PERMISSION TO PUBLISH REQUEST FORM: CITE/QUOTE MSRC MATERIALS

Requesting Permission to Quote from Manuscript Materials

Patrons are permitted to use brief excerpts from manuscripts housed in the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center's collections without prior authorization, provided that proper attribution is given to the source and the MSRC is acknowledged. Please note that permission is not required for quoting from out-of-copyright printed materials in the MSRC collections, although we appreciate acknowledgment of their use.

For extensive quotations or the publication of entire works, as well as complete letters, permission is required. Please provide us with comprehensive details regarding the intended publication, including the title, publisher, nature of the project(s), and anticipated publication date. For more questions, please email us at msrcpermissions@howard.edu.

- Permission is required IF using more than 1,000 words in total or 300 consecutive words from a single source.
- For poetry, short stories, lyrics, etc., permission is required for using more than 10% or 10 lines, whichever is less.
- Permission to use a complete literary unit, regardless of length, is not prohibited.
- The total quoted from a single source must not exceed 10% of that source or 5% of your original work.

Conditions Governing Use and Publication of MSRC Materials

Permission for publication is granted for one-time use and only for the expressed purpose described in this contract. Please note, however, that permission is granted only to the extent of the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center's ownership of the rights relating to your request. Certain works may be protected by copyright or related interests, not owned by the Center. The responsibility for ascertaining whether any such rights exist, and for obtaining all necessary permissions, remains with the applicant.

- Complete and submit the PERMISSION TO PUBLISH REQUEST FORM: CITE/QUOTE MSRC MATERIALS.
- Please submit ONE form with a sampling of the text in which you are requesting to publish. (Note: limitations and requirements listed on the form)
- Any subsequent use or change in use constitutes reuse and must be applied for in writing to the MSRC and appropriate fees paid.
- Permissions will not fill out any vendor paperwork or international tax forms.
- Any alterations or changes made to requests 24 hours after receipt of confirmation and approval will be subject to additional surcharges.
- Permission is limited to the applicant and is not transferable.
- Permission for use is not granted until all fees are paid.
- Altering the original text requires further discussion with MSRC Staff. These changes must be indicated in the accompanying citation or label.
- Unless specifically authorized by this agreement, text may not be used as a dust jacket, an end paper, nor in an advertisement or any commercial or promotional use of a similar nature, nor to mass reproduce as unbound material.
- In authorizing the publication of the selected text, the MSRC does not surrender its own right to publish it or to grant permission to others to do so.

- All rights are non-exclusive.
- ENTERTAINMENT AND BROADCASTING USAGE also requires the completion of a Clip Agreement. Once submitted, requests will be reviewed by the Howard University Office of General Counsel and a determination will be made once their review is complete.
- The applicant agrees to send the MSRC one (1) complimentary copy of the work containing the reproduction.

The MSRC does not issue rights in perpetuity. Rights are offered for a maximum period of three (3) years, or for the life of the project. For any text used in entertainment or broadcast productions, rights are offered for a maximum period of three (3) years, or for the life of the project, up to ten (10) years. Please see the Clip Licensing Agreement, Exhibit B for more details.

Copyright Warning

The fees outlined herein are payable to MSRC for permission to publish materials owned by the MSRC. The granting of permission to use material for publication does not absolve the publisher from securing permission from the copyright owners and payment of such additional fees as the copyright owners may require if the MSRC does not own the copyright or if the material is not in the public domain. Users assume responsibility for questions of copyright and invasion of privacy that may arise from publication of MSRC materials. Requests to quote text under the "Academic Works" option are not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research."

As per the Copyright Revision Act of 1976, effective January 1, 1978, unpublished manuscripts by authors deceased prior to 1933 entered the public domain on January 1, 2003. Typically, for works created after January 1, 1978, copyright protection endures for the author's lifetime plus an additional 70 years. For further details, kindly refer to the official website of the U.S. Copyright Office. For additional information on copyright law, please visit the Library of Congress.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a request for publication if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

Nonprofit Eligibility

Nonprofit fees are applicable only to those organizations able to prove legal not-for-profit status by providing suitable documentation such as tax-exempt certificates or letters of identification. For-profit corporations, partnerships, private businesses, and individuals working for or with nonprofit organizations and government agencies on projects or publications sponsored by those organizations may be eligible to receive nonprofit rates with suitable letters of identification.

Credit Information

The publication must properly credit the Moorland-Spingarn Research Center. Credit should appear near the text or in a special section devoted to credits. Depending on the MSRC source below, the preferred credit line is:
