CHARTER DAY HONORS

2 As you will note in the first item in Newsfile, the university gave distinguished alumni awards to six individuals during this year's Charter Day celebration. Also, for the first time, two other individuals and a major corporation received special honors.

We offer our congratulations to Faye B. Bryant, Revella E. Hughes, Colbert J. King, Althea T.L. Simmons, May Miller Sullivan, Gerald E. Thompson, Robert P. Madison, Roland B. Scott and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Inc. They were honored for achievements in education and administrative services, entertainment and the arts, business and finance, law and public service, humanities and journalism, medicine and professional service, humanities, science, and beneficent support, respectively.
