1-28-2005

The Hilltop 1-28-2005

Hilltop Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010

Recommended Citation
https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010/211
Campus Housing Almost at Full Capacity

BY MELANIE R. HOLMES

After Monday's mob of housing-hungry students, things have returned to nor­ mal at the Administration Building. The estimated 200-300 students who reviewed floor tickets Monday were allowed to pay their $3000 housing deposits until the end of the day, while the 200-300 stu­ dents that received yellow tickets Tuesday evening will have all of next week to pay their deposits.

However, because 1,000 deposits have already been made and there are only 1,500 beds available, View Point Senior Alston Franklin-Griffith anticipates that all remaining housing will be filled on Monday.

"If you didn't receive a blue ticket or a yellow ticket then you won't be able to participate in the RSVP," Chambers said. "For those students who can't, we host an off-campus housing for every year. We don't just leave it at you didn't receive housing and the door closed." Chambers said it troubles him that the University doesn't provide accom­ modation for all students, but said the KAVP system is meant to recuit students who are doing well.

"The KAVP system was born out of an innovative program," Chambers said. "It's designed to award students who are successfully matriculating through the University through good grades, campus involve­ ment and the like."

In order to select housing students receive points for G.P.A., identification, distance from their home, commu­ nity service, and employment. Beginning March 1st, students who are able to make their deposits will have five dates to select their dorm assignments for the 2005-2006, school year. Those with the most points out of a total of 50 will select housing on the second day, those with the second highest will select housing on the second day and students with the least amount of points will select housing on the third day. Any student who does not choose housing on their assigned day will have the fourth and fifth days to do so.

Chambers said the blue tickets were distributed Monday to get the several hundred students who gathered outside of the Administration Building to pay their housing deposits out of the cold weather.

See HOUSING, News A9

ROOTS Organization Hosts Roots Mini-Serries

BY CHRISTINA W. MONTGOMERY

With Black History Month just a few days away, Howard University students were treated to a special screening of the mini-serries "ROOTS" on Monday evening. The film was shown for students with brown tickets and open to the general public.

"If this show is as good as it's been reported, then I will give it even more support even though I'm not an cpb member. You can get it on the yard to see a fashion show," said sophomore psychology major John Jenkins.

Some students were not so optimistic about the fashion show. "I probably won't come because the fashion show is on campus and it's always the same people," said sophomore

The "Roots" mini-serries has been shown all week in the Founders Library Brown Room by the ROOTS organization. They will conclude their presentation Sat. Jan. 29 at 6:30pm.

See ADVICE, News A9

For students who have certain things it is very, very important as far as the lines and shapes of the clothes we wear. It was very, very interesting sur­ prisingly. There's something that the School of Communications should consider doing again this semester.

For some students, the screening also provided an opportunity to talk about the reality of how much they did not know about proper etiquette and how valuable it would be as Howard students. "It's funny how much you don't know when you think you know much," said senior sociology major, Grace Thomas. "It was very interesting to dis­ cuss the movie with intelligent people," said sophomore polit­ ical science major Victoria Williams. "To see the different ways people think about it makes me realize certain things about

See ROOTS, News A9

Campus Housing Almost at Full Capacity

BY MELANIE R. HOLMES

After Monday's mob of housing-hungry students, things have returned to nor­ mal at the Administration Building. The estimated 200-300 students who reviewed floor tickets Monday were allowed to pay their $3000 housing deposits until the end of the day, while the 200-300 stu­ dents that received yellow tickets Tuesday evening will have all of next week to pay their deposits.

However, because 1,000 deposits have already been made and there are only 1,500 beds available, View Point Senior Alston Franklin-Griffith anticipates that all remaining housing will be filled on Monday.

"If you didn't receive a blue ticket or a yellow ticket then you won't be able to participate in the RSVP," Chambers said. "For those students who can't, we host an off-campus housing for every year. We don't just leave it at you didn't receive housing and the door closed." Chambers said it troubles him that the University doesn't provide accom­ modation for all students, but said the KAVP system is meant to recuit students who are doing well.

"The KAVP system was born out of an innovative program," Chambers said. "It's designed to award students who are successfully matriculating through the University through good grades, campus involve­ ment and the like."

In order to select housing students receive points for G.P.A., identification, distance from their home, commu­ nity service, and employment. Beginning March 1st, students who are able to make their deposits will have five dates to select their dorm assignments for the 2005-2006, school year. Those with the most points out of a total of 50 will select housing on the second day, those with the second highest will select housing on the second day and students with the least amount of points will select housing on the third day. Any student who does not choose housing on their assigned day will have the fourth and fifth days to do so.

Chambers said the blue tickets were distributed Monday to get the several hundred students who gathered outside of the Administration Building to pay their housing deposits out of the cold weather.

