1885	Married second wife, Olivia A. Davidson; died 1888; had two sons by her.
1893	Married third wife, Maggie J. Murray.
1895	Gave famous "Atlanta Compromise" speech - urged blacks to concentrate on improving job skills and their usefulness instead of pushing for political and social rights.
1896	Won honorary A.M. degree from Harvard University.
1900	Founded National Negro Business League.
1902	Received LL. D. from Dartmouth College.
1915 Nov. 14	Died.
