The Last Word

HERE is "THE BISON." It is not all that we dreamed it should be. It is an imperfect thing, and we know it. Yet we have endeavored to make the best of the limited resources at our command. If we have failed, it has not been because we have lacked energy and vision. Into it we have put our summum bonum.

To those who have assisted us we wish here to express our sincere appreciation: to our accommodating Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Scott, who kindly permitted us the use of certain engravings in the University Printing Office; to the University Record and the Washington Tribune who also put engravings at our disposal; and above all to Professor James Vernon Herring and his students in the Department of Fine Arts, without whose constant, cheerful, and willing aid and guidance this record of our University career would have been impossible.