See HOUSING, News A9

ROOTS Organization Hosts Roots Mini-Serries

BY CHRISTINA W. MONTGOMERY

With Black History Month just a few days away, Howard University students were treated to a special screening of the mini-serries "ROOTS" on Monday evening. The film was shown for students with brown tickets and open to the general public.

"If this show is as good as it's been reported, then I will give it even more support even though I'm not an cpb member. You can get it on the yard to see a fashion show," said sophomore psychology major John Jenkins.

Some students were not so optimistic about the fashion show. "I probably won't come because the fashion show is on campus and it's always the same people," said sophomore
Student Tells Tales of Transfer Troubles

BY ADAM VICKS

When technical theater major

Jenifer Baker transferred from Washington University to Howard

at the start of this spring semester,

she thought she would maintain her academic status. However, on account of the absences from the consortium at the start of the spring semester, she was forced to take the extra step to find out if her credits would transfer. As a result,

Baker was informed by her Howard advisor that she would be classified as a freshman, her situation is not new to students transferring to Howard.

Michele Cody, president of the Howard University Transfer Fund,

describes the situation as follows:

"It was a beautiful, expanding foundation at Howard University, and administration of justice double major.

That was the case for senior broadcast journalism major Mike Holmes.

However, when he transferred to Howard, the admissions office was not prepared to accept the credits of his previous school. He was therefore required to complete an additional year of study at Howard University.

To help alleviate this problem,

HCU has created an office to transfer students who have problems with credit transfer.

"I do not think that students utilize this office," Cody said.

"Sometimes the counselors need to make a name for themselves to transfer students should make necessary preparations before transferring.

For Ak Baker, this takes the form of a letter written by the admissions office.

"When I first started in the Chess Club at Howard University, I was not interested in what tournament we were playing," said Joseph Lafayette, vice president of The Talented Tenth. "We are only interested in playing chess is about."

NEVER SATISFIED?
GOOD.

Call it a hunger to accomplish something great. Or simply an eagerness to solve problems quickly. This quality is as much a benefit as any we offer our clients. If you share it— and are interested in joining a dynamic culture— stop by our upcoming campus visit. Dare we say you won’t be disappointed.

Firmwide Information Session
Learn about our summer opportunities
Tuesday, February 1, 2005
6:00 pm – 7:00 pm
School of Business, 5th floor Student Lounge

Application Deadline: Thursday, February 3, 2005
Apply online at gs.com/careers and through your career services office.

Campus Interviews:
Wednesday, February 16, 2005
Lady Donald Trump a Fashion Fanatic

BY SUSAN D. SIMMONS
Contributing Writer

In 2004, one bonmmining fashion show was "Hot for IV". We dispelled "First Class" to the heights of fashion in Howard University, Howard University's "First Class" continued in its excellence, winning the 2004 award for best fashion show, and the popular "First Class" theme. This show was sponsored by a clothing company, and in the fall of 2002. Howard University's "First Class" theme was chosen as the theme for the 2004 fashion show. The show was a great success and was well-received by the audience. It was a great way for Howard University students to support their favorite clothing company and to appreciate the hard work of their designers and stylists.

The following spring of 2003, she put together a team to produce "LeAntigue Grace", which was a black and white fashion show. This show was also a great success and was well-received by the audience. It was a great way for Howard University students to support their favorite clothing company and to appreciate the hard work of their designers and stylists.

The hilltop
January 28, 2005

A4 Campus

Employee of the Week

BY KAREN BRUNDIDGE
Contributing Writer

When she comes to work every morning, she wears a beautiful style and a willingness to serve different patrons from her work dates, but extremely professional. This is how many students feel about Tafahma Paige-Donald who works in the Dean's Office of the Division of Fine Arts.

"She is one of the most through people at Howard, and like others, you don't see a personal level, actually learning from the students," said Andrea Hogan, senior human development major.

Paige-Donald is the coordinator of student support services, has been working at Howard University for over 10 years, and in the Division of Fine Arts since 1990. She also serves as a secretary and teacher for many students. She assists students in the offices of graduation requirements for Fine Arts and multicultural arts and theater.

"If I have a work injury or need help with a computer related problem, she is always helping and able to provide assistance," student council spokesperson.

"Shelby takes the time to welcome students who are from other states and make their felt at home," said D.C. "She makes them feel as if they were in her own family and will help them out as if they were in her own family. She often invites Howard students to her home for homemade meals. She makes you feel like a part of her family, whether it be a member of the university or someone. She always offers her help to those who need it." happy," said Odesa Scott, administrative assistant in Fine Arts.

"I love coming to Howard and seeing the students everyday. They keep me young."
Expect more.

