Scope and Contents

The papers of Educator, Historian and University President Charles H. Wesley document his personal and professional life from his time as a student at Fisk University to his later years as Historian of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. and a leader in several prominent organizations. The majority of the papers date from 1908 – 1987, the year of Wesley's death. The collection measures approximately 82.94 linear feet.

The collection was donated to the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center by Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

The collection contains biographical data and personal documents. The correspondence spans the length of Wesley's career until his death in 1987. Included are correspondence with Carter G. Woodson, Lorenzo Greene, Founders of Alpha Phi Alpha and Rayford W. Logan can be found in the collection. Also contained are extensive research notes and documents related to Wesley's writings on Prince Hall, Alpha Phi Alpha Founder Henry Arthur Callis and the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs. Handwritten copies of Wesley speeches and drafts of his publications are found in the collection as well.

A significant portion of the collection is dedicated to the organizations in which Wesley either belonged or led. Organizations with significant representation include the Association for the Study of African American Life and History where Wesley served as Executive Director, President and as an Executive Council Member, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. for which Wesley served as Historian and President, Central State University, Sigma Pi Phi, the United Supreme Council and Wilberforce University.

Lastly, the collection contains numerous photographs related to the Wesley family, and organizations. Artifacts relate to Wesley's work life and time at Fisk and Yale are also housed in the collection.
