Among Our Graduates
Many an erstwhile sport, has pleaded for time.

W stands for Wyatt whose smiles are the sort,
That makes Cupid's arrows fall thick 'round our hearts.

X stands for an unknown an unfathomable thing,
So into the limelight J. Triscott Tucker bring.

Y stands for you your subscription is not paid,
You'd better send in your money or your paper will be delayed.

Z is the same as X so we find,
To leave out Leslie F. would not be so kind.

Etc. stands for all those I'm forced to neglect,
So three cheers for the Academy Herald she'll get there yet.

⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐

Among Our Graduates

It is not an unknown fact that the graduates of our Academy always make good wherever they go. Hence, it is always a source of pleasure to us to record their whereabouts and attainments. The location of last year's class is as follows:

Mr. C. A. Morgan, Clark College, Arts and Sciences, Worcester, Mass.

Mr. A. T. Coleman, School of Theology, Union University, Richmond, Va.

Mr. N. O. Goodloe, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. J. F. Winston, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. H. I. Wilson, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. A. R. Milburn, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. W. T. Grinnage, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. G. B. Washington, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. E. M. Brown, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Mr. G. L. Pendleton, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Miss Cavassa Satterwhite, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Miss Mabel Thomas, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Miss Alice Yancey, College of Arts and Sciences, Howard University.

Others not yet heard from will be published in our next issue.

⭐⭐⭐⭐⭐

At St. Elizabeth's Asylum

FOUND

Agnes H's first sweetheart.
Chester W's heart's desire.
Mildred J's lost husband.
Odele's friend from Mobile.

LOST

Mr. Mercurious