As a top U.S. investment bank, Banc of America Securities has achieved one of the largest market share gains on Wall Street. Today we continue to build leadership through our innovative thinking, financial power and integrated banking model. Are you looking for greater visibility and impact? We have a compelling story. Come learn more.

Howard University Summer Internship Opportunities Presentation
Corporate & Investment Banking, and Capital Markets
Tuesday, February 1, 2005
6:00 p.m. - Howard University School of Business,
Center for Professional Development
Bush Seeks $80 Billion for Iraq and Afghanistan

BY KEVIN HARRIS

The White House announced that President Bush plans to ask Congress for $80 billion to fund the war in Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House officials expressed confidence that the request would pass, with many Republicans and some Democrats supporting it.

Some House, White House officials, speaking on the press teleconference, said that the $80 billion would pay for U.S. military costs through the end of the year. The White House is also requesting $75 billion to pay for Iraq and $5 billion to aid in Afghanistan.

Secretary-General Kofi Annan today urged the international community to give $60 billion to help poor African nations. Annan has been controversial to some members of the General Assembly, notably the United States, which opposes aid to nations that support terrorism.

Nations that were given grants have been shown to be able to reduce preventable deaths within five years. The grants are an important step, and there is room to do more to help end preventable deaths.

The new proposal, scheduled for presentation to the United Nations Security Council next month, would establish a framework for global action on global poverty. It would call for a new global partnership to eliminate poverty, with the world's richest nations committing to help the world's poorest nations.

In a speech, the President said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the international community to find a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

The $80 billion request is the largest in U.S. history, and it is likely to be debated in Congress. The White House said that the request would be considered as part of a broader package of proposals to stabilize the situation in both countries.

In a speech to the American Public, President Bush said that the U.S. was committed to providing $80 billion to Iraq and Afghanistan. The White House said that the request would enable the government to continue its efforts to stabilize the situation in both countries. The President also mentioned that the U.S. would continue to work with the internatio
Bush Meets with Black Leaders

By KEVIN HARRIS

In an effort to reach out to a community already agitating his presidency, President Bush held meetings with Black leaders, including Black postal workers, at the White House this week.

White House officials said the meeting was well attended and that some of the key leaders were impressed with the president's sincerity.

The meeting occurred Tuesday and Wednesday and participants said they discussed a host of issues, including the war on terrorism, the plight of Iraqi refugees and the need for a permanent solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

The meeting was the latest in a series of outreach efforts the president has made to the African-American community.

But some leaders, including African-American ministers and political activists, have been critical of the president's outreach efforts, saying they have not been sufficiently responsive to their concerns.

The president also met with a group of Black community leaders in Washington, D.C., on Wednesday to discuss the war on terrorism and other issues.

The meetings were part of a broader effort by the White House to reach out to the African-American community, which has been a key source of support for the president.

The president has met with a number of Black community leaders in recent weeks, including Reverend Al Sharpton, the Rev. Jesse Jackson and the Rev. Al Sharpton II.

The meetings were part of a broader effort by the White House to reach out to the African-American community, which has been a key source of support for the president.

The president has met with a number of Black community leaders in recent weeks, including Reverend Al Sharpton, the Rev. Jesse Jackson and the Rev. Al Sharpton II.
TAKE THE BARCLAYS CAPITAL TRADING CHALLENGE AND YOU COULD BE PACKING FOR NYC!

Think you have what it takes to compete and win on Wall Street? Sign up for the Barclays Capital Trading Challenge and find out.

Here's how it works: We give you a set amount of "money" (not real) to invest during a simulated trading session. Achieve the best results and you could earn a summer internship at Barclays Capital, located in the heart of it all — New York City!

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:
February 2nd 2005, 5 p.m. EST

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!
FINAL COMPETITION: FEBRUARY 16TH

All Howard University Juniors are eligible. To register, please email your resume to sean.medermott@barcap.com by February 2nd 2005, at 5 p.m. EST.

Participants will receive materials and instructions to take part in the Qualifying Round on February 7th — 11th.

The top 25 scorers in the Qualifying Round will be invited to play the Final Trading Challenge on February 16th from 3 — 7 p.m. in the Simulation Learning & Research Lab, School of Business, Room 558.

At the end of the Challenge, the two students who have achieved the best results in the Final Trading Challenge will earn a summer internship at Barclays Capital in New York City.
Housing Fair Next Resort

HOUSING, from Campus A 1

According to Chambers, after the blue ticket ran out, dorms were notified in all dorms stating that Thursday would be the only day we will accept deposits. The ticket was not going to be available again. We are working on getting students who did not receive a blue ticket the chance to pay their deposit all next week.

Chambers

This is not measured by the number of people, but by the discussion that takes place,” Cole said.

When ROOTS was developed, the founder member had not attained the group for the popular discussion. The idea came from the common connection with the legal profession.

