

Foreword

*Four years have passed
Since first beholding on the bill
The splendor of the Howard
That we love. . . .*

*Four years have passed
And passions, laughs, heartaches, thoughts and ecstasies
Now are memories. . . .*

*Four years have passed
Caught on the wings of Mercury—
Seems only yesterday
It was so new. . . .*

*Four years have passed
In friendship, understanding, camaraderie
That will remain a very part of us
Forever. . . .*

*Four years have passed
And now our eyes are cast at new horizons
Greater things
There's much to do!*
