ANDREW RANKLIN MEMORIAL CHAPEL

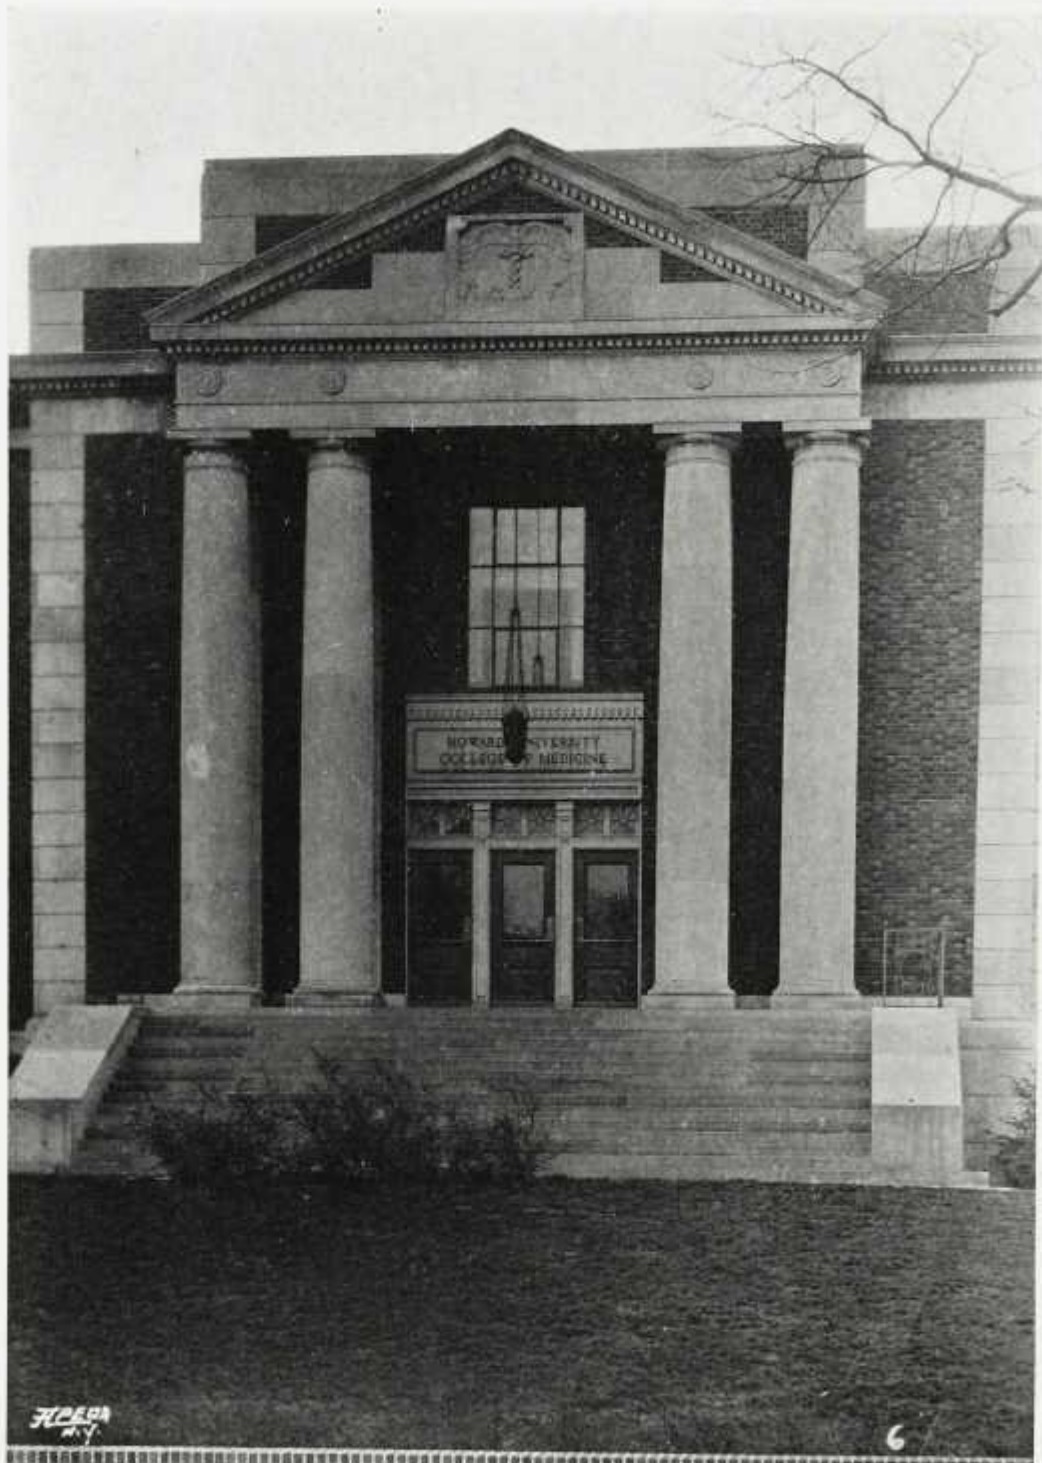

*Then most musical and solemn, bringing back the olden times,
With their strange, unearthly changes, rang the melancholy chimés;
Like the psalm from some old cloister, when the nuns sing in the choir,
And the great bell tolls among them, like the chanting of a friar.*