Goldsmith’s Advice into Practice

ADVICE, from Campus A 1

Goldsmith & Associates, president and chief image officer of Marva Goldsmith’s, shared her expertise on networking and professionalism.

According to Chambers, after the RSVP process this year, the University is currently planning new ways for students to make their payments as the students choose to pay their housing deposits sooner rather than later. To prevent the problem from arising next year, the University is currently planning new ways for students to make their payments online, ” Chambers said. “We’re preparing to allow all students to make their payments.”

Goldsmith Offers Students Advice

ADVICE, from Campus A 1

Goldsmith’s offered an opportunity for students to network with legal profession.

“We have had the blankets here since the administration. We have had the blankets at Bruce-Monroe Elementary School. This semester, the organization is planning to focus on the homeless, the struggle of Stokely Carmichael. We have had the blankets since the administration. We have had them here since the administration.”

Bowling for Breast Cancer

Tenth

Bowling for Breast Cancer, a fundraising event to raise awareness and funds for breast cancer research. Other events in the planning stages include a talent showcase for Howard students, mentoring at Bruce-Monroe Elementary School and continuing their efforts to help the homeless. The Teacher/Staff Appreciation Ceremony will be held Feb. 17 in the Blackburn Center Gallery Lounge at 6 p.m.

Tenth Showcases HU Teachers

TENTH, from Campus A 2

TENTH, from Campus A 2

Tenth will hold its Teacher’s Appreciation February 17 in the Blackburn Gallery. This is not the first event for Tenth as they have also sponsored “Bowling for Blankets.”

Looking for a career that defies the law of gravity?

Then talk to someone who knows science.

Isaac Newton 1642—1727

Audition in Washington DC

Audition in Washington DC, March 12

Programs & Benefits

- Scholarships
- Student Housing
- Theatre with the distinguished College of The American Academy of Dramatic Arts
- National and International Tours
- Work & Summer School

Act Now!

New York: 800 463 8990
Los Angeles: 800 228 2867

www.aada.org

Science Careers

If you want to head upward in the world of science, it’s essential you don’t leave your career to chance. At ScienceCareers.org we bring science. We are committed to helping you find the right job, and delivering the advice you need.

For more information visit www.aas.org.
How Do You Read It?

Monday.
Tuesday.
Wednesday.
Thursday.
Friday.

February 28, 2005
Ronald Bartell Jr. (41) made crunching tackles and pace break-ups a regular part of the Bison secondary this past season. He had a no-nonsense approach to break-ups this season.

The team went from anticipation to reality, as conference win of the season conference coaches because he was voted first

Ronald Bartell achieved his success with an excellent performance at the Senior Bowl, an all-star game that includes the top senior college football, he has interested.

Barton's approach to break-ups this season has noted over his rise and coverage ability. Ed Will, the Director of Sports Information at Hampton, said, "In the last two years, no player has generated as much attention from NFL scouting combine."

Barton's approach to break-ups this season has noted over his rise and coverage ability. Ed Will, the Director of Sports Information at Hampton, said, "In the last two years, no player has generated as much attention from NFL scouting combine."

Barton's team are waiting to hear if Will Gant will be able to play in Hampton's game. They are currently on a long streak coming off a bench unit.

The Bison are waiting to hear if Will Gant will be able to play in Hampton's game. They are currently on a long streak coming off a bench unit.

Meliomi Benson led Howard with 16 points but the Lady Bison came up short in a home loss to Hampton on Monday. They have undergone a 4-game winning streak.

0-4 in conference, with 0 points per game and breaking the school's 3-year high of points per game. Like Howard's, the Lady Bison team has been led by the phenomenally talented Dorothy Brown.

The standout guard has made complete transition from freshman, averaging 15.5 points, and is adjusting skill to team's leadership role.

What is perhaps most in center is his children's confidence in the team. At Hampton, he has "In Benton's words, "We have a lot of young players out here to be there in the leadership position.""

Benton's words, "We have a lot of young players out here to be there in the leadership position.""

The Lady Bison basketball team hopes to break its own losing streak this Saturday. Jai, 3-1, will face Bethune-Cookman College.

The Bison are waiting to hear if Will Gant will be able to play in Hampton's game. They are currently on a long streak coming off a bench unit.

Meliomi Benson led Howard with 16 points but the Lady Bison came up short in a home loss to Hampton on Monday. They have undergone a 4-game winning streak.

Meliomi Benson led Howard with 16 points but the Lady Bison came up short in a home loss to Hampton on Monday. They have undergone a 4-game winning streak.

Benton's words, "We have a lot of young players out here to be there in the leadership position.""

Benton's words, "We have a lot of young players out here to be there in the leadership position.""

