Dear Dr. Nabrit –

Some few days ago I sent you a cable in re – Leroy V. Hall a student in the Dental School. This young man lives at my house, and recently my wife advised me he was having some difficulty in one subject. While I am not fully informed as to all the facts I am making this overture in his behalf because I do know the boy. He is sincere, and does study. Now if he has mentally failed, then of course nothing can be done. My information is the classes are being cut and some elimination must be made. I can assure you this young man is worthy of every consideration.

Thoughts of you, kind with kindest forward

Regards – I am Sinc – Earl W. Howard
