Dear Mr. Nabrit,

Yesterday I received the letter written from your office dated April 1, 1944 containing the many news items about the university, and was indeed glad to receive it. The delay in receipt of the letter was probably due to it being posted to me at my former military address, which was that of a unit in the 93rd which is now in the South Pacific.

I have run across several Howardites in my military travels, and just now there is one other graduate of the School of Law here in the 92nd in the person of Cpl. E. Lewis Ferrell. There is also a fellow in my company who attended the Law School for about a month and a half before being drafted. His name is Fontenot.

Well, I haven't much time so I must close. I thought that I would write this note to accompany the enclosed questionnaire as I often think of and refer to the classes I had under you in Contracts and Personal Property. (I never did like Bills and Notes [smile]) Best regards to the faculty and friends of Howard.

Sincerely,

Arthur M. Bates