The Lady Bison basketball team hopes to break its own losing streak this Saturday. Jai, 3-1, will face Bethune-Cookman College.
Master and Magician: Ronaldinho, Henry are World's Best

BY KEVIN JOHNSON-AZUARA

CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Barcelona's Brazilian playmaker Ronaldinho Gaúcho and Thierry Henry of Arsenal, Paris. Henry was simply irresistible at season, bagging 41 goals, 34 of those to his Premier League. He was very quickly to join at World Cup Zidane in FIFA 2006 World Player of the Year pot.

Ronaldinho is, at 24, totaled more points in the season, but Henry's reputation and edge-the World Player of the Year award, easily surmounting the 712 votes garnered by Henry. It is the second successive year he had finished second.

Consequently, some fans and pundits feel Henry was flamboyant Frenchman. With numerous analysis matches that Ronaldinho is indeed the best footballer in the world.

Once famed for his antics on the pitch, his off-the-pitch activities (Paris St. Germain) by The Guardian) have suggested Ronaldinho has long had a number of performers as a footballer. At present, he assures the fans he will have second successive year he had finished second.

For Henry, the moment was greeted by Paul LeRoy. “Quite simply, Ronaldinho has performed and stamped his signature on the ‘world’s greatest’ debate. I love him.”

Brazil's Ronaldinho and France's Thierry Henry were 1-2 in the FIFA World Player of the Year Award which was announced in December. The footballers play for clubs controlled by Barcelona and Arsenal, respectively.

Since Sarri first in his official unveiling, the player has played up to his image in the team’s new season. In the calendar.

For Henry, the biggest challenge is staying the goals, 30 of those in the Premier League, 101 points to win the FIFA World Player of the Year Award which was announced in December. The footballers play for clubs controlled by Barcelona and Arsenal, respectively.

The field of sports represents a window of opportunity for talented young players who have the skills to be successful in the world. Henry, at 24, totaled more points in the season, but Henry's reputation and edge-the World Player of the Year award, easily surmounting the 712 votes garnered by Henry. It is the second successive year he had finished second.

For Henry, the moment was greeted by Paul LeRoy. “Quite simply, Ronaldinho has performed and stamped his signature on the ‘world’s greatest’ debate. I love him.”

Brazil's Ronaldinho and France's Thierry Henry were 1-2 in the FIFA World Player of the Year Award which was announced in December. The footballers play for clubs controlled by Barcelona and Arsenal, respectively.

For Henry, the moment was greeted by Paul LeRoy. “Quite simply, Ronaldinho has performed and stamped his signature on the ‘world’s greatest’ debate. I love him.”

Brazil's Ronaldinho and France's Thierry Henry were 1-2 in the FIFA World Player of the Year Award which was announced in December. The footballers play for clubs controlled by Barcelona and Arsenal, respectively.

BY KHALIHE FIELDS

CONTRIBUTING WRITER

Every season has its stars. Every sport has its champions. With the excitement generated by the arrival of the new crop of players, there is always something to talk about.

The current crop is no different. With the addition of young talent to the mix, fans are left with questions about the future of the sport.

The HBCU All-Star Classic is a chance for Howard University to show off its talent and set up the pressroom for pre and post-game interviews. From there, a final list will be made of Howard players who will play in the game and press conferences. And I feel like if I...
Interested in Running for Office?

Attend the

2005 General Elections Commission
Candidate Information Session

Wednesday, January 26, 2005 at 7 p.m.
or
Monday, January 31, 2005 at 7 p.m.
Blackburn University Center
Hilltop Lounge

Come learn about running for office at
Howard University.
Candidate Application packets will be available.
Applications will be due Friday, February 4, 2005!

For additional information, please contact:
General Elections Commission
Blackburn University Center, Suite 116
(202) 806-4510
howardvotes2005@yahoo.com

2005 HOWARD UNIVERSITY
GENERAL ELECTIONS
COMMISSION

The following positions on the 2005 General Elections Commission are now available:

Director of Administration
Director of Communications
Director of Compliance
Director of Programs
Director of Graduate School Elections
Office Assistant/Volunteer Coordinator

PICK UP YOUR APPLICATION
TODAY!
Office of Student Activities
Blackburn University Center, Suite 117

Applications are due January 28, 2005 by 5 p.m.
Should you have any questions, please call
(202) 806-4510 or
E-mail howardvotes2005@yahoo.com
Who & What Students Are Listening To

By Jana Homes

BY BRITNEY JOHNSON

students have found trendy for every type of crowd.

able every night of the week, after-work crowd ... Cumbess, a senior political science major said, "I've been to club i2/2 on Wednesdays. It's the Eyebar on Tuesday nights, and is metro accessible.

are half price from 6pm-9pm ation major Messiah Ramkissoon.

song hits the to 1
day," continually named artist, and his multiple ing from a wide genre base.

ly named artist, and his multiple ing from a wide genre base.

are starting to turn to some of the

More biology major Alexandra

may be surprising to some, there heard favorites.

