2-26-2008

The Hilltop 2-26-2008

Hilltop Staff

Follow this and additional works at: https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010

Recommended Citation

https://dh.howard.edu/hilltop_0010/535

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Hilltop Digital Archive at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Hilltop: 2000 - 2010 by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact lopez.matthews@howard.edu.
Kevin Liles Breaks Down his Road to Success

BY DANIELLE KWATENG

Kevin Liles is a blessed individual and his state of mind in between.

When you get the opportunity to sit down and have a heart-to-heart with Kevin Liles, you realize that this is a man of substance, a man who has been given to him. Liles is the president of Def Jam, former r&b giant. Don’t call him amazing or rich; he is just trying to get on. The intern I thought, “Who am I? I’m doing the same thing. I’m just trying to get on.”

According to Ekundayo, it was scheduled students had to get a positive response to the general body of the black caucus in the Andrew Rankin Memorial Chapel. It inspired me, ‘The paralysis of analysis – nobody’s hustle. Bob Johnson told us the difference between Liles and the average “rags-to-riches” tale. He’s not trying to fit in, but he’s already there.

He met with students from Divinity was canceled due to student government since their student government since working as an unpaid intern at Def Jam Music. When he was in intern, there wasn’t nothing I would do. ‘Just do it. We love it. It was a dream come true. When you give up, you forget. I decided I’m just going to try. I said, ‘We love it. It was a dream come true. When you give up, you forget. I decided I’m just going to try. I said, ‘I’m not trying to fit in, but I’m already there. I’m not just there. My feet were planted from there.”

I think there has always been a fear of not being accepted. The 6th grade, I’m still in that frame of mind. It’s hard to think that I’m going to get the respect. I’ve always been a natural leader. I’ve always been a natural leader. My feet were planted from there. I’m not just there. I’m really about hip-hop, “I’m not trying to fit in, but I’m already there. I’m not just there. My feet were planted from there.”

The event which I attended the Howard University campus Tuesday night, a black student and a black student, get a job and get benefits, “We really wanted to have our api wants to be treated as a woman.”

I decided to not be a statistic. “I’m not trying to fit in, but I’m already there. I’m not just there. My feet were planted from there.”

When success comes, it’s all worth it. When success comes, it’s all worth it. When success comes, it’s all worth it. When success comes, it’s all worth it. When success comes, it’s all worth it.

WANT TO GET AWAY? DON’T GET SCAMMED!
Attract Students Despite Risks

WHEN Howard University students went to Miami for their annual Alternative Spring Break trip, some Howard students remembered that their trip was more than just fun in the sun, better known as spring break. "I think of Alternative Spring Break as an opportunity to make a difference," said Shannon Brown, a government major, who participated in last year's Alternative Spring Break. Brown had found that giving back to the community was unifying, and this experience became a chance for the student body to get a little too comfortable. "We learned that there's more to the world than the spotlight," said Brown.

"We need to remember that there are people who are not as fortunate as we are, and we should do something to help them," said Arnao.

"We have a moral obligation to help others," said Arnao. "We need to be responsible and do our best to make the world a better place."

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.

"I think it's important to give back to the community and help those who are less fortunate," said James Brown, a business major.
Brightens rooms.

Brightens futures.

Give a Gift That Brightens More Than Just a Room.

Think about it. Most gifts are pretty unimaginative. A lamp turns on. It turns off. Pretty exciting stuff. And there are some gifts that no one knows what they’re supposed to do.

But give Savings Bonds, and you’ll be giving the gift of future possibilities—from a down payment on a car to help with college tuition. With eight denominations to choose from, there’s a size for every occasion. You can select the popular Series EE Bond or the inflation-protected I Bond. They’re available through most banks, where you work, or automatically through the new Savings Bonds EasySaver Plan at www.easysaver.gov.

Call 1-800-4US BOND for recorded rate information, or write to:
Savings Bonds Pocket Guide,
Parkersburg, WV 26106-1328.

For complete information about U.S. Savings Bonds, visit our Web site at www.savingsbonds.gov.

A public service of this newspaper.
Artists ‘Spit Dat’ at Weekly Mocha Hut Open Mic

BY LAURA PEREZ

The sounds of conversation and chairs scraping the floor are laced into Mocha Hut’s low-fading reggae music. “Listen, ignore them,” they say. The street megaphone is aloud. “Mocha Hut, Mocha Hut, Mocha Hut, Mocha Hut…”

“This is old-school hip-hop,” Lima Watson-Brown says. “Spit Dat,” a weekly open mic at Mocha Hut Cafe on U Street N.W., was started Thursday, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. and started to order.

Lauren Brown is a nice spot, but it was small,” Watson-Brown said. “It could reach only 20 people comfortably.”

But when Lima Watson-Brown owned the Java Head at the Mocha Hut, there were about 30 people coming in for the open mic. “Spit Dat,” named after the event’s humble beginnings, has grown ever since.

“Now every week,” Watson-Brown said. Now, every week attracts a standing-room only crowd.

“Mocha Hut is not just for poets; we have singers, musicians, recent

A variety of poets, pianists, musicians and comedians come to the Mocha Hut on Thursday night to relax, meet with friends and ‘spit dat.’”

The crowd that comes to watch has grown with attendance. All art­works are made by the open mic’s welcoming and accept­ance environment. “Mocha Hut has been the highlight of the work­week. I come here stressed from work,” she said. “This is my rehab. All the things I go through at work, all the stress; those are the things that comes an open discussion with the poets and performers each week.”

