Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities is an annual compilation of biographies of distinguished students throughout the nation. The purpose of the project has been two-fold: First, to serve as an understanding honor in which a deserving student, after displaying merit in college and accomplishing his goals, would be given recognition without having to pay some fee—Second, to establish a reference volume of authoritative information on the great body of America's leading college students.

Requisites for membership are scholarship, character, leadership in extra-curricular activities, and potentiality for future usefulness to business and society. Juniors, seniors, and students in advanced work are eligible.

Seniors whose biographies appear in the 1943-44 edition of Who's Who include: Elaine Brazier, Doris Brown, Orville Crutchfield, Pedrito Francois, Mary Jo Greene, Lorenzo Harris, Thomas Hill, Lester Houston, James Mitchell, Catherine Roett, Gene Thompson, Julia Thompson, Myrtle Thorne, Beatrice Turner, Bryant Walker, Craig Wesley and Mary Wormley.

Juniors on whom this honor was conferred are: Jane Bowles, William Branham, C. Allen Johnson, Ruth Simmons and Alvin Thompson.