"I love music. It's my stabilizer.

and artists...

and older crowd, and every song that always gets me out

"I'm not gonna' talk about John amplifier a mood, especially when most importantly, "I still have

(Primary Pictures)

the songs he's doesn't really make any s1gmfi­

tops to be forming his reputation on campus, but he's working on building a new fan base,

working on building a new fan base,

"I definitely try to limit

songs for 2004, don 't seem to be harming music on campus. Some students

the songs he's doesn't really make any s1gmfi­

"The Eyebar or the Eye-Revolution isn't a club anymore," said sophomore-dance major

"I only go if I have passes,

"I don't always bring my ID to more radio stations, though some

"There are also artists, who have been in the industry for many years, and are attempting to reclaim their

"There are a surprising number of John Mayer fans, including

myself, especially after I saw his singing and thinking, and downing shows at KLA KAL, University

 coveted by many people as the students said, "I just keep going to

the songs he's doesn't really make any s1gmfi­

Whatever it is a very litera­

"some of the

Damnit. Jefferey.

when I am in any mood, I can

probably pick a song that corresponds with that mood. Right

now, I'm listening to John Legend-

's<5oulful People'. I'm trying to be happy, so I went and searched

my own artistry as well as to

pay attention to the talent ifl

some of the

"I go some Thursday nights

from dormitories, class­

"I'm not gonna' talk about John amplifier a mood, especially when

"I don't always bring my ID to

"There are also artists, who have been in the industry for many years, and are attempting to reclaim their

"I would go to 5:20 on Wednesdays, Halftooth Records.

"The Eyebar or the Eye-Revolution isn't a club anymore," said sophomore-dance major

"I definitely try to limit

songs for 2004, don 't seem to be harming music on campus. Some students

"I will

then have perfect

"I'm not gonna' talk about John amplifier a mood, especially when

"I don't always bring my ID to

"There are also artists, who have

been in the industry for many years, and are attempting to reclaim their

"There are a surprising number of John Mayer fans, including

myself, especially after I saw his

singing and thinking, and downing shows at KLA KAL, University

 coveted by many people as the

students said, "I just keep going to

the songs he's doesn't really make any s1gmfi­

Whatever it is a very litera­

"some of the

Damnit. Jefferey.

when I am in any mood, I can

probably pick a song that corresponds with that mood. Right

now, I'm listening to John Legend-

's<5oulful People'. I'm trying to be happy, so I went and searched

my own artistry as well as to

pay attention to the talent ifl

some of the
By Shaena Henry

The Hilltop Staff Writer

State Howard is the second most fashionable university in the nation, it should not come as anyone's surprise that there is a campus organization dedicated to fashion. Aisha T. Bothue, a sophomore, graphic design major, "Fashion Council is that it's not about materialism. It's about supporting people who are interested in the fashion industry."

Since Howard is the second most fashionable university in the nation, it should not come as anyone's surprise that there is a campus organization dedicated to fashion. Aisha T. Bothue, a sophomore, graphic design major, "Fashion Council is that it's not about materialism. It's about supporting people who are interested in the fashion industry."

"I would like for people to know that the UFC has participated in the University of South Carolina's event, "a celebration for new designers. "It's no surprise that Andrea Brown's creativity and energy make her style and personality a perfect fit. "I believe clothes don't make the person, but they definitely add to the personality and how it is expressed," says Andrea Brown.

Party Rolls - serves 6 ingredients:
1 medium onion, finely chopped
2 small potato, coarsely grated
1 small carrot, grated
1 pound lean ground beef
2 tablespoons barbecue sauce
1 small egg, beaten

Steps:
1. Cook onion in a microwave oven on High for 1 minute. Drain on paper towels along with grated potato and carrots; the mixture must not be too moist or patties will be soggy.
2. Combine all ingredients, except Lavash bread, in a large bowl. Form the mixture into 24 small, even cakes.
3. Prepare a fire in a grill to medium heat.
4. Grill fingers on hotplate for 14 minutes, turn occasionally. Serve wrapped in strips of Lavash bread with a dipping sauce of your choice.

"My style is all over the place," said enthusiast student public relations major, Andrea Brown. "Mary J. Blige is one of the artists I own. It's not about materialism, it's about supporting people who are interested in the fashion industry."
The Oscar Goes To...

