1945

Fisk, Marvin M. - 1945 (holograph)

MSRC Staff

Follow this and additional works at: http://dh.howard.edu/humwa_corres

Recommended Citation
Staff, MSRC, "Fisk, Marvin M. - 1945 (holograph)" (1945). Correspondence. 48.
http://dh.howard.edu/humwa_corres/48

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Howard University Men and Women in the Armed Forces at Digital Howard @ Howard University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Howard @ Howard University. For more information, please contact lpez.matthews@howard.edu.
Somewhere in North Burma
4 May 1945

Dr. James Nabritt,

Dear Sir,

The letter idea to the servicemen from Howard's is wonderful. It makes one feel very good to read about things in a civilized part of the world. It pictures so beautifully the scene of campus life and recalls to us the time we walked, studied, and played "Far above the lake so blue.

It is obvious what a change has taken place during the past years of suffering, loneliness, and separation. Many of us know grief, know what it means to be in severe pain, and withstanding human torture and also the torture of nature. Some have passed on by one or the other, and some will pass on before it's over, and others will come home as they left and others with permanent disabilities. From the less we all did our share—there on the home front as well as those on the battle fronts.

Captains Hinton, Coleman, Marshall and I are assigned to the 335th Station Hay
in Burma and are graduates from Howard. I had never known it from the publication released by the University for as yet we haven't received one. Our names were omitted from the roster of the whereabouts of Howard's servicemen also.

It's amazing the work the boys are doing under such hazardous conditions. How they are able to go from one day to the other puzzles me.

Perhaps I had better sign off, but I want you to know we think of Howard and love her very much. Regards to all Howardites.

Sincerely,

Marvin M. Fisk