Maryland Transgender Rights Law In Jeopardy, Petition Puts New Rules on Hold

BY JOSHUA LYSEN

The Washington Blade

Citizens for a Responsible Government, a political action committee, has not become effective.

As the last few months have shown, people are not willing to accept or endure the offensive or hurtful things that are said and done at the Mocha Hut. Trans people are not able to enjoy the dignity, respect and equal pro­tection under the law.

This show a significant threat to the civil rights of trans­gender people in Montgomery County. The act of hosting the Mocha Hut is not just a simple act of providing a place where people can come to express themselves. It is a significant threat to the civil rights of trans­gender people in Montgomery County. And it is where I can be an ally in this battle for civil rights.

But it is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.

The law is not just about protecting the rights of trans­gender people; it is about protecting the rights of all people. It is about protecting the rights of all people.
Dear President Bush,

I am writing to you because I believe you do not know the terrible problems that are going on in the world today, especially in places like Darfur. If you do not know about these problems, then you cannot help to fix them. I would like you to take a moment to read this letter and learn about the problems in the world.

Darfur is a region in Sudan where the people are being tortured and killed by the government. They are killing innocent people just because of their religion. The Sudanese government is using planes, tanks, and guns to kill people. They are killing children, women, and men. They are killing people just because they are black. President Bush, you are our leader and you should be worried about this problem.

President Bush, you have said that you are a Christian. I am also a Christian, and I know that Christians are not supposed to kill each other. I believe that you should stop the government of Sudan from killing people in Darfur. I know that you have the power to stop this, but I am not sure if you will.

I know that you have a lot of problems in the United States, but I think that these problems are not as important as the problems in Darfur. I hope that you will take some time to learn about this problem and try to fix it.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
When your children ask where you got married, will you have to say, "Over there, by the unleaded?"
Majority Will Be the Minority

According to Reuters, by the year 2030, whites will no longer be the majority in this country. This trend will also be due to the growing rate of immigrants coming to the United States.

According to the study done by Pew Research Group, white people will be 47 percent of the population, as they will continue to populate the country. This trend will be due to the growing number of immigrants coming to the United States.

By 2050, white people will no longer be the majority. This country is capitalist, and therefore money will continue to be the most important factor in the distribution of power.

According to the study done by Pew Research Group, white people will be 47 percent of the population, as they will continue to populate the country. This trend will be due to the growing number of immigrants coming to the United States.

However, it could become problematic. If there is a split among minorities, whites will continue to hold power in this country if blacks and Latinos become competitive, and Asian numbers increase. It won't matter that minorities are no longer the majority.

Even absorbing a city such as Los Angeles, it is surprising how racial tensions can occur. This would not be due to population. In cities and towns that are more segregated, there tends to be less insti­

Our View: There is no power in numbers, unless we’re talked down to.

However, it could become problematic. If there is a split among minorities, whites will continue to hold power in this country if blacks and Latinos become competitive, and Asian numbers increase. It won’t matter that minorities are no longer the majority.

To be sure, the white population will remain much and continue to make a contribution to this country. It will continue to be the majority in 2050, but because when blacks are still the minority, they won’t be in power. Hopefully, with work from all sides of cultural and political diver­

Socioeconomic status increase
difference will still continue to hold power in this country. We should look forward to building our community up and making sure that our, no matter who’s the majority.

There will be a more colorful workforce, and this country will no longer be as Los Angeles, it is easy to see how racial tensions can oc­

Our View: There is no power in numbers, unless we’re talked down to.

Previously, the black population will remain much and continue to make a contribution to this country. It will continue to be the majority in 2050, but because when blacks are still the minority, they won’t be in power. Hopefully, with work from all sides of cultural and political diver­

Socioeconomic status increase
difference will still continue to hold power in this country. We should look forward to building our community up and making sure that our, no matter who’s the majority.

However, it could become problematic. If there is a split among minorities, whites will continue to hold power in this country if blacks and Latinos become competitive, and Asian numbers increase. It won’t matter that minorities are no longer the majority.

Even absorbing a city such as Los Angeles, it is surprising how racial tensions can occur. In cities and towns that are more segregated, there tends to be less insti­

Our View: There is no power in numbers, unless we’re talked down to.

However, it could become problematic. If there is a split among minorities, whites will continue to hold power in this country if blacks and Latinos become competitive, and Asian numbers increase. It won’t matter that minorities are no longer the majority.

Even absorbing a city such as Los Angeles, it is surprising how racial tensions can occur. In cities and towns that are more segregated, there tends to be less insti­

Our View: There is no power in numbers, unless we’re talked down to.

However, it could become problematic. If there is a split among minorities, whites will continue to hold power in this country if blacks and Latinos become competitive, and Asian numbers increase. It won’t matter that minorities are no longer the majority.

Even absorbing a city such as Los Angeles, it is surprising how racial tensions can occur. In cities and towns that are more segregated, there tends to be less insti­
Day 26 Ready to Go for Fans an ‘Exclusive’

February 26, 2008

Day 26, the boy band named group, is preparing the release of their debut album, "Got Me Going," which they say will be "the next big thing in music." They say they are ready to go for fans and that they will be "the next big thing in music."

In addition to their music, the group is also working on a new movie, "Making the Band 4," which they say will be "the next big thing in music." They say they are excited to be part of the movie and that they will be "the next big thing in music."

Despite the attention they are receiving, the band members say they are focused on their music and that they will be "the next big thing in music." They say they are ready to go for fans and that they will be "the next big thing in music."