Best Actor in a Leading Role

- Leonardo DiCaprio
- Jamie Foxx
- Leonardo DiCaprio
- Jamie Foxx

Best Original Song

- "What a Wonderful World" (Ray Charles)
- "Almost" (Sia)
- "The Life of an Infulated Apartment" (Foxygen)
- "Man in the Mirror" (Lisa Brodsky)

Best Original Score

- "Finding Neverland" (Walt Disney Pictures)
- "Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban" (Warner Bros.)
- "Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events" (Paramount Pictures)
- "The Passion of the Christ" (Newmarket Film Group)

Best Documentary Feature

- "The Village" (Touchstone Pictures)
- "The Passion of the Christ" (Newmarket Film Group)
- "The Motorcycle Diaries" (Universal Pictures)
- "Troy" (Warner Bros.)

Best Animated Feature

- "A Bug's Life" (Pixar)
- "The Incredibles" (Disney-Pixar)
- "Finding Nemo" (Pixar)
- "Wreck-It Ralph" (Disney)

Best Animated Short Film

- "Birthday Boy"
- "Dad's Army"
- "Lorenzo"
- "Ryan"

Best Live-Action Short Film

- "Everyday in This Country Must"
- "The Gift of the Magi"
- "In the Morning"
- "Lalrom"

Best Cinematography

- "The Aviator"
- "Brokeback Mountain"
- "Inside Man"
- "Lady In The Water""
That was Then...

-mondAy-

-tueDShAy-

dueDShAy-

-thuRsDShAy-

-fridiAy.

Beginning 2.28.05...

monday.

tuesday.

wednesday.

thursday.

friday.

The Hilltop Goes Daily.
Housing Faulty Once Again

A good majority of us are now flipping through the apartment guides and pulling hair trying to think of the next best move.

Every January it’s routine for thousand students to start to get desperate and get paranoid about deposit deadlines. It’s no secret that housing is a problem for this year. We aren’t the only ones, we have thousands of students with needs and appear unable to accommodate that.

In reality there is always going to be that competitive spirit that crops when something is limited. That’s just human nature. We understand and accept it. However, trial and error year after year should result in a method to the madness.

Most students have been beginning giving some down time. As logical as it seems, the housing office is very busy and may lack the time and ability to carry out on mass.

Really if we are able to cut out any of these steps we are going to have a bad response. Hopefully, whatever is done to support this mad rush will be cut out to wear it somewhere different from Housing. (November 2003)

---

A Suicide Attempt Kills Innocent Passengers Aboard Train

A man by the name of Juan Alvarez committed suicide in almost the same manner in the train tracks in Glendale on Monday morning. If his situation prompted him to do this, we have to wonder if there was someone he could talk to.

His situation left many of us wondering why he did this. His situation was reprehensible, yet there are people that believe the Liberty to do and say what they know, the beauty and harm of America needs freedom of choice. Clothing is a personal expression and we who are to demand someone to dress in a politically correct way.

Not every person in this country is satisfied with the “white t-shirt.” The interest couldn’t increase the “white t-shirt” and gain views away. We were sure most of the visitors are just curious like we were. However, it’s understandable why people are paying good money to perpetuate hate and stereotypically.

We are all supposed to be family here, it’s true that we have watched something happen in our minds of a life. We were immediately just when we thought we paying good money to perpetuate the tsunami 2004,” that only the unimagable. Mr. Alvarez isn’t addressed, things will only get worse.

---

A Suicide Attempt Kills Innocent Passengers Aboard Train

A man by the name of Juan Alvarez committed suicide in almost the same manner in the train tracks in Glendale on Monday morning. If his situation prompted him to do this, we have to wonder if there was someone he could talk to.

His situation left many of us wondering why he did this. His situation was reprehensible, yet there are people that believe the Liberty to do and say what they know, the beauty and harm of America needs freedom of choice. Clothing is a personal expression and we who are to demand someone to dress in a politically correct way.

Not every person in this country is satisfied with the “white t-shirt.” The interest couldn’t increase the “white t-shirt” and gain views away. We were sure most of the visitors are just curious like we were. However, it’s understandable why people are paying good money to perpetuate hate and stereotypically.

We are all supposed to be family here, it’s true that we have watched something happen in our minds of a life. We were immediately just when we thought we paying good money to perpetuate the tsunami 2004,” that only the unimagable. Mr. Alvarez isn’t addressed, things will only get worse.
Make the Money, Don't Let the HU School of Business Class of 2003

I am pleased to have been a part of the Howard University Class of 2003. It would be a shame if the money that blood, sweat, tears and time accomplished couldn’t be used to buy your dreams. It usually takes a combination of businesstimes into a business venture that makes it possible. One such business is Prepaid Legal, one of the most popular companies in the MLM industry. The Hilltop actually has an article on this company. They have been around for over 20 years and have sold to over 10 million people. The company itself is known for its direct sales approach and has a strong reputation for providing legal services. However, there have been concerns about the legitimacy of some of its practices. I thought the article would serve to educate the public on the company's offerings and practices.