LONG WALK

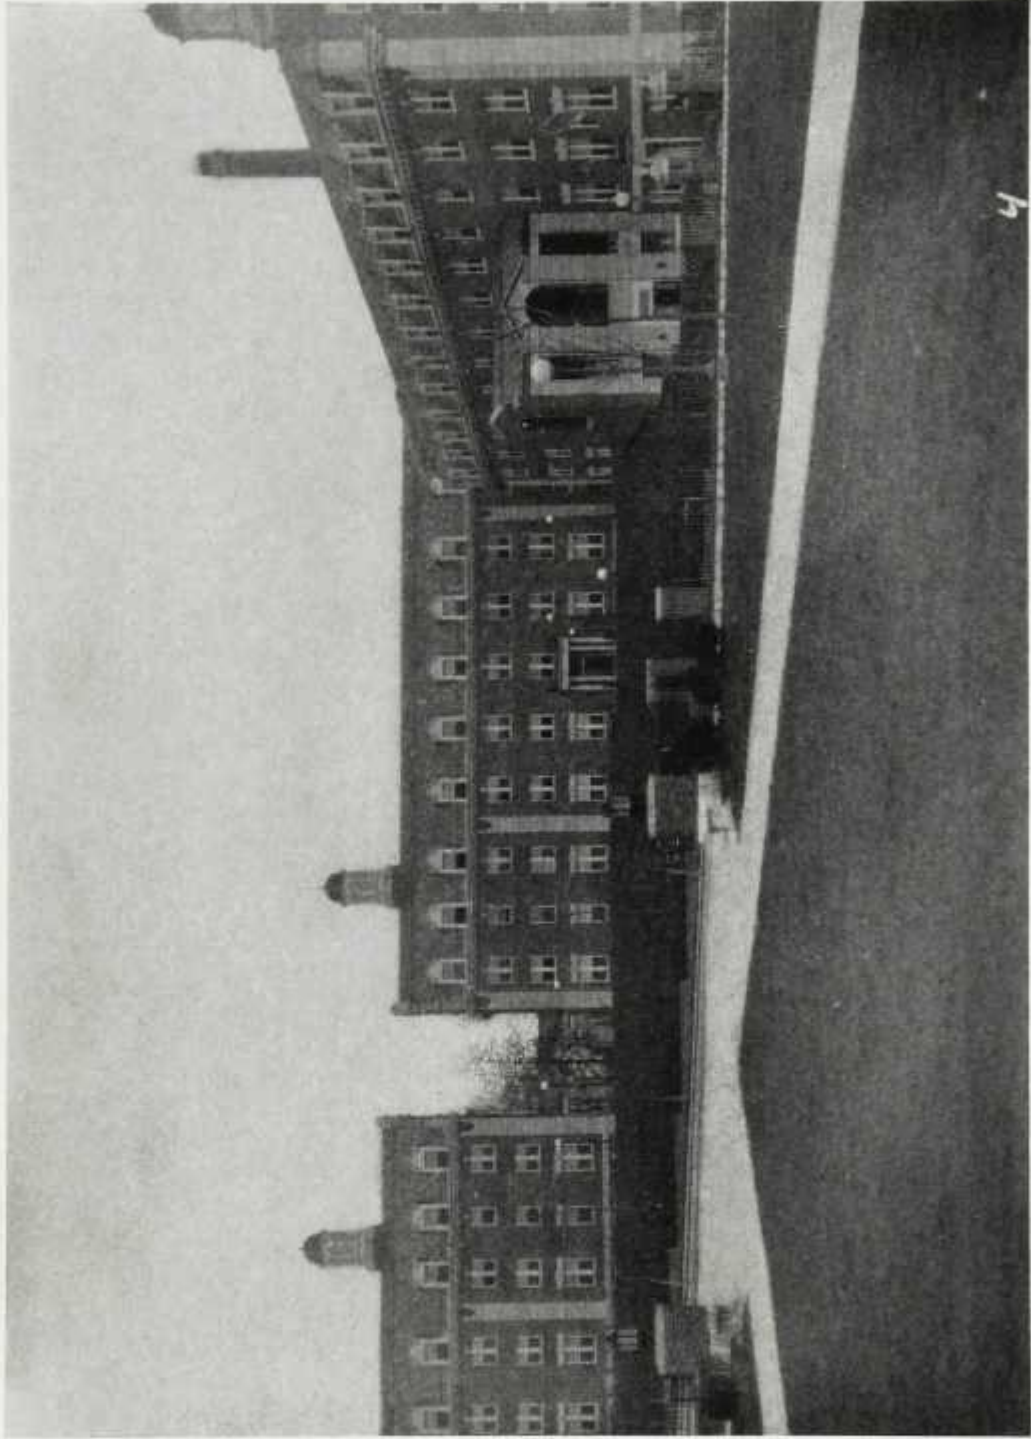

*And lingered on its beaten path
In sunshine and in rain?*

*And who of us have never trod
The Long Walk down to Main*
