The Cheek Years

A Pictorial Review

Most of the photographs in this section came from a vast photographic record kept in James E. Cheek's office. The events represented here include formal and informal occasions at various venues, including foreign lands. The personalities represented — in addition to students, faculty and university administrators — include two former presidents of Howard University, a U.S. president and a vice president, cabinet officers, members of the U.S. Congress and visiting heads of state. Also, authors, educators and celebrities from the world of entertainment, the media and sports. □