Housing Mania: An Insider’s Perspective

I've always been fascinated by the housing market, especially in recent years. With rising prices and limited availability, it's a challenging time for many. The article I found discusses the high demand for housing and the challenges that come with it. It mentions the importance of being prepared and doing research before making a decision. The article also touches on the impact of housing on communities and the need for more affordable options. Overall, it provides valuable insights for those looking to enter the housing market or simply stay informed about its trends.

Oil Mania: An Insider’s Perspective

The article I found delves into the world of oil exploration and production. It highlights the challenges and opportunities in this industry, particularly in the North American region. The article discusses the role of technology in improving efficiency and reducing costs, as well as the geopolitical implications of energy production. It also touches on the need for sustainability and responsible practices in the oil sector. Overall, it offers a comprehensive look at the oil industry and its impact on the global economy.

Want to write for the Hilltop?

Come grab a seat at the budget meeting on Tuesday, 7:00 PM at the Hilltop office.

DEAR Hilltop:

I AIN'T KNOWIN' NOTHING BOUT NO RVP!! ALL I KNOW IS YOU GOTTA FIND A DIFFERENT CORNER FOR YOURSELF!!!

BRITTANY GAIL THOMAS

Carpenters! After weeks of battling legislators, advertised promises and disappointments, the day of the debate was something that interested students did when they too the stage, hunting, shouting, and ultimately chanting. “I will” be office next year. For some, the hustle-and-bustle of the imminent A-Building beginning at 6:30 a.m. and, for many, much earlier. To my surprise the foreshadowed “housing mania” wasn’t so bad. Class was also bundled up students formed line, sat on newspaper, and found comfort.

Peace was at the Campus until temps flared, the temperature rose, and all bolted homes. While some students faced the cold, the heat in the Administration Building was definately教导的。 Suddenly, the newly “formed” Family became enraged by the disregard of the number of the administrators who arrived late but cut the line. The ensuing scene of people running for the doors, and police officers in the vicinity to personally address the situation.

For some people in here you'll never get anywhere it was at 6:30 a.m. now and it was still cold. The early birds could have left cool, calm and collected. Keaton is an article that was stamped by an official vandalism Howard University stamp. The Bouvef President of Student Affairs Franklin Crumley tried to talk the birds refused to leave and began each statement with “No, I’ve been here a few years, I’m just learning.” The students wanted to convey that they had not made a decision. The Hilltop magazine had to be received, but the result turned out to be a lot better than the students expected.
The Ladies of Alpha Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. present the 2005 Crimson & Cream Ball

\begin{center}
Maxquadrade
\end{center}

Saturday, January 29, 2005 8 pm
BLACKBURN BALLOOM TICKETS ON SALE @ CRAMTON BOX OFFICE FOR MORE INFO PLEASE CONTACT CUNIQIE ERICA MARSHALL 973-449-0702

The Ladies of Alpha Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Photographers will be on site

FREE DENTAL SCREENING at The Hilltop

Howard University College of Dentistry
Saturday, Jan. 29, 2005 10:00 a.m - 1:00 p.m
2nd Floor Dental School

Especially for Cavities and dimensions

The Honorable Brothers of Pi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity, Inc.

Present:

The "Ridin' Dirty on 88" Skirt Party
featuring DJ Chuck "Chuckie" Chuckie

The "Ridin' Dirty on 88" Skirt Party
featuring DJ Chuck "Chuckie" Chuckie

GET YOUR TICKETS BEFORE THEY ARE SOLD OUT!!! It's now or never! It's an old cliché you get the picture and bring a date

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN A CAREER IN ADVERTISING OR MARKETING???

COME FIND OUT ABOUT THE MANY JOB OPPORTUNITIES THAT CAMPBELL-EWALD HAS TO OFFER.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 2
7:00PM
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ROOM 200
DON'T FORGET YOUR RESUME!!!

HOSTED BY THE AMA AND THE IAA

YAA'S African Hair Braiding
Specializing in:
Individual Braids, Kinky Twist Yero Braids, Human Hair & More
907 Euclid St. NW
Washington, DC 20001 202-387-4810

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. And JESUS said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishermen of men."

Matthew 4: 18-19

YAA'S African Hair Braiding
Specializing in:
Individual Braids, Kinky Twist Yero Braids, Human Hair & More
907 Euclid St. NW
Washington, DC 20001 202-387-4810

YAA'S African Hair Braiding
Specializing in:
Individual Braids, Kinky Twist Yero Braids, Human Hair & More
907 Euclid St. NW
Washington, DC 20001 202-387-4810

"I'm ridin' dirty on 85, slow takin' it easy, he patient cuz I'm comin' for you."

1-29-05

2-